—CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY — The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Management of the Children's Aid Society for Prince County was held on Tuesday night in the Town Hall, Summerside. The President, Dr. J. A. McPhee, presided. The Agent and Truant Officer, Vincent J. Harrington, reported truancy well in hand. As usual he had a number of children who had stayed home for lack of clothing but he was able to furnish some from the clothing which citizens had left with him for the purpose and he had purchased a few pairs of rubbers and boots the bills for which he presented to the Society and were ordered paid. The Society has very limited funds for this purpose and if any citizens have children's clothing, boots or rubbers, which they would leave with Mr. Harrington at his home on Church St., or at his office Water Street, or would telephone him he would gladly call for same at it is urgently needed this winter if many children are to be kept in school. A case from the western end of the province of neglected children was reported and ordered to be investigated by the agent. A family in Summerside was reported to be in poor circumstances and as they came here recently from one of the upper provinces, it was felt that the province from which they came should make provision for their support.—S

BROOKVALE SCHOOL

The semi annual examination of Brookvale School was held in the schoolhouse on the afternoon of December 22nd in the presence of a large number of ratepayers and visitors.

The school room was artistically decorated for the occasion with spruce and holly besides other Christmas decorations.

The pupils were examined in their studies by their teacher Miss Kathleen Cusack ably assisted by Rev. Father Pitre, parish priest, Mr. Matthias Hogan, teacher of Maplewood, Messrs. J. E. Condy, Peter Sturdy, Brookvale and Miss Elizabeth Cusack, U. C. C. They showed by their ready answers that they had been carefully instructed during the term.

An interesting and educational feat of the afternoon was a spelling match in which all the pupils took part, a prize being offered by the teacher to the winner. Mr. Albert Smith was elected

Turn those clouds

Inside Out!

YOU can gain a fuller, richer enjoyment of life by keeping in tip-top health. For health and happiness go hand in hand.

A frequent cause of poor health is constipation. It clouds your waking hours, and dulls even the sunniest disposition. Yet it can be overcome by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN also provides twice the blood-building iron of an equal amount by weight of beef liver. The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that in leafy vegetables.

Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily will overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not corrected this way, see your doctor.

Think how much better it is to enjoy this food in place of taking patent medicines—so often harmful and habit-forming. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

"When you're healthy, you're happy"

"How you feel — and how well you look — depends largely upon the food you eat. Be sure your diet is balanced — with sufficient 'bulk' to promote regularity."

IN MEMORIAM

MRS MARY A. CLARKE

Mrs. Mary A. Clarke, widow of the late Denis E. Clarke, formerly of Orwell, P.E.I., passed away at her home, 2258 Elphinstone St., Northwest, Winnipeg, Wednesday night, Dec. 28th, at the age of 80. She had been ill for about a week.

The daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John L. Cragg, Mrs. Clarke was born in Halifax on September 28, 1852. All her children survive her, and were at her bedside at the time of her death.

She is survived by three sons and three daughters, John C. Clarke, 2257 Elphinstone street; Frank J. Clarke, 2247 Retallack street; William J. Clarke, Winnipeg; Miss Frances Clarke, Regina; Mrs. J. J. McPherson, Canton, Alta., and Sister St. Mary Denis of the Congregation de Notre Dame, Waterbury, Connecticut.

The funeral was held Friday morning at 9 o'clock from Holy Rosary Cathedral to Regina Cemetery. Rev. Father Hughes officiated. Rev. Father Holland, rector of Campion College, and Rev. Father Phelan assisted him. Speers' Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

The following acted as pallbearers: Rev. Brother Keenan, S.J.; D. J. MacGregor, J. J. Smith, Dr. J. M. Uhrich, A. G. McKinnon and J. P. Cowhig. Known to many in Regina, the passing of Mrs. Clarke will be keenly felt.

The late Mrs. Clarke was married at St. Mary's Cathedral, Halifax, on September 11, 1876, her husband died at Orwell, P.E.I., on May 1, 1909. Mrs. Clarke was well known in church circles, being of a very retiring disposition this most exemplary mother performed her many acts of Christian charity in a quiet ostentatious manner. She was a valued member of the Church Extension Committee of the C. W. L. being an expert needlewoman her services on the committee meant much. Generous and thoughtful there are many who have reason to remember Mrs. Clarke most gratefully. She died as she had lived. Her death was that of a truly Christian Catholic woman. Rev. Dr. Hughes, her Pastor, gave her the last rites of the church. She prepared calmly for the end and was conscious, recognizing each one of her family just a half hour before her death. Archbishop McGuigan visited her and gave her the Papal blessing. Rev. Father Phelan of the Seminary, was with her when the "dreaded reaper" came. Such an exemplary life! Such an exemplary death! What a legacy to leave her children!

God grant we may rest as calmly when our work like hers is done."

A large number of Masses and spiritual bouquets were received from the institutions of the city and many friends.
