Maritime Electric Company, Ltd of the ASSOCIATED SYSTEM Charlottetown, P. E. I.

New Haven-Dunedin Notes

Mr. E. E. Sharbell, Portage, has a buyer at New Haven, taking smelts.

Some of the smelt fishermen have tried a few "dips" but so far, the catches have been small.

Much drifting ice has halted navigation on the river for a time. However we expect to see the boats running for some time yet.

Mr. J. A. Berrigan, A.B., R.C.N., is spending a short vacation at Dunedin. On his return to Halifax he will leave on the winter cruise to the West Indies and South American parts.

Messrs Heber MacLean, Leo Berrigan, Joe Miller, Ewen MacDougall and Pat Osborne made a trip to the city on Saturday last on the motor boat Hazel R., operated by Louis Berrigan.

Mr. Chas. Moore recently towed two rafts of creosote piles from Charlottetown, to be used for the new wharf to be built at Dunedin next spring. Mr. Hessel MacNevin will be in charge, it is understood.

Mr. Malcolm Lamont, St. Catharines, slipped and fell on the ice on Saturday last, and injured his head so severely that he required medical aid. We are sorry that "Mac" should have been so unfortunate, and hope to see him out again soon.

Mr. Jack McEachern, St. Catharines, had the misfortune to lose his dwelling house by fire on the morning of Nov. 29th. A large crowd gathered, and although they saved practically everything movable, it was impossible to save the house, as the supply of water gave out. A loss of this kind is always hard to bear, but this one, coming at such a time of the year, will be all the more keenly felt.

The rather severe frost of late, has naturally turned our thoughts to the winter's activities. Chief among those, will no doubt be hockey and skating, if the weather man will give us his assistance. Last year's hockey team will be intact with the exception of the late George Moore, who was one of the most valuable players on the team. George will be indeed sorely missed, for his persistent hard playing, never failed to bring good results. The players are expecting a good season and hope to play games with several outside teams.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacDougall on the arrival of a baby girl.--N

Peters Road and Vicinity

We wish the Guardian and staff a happy Xmas and a prosperous New Year.

While we have heard little grumbling about the continued mild weather, we are now greeted with a moderate snow-fall.

The following parties from Peters Road and vicinity have left the serenity of their homes presumably for Trenton, N. S.: Mrs. Angus McLean and family, Peters Rd.; Mr. Archie Acorn, Alliston; Mr. Elmer McSwain and Miss Laura McLeod, Messrs. Chester McSwain, Willard Carver, Malcolm McLean, Hayden VanDerstine and John McLeod. Some of these will likely go further if the work in Trenton does not materialize quickly. We wish them all success.

Clipping in part from the Evening News, Halifax. The Guardian is pleased to learn that of the seventeen graduate nurses who have received diplomas from the Victoria General Training School for nurses at Halifax, N. S. one is a native of P. E. Island viz: Miss Mae Marjorie Griffith. Mr. Justice Chisholm presented the diplomas, and Dr. H. K. Macdonald addressed the graduates on their excellent showing. Following the graduation exercises a dance in honor of the "Seventeen" was held in the "Lighthouse Hall". Miss Griffith mentioned above is a daughter of Mrs. S. Davidson, Peters Road. We wish Mae and her fellow graduates success in their chosen profession.

Mr. J. L. McKinnon's fox ranch at Peters Road has been completely remodelled--the interior being replaced with a spacious building 25 feet square, with passage 5 feet wide running lengthwise. The interior pens are extended and connected with outside pens of equal size. Thus fresh air is always accessible in plenty, and the snow problem is happily eliminated. Mr. McKinnon has now three pairs of superior pups from renowned stock. The first two pairs are from the ranch of R. S. Humphry, Kensington. The female in first pen is from champion prize winner 1927, Toronto Fair. The male is also from prize winners 1927, Toronto Fair. The sire of the second pen male won first prize at Toronto 1927. The female of this pen is a sister of the champion adult female, her brothers and sisters winning five first prizes at Toronto Fair. The third pair came from the ranch of W. P. Callahan, St. Louis. The broeder of the female was a champion winner at the Fair Toronto 1926, also the parents of the female took high honors. In reference to the fox show at Calgary the "Summerside Journal" says in part: "Foxes which made such a splendid showing exhibited at the Calgary Fair were composed of stock, the originals of which were from the ranch of W. P. Callahan, St. Louis.

Mrs. Elmer Millar nee (Miss Belle Macdonald) Peters Road has gone to her new home in Murray Harbor North. Needless to say her absence will be keenly felt in her native settlement and home, as Belle was very popular with all. Her many friends with the Guardian join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Millar a happy pathway through their wedded life.--P.

The marriage of Miss Sadie Bryenton, Malpeque, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Bryenton of Spring Valley to Mr. Charles Duggan, Sea View was solemnized at the Manse Kensington, by Rev. Dr. Saint on Tuesday, Nov. 17th. The young couple will reside in Sea View and they will be followed to their new home by the very wishes of their very many friends.

The annual bazaar and tea of the congregation of Ketr Memorial church was held in Malpeque Hall on Saturday afternoon Dec. 8th. A large number partook of the delicious supper, which was served. It is understood that about seventy dollars was realized from the bazaar table and about sixty dollars from the supper.

A miscellaneous shower was given Mrs. Charles Duggan at her former home in Malpeque on Thursday evening Dec. 6th. About one hundred and fifty participated in the enjoyment of the evening. Misses Thelma Woodside and Janet Champion carried a well laden basket containing many gifts of silver, china, linen, etc., which were presented to the bride and gratefully acknowledged by her. Splendid violin music was furnished by Messrs Charles Woodside, James Bearsto, and Ray Paynter, while the guests enjoyed several hours of dancing. Supper was served and later the company dispersed leaving behind them many good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Duggan for future happiness.

Mrs. Edward MacKay, Darnley, is spending a few days in Charlottetown where she was summoned on account of the serious accident which happened to her son, Mr.

KENSINGTON

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter White, Kensington, on Nov. 27th, when a large number of friends and neighbors invaded their hospitable home for the purpose of bidding them farewell and extending best wishes for their happiness and prosperity in their new home in Summerside, where they have since removed. Mr. White who has conducted a meat market and fox ranch in Kensington for some years will be much missed in the community. He was a member of the Town Council and was always prominent in any movement for the betterment of the community. Mrs. White's modest and unassuming disposition endeared her to all her acquaintances among the women folk. Mr. and Mrs. White were presented with a beautiful centre table and other valuable gifts. Master Boyce White, who is popular with the Kensington High School children was called to the home of Mrs. Jardine, on another occasion, and presented by his school chums with a beautiful scarf and tie. The following address, read by L. T. Lowther, principal of K. H. S., epitomizes the feelings of the whole community toward Mr. and Mrs. White and children: Dear Friends-- Very few people in our community will not feel sorry that our genial citizen, Mr. Peter White and his good wife and children are removing to the neighboring metropolis.

Our presence here tonight is in evidence of our appreciation: of the loss we are suffering by your departure. Though not a native of our town yet it was not long after our coming here that every one felt they had always known Peter White. Your kindly disposition and jovial countenance soon won our confidence. Your interest and help in connection with many of the activities of the community have not passed unnoticed or unappreciated, and we regret your going. Mrs. White has always been well known and well liked in Kensington. Once before her departure was mourned by her numerous friends and acquaintances; but fortune was kind to us--in a few years she returned to her native heath, but not alone--in her train came a stalwart mounted policeman and counter part for each of the happy pair. Kensington appreciates such assistance from her daughters, but our regard for your good man prevents us from wishing to see you duplicate your performance. Your life in our midst has been characterized by none but the happiest relations. All have felt the force of your friendly personality. All will miss you from our community life. We shall miss your children from school and play activities. We trust that they will always have a warm spot in their hearts for Kensington and their Kensington friends. Though your new place of resi-denance is within very easy reach in these times, yet you will no longer be in our midst, and in token of our sense of loss we would ask you to accept these gifts. Our esteem and good wishes go along with it. We trust that you will have all happiness in your new home, and hope to see you often in the future. K
