HAZARD & MOORE

A MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY

Messrs. Geo. Carter & Co's Store Thronged With Those Desiring Christmas Novelties.

Yesterday a GUARDIAN representative visited Messrs. Geo. Carter & Co's bookstore and was impressed with the immense throng in every department. In looking through the different sections he noticed that the stock, specially selected, is replete with the newest, most appropriate and most attractive for decorative or useful intent. In books, statuary, delicate china, toys, bric-a-brac, etc., there is apparently nothing missing. The front store was thronged, the annex was crowded, while in Santa Claus' department up stairs one had to elbow his way. In talking with Mr. Geo. Carter, the representative was informed that in the line of novelties there has been a great demand. "When it comes to books," said Mr. Carter, "it seems that all our lines are popular with the buying public. Especially is this true in regard to new novels, the poets, and books for boys and girls." Around the Christmas card table was a large crowd, and it looked as if those coming today would have to do without, but Mr Carter stated that the large surplus stock in all lines kept in reserve prevented a shortage.

It is pleasing indeed to note that the firm is greatly encouraged with this season's trade, which has exceeded all previous records.

SHOOTING AFFRAY

William Power Shot in Connolly's Saloon

BY J NALDS.

The Bullet Extracted in the Ho

William Power was shot last evening in H. C. Connolly's saloon Grafton Street, by John Donalds, a waiter. On enquiry of the police THE GUARDIAN learns that the shooting took place about 8 o'clock. Power, who had been raising some disturbance in other parts of the City, called at Connolly's saloon and demanded liquor which was refused him. It is alleged that he then hurled a metal cuspidor at Donalds but the missile struck against the wall. Donalds then ordered Power to leave the room which he refused to do. Donalds then drew a revolver and fired at Power, the ball lodging in the muscles of the thigh. Power then left and walked to the Gardens where he fell. Help was secured and he was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital where Dr. Kelly dressed the wound. The bullet, which is a 40 calibre will be extracted today. No arrest was made last night.

MAGICAL

is the effect produced on a big family wash by a single cake of SURPRISE soap.

The housewife's labor is reduced one half; the original snowy whiteness is restored to the linens without boiling or hard rubbing and the disagreeable odors so noticeable with other soaps is done away with entirely.

And yet it costs no more than ordinary soaps.

CITY AND COUNTRY.

THE West River and Elliot Hall Sunday School will hold their Annual Xmas concert and tree in Afton Hall on Friday the 27th.

THE boy who steals THE GUARDIAN from the door of a certain residence on King Square will be prosecuted if he does not discontinue the practice.

Yesterday evening a number of the members of the Baptist Congregation of this city visited the home of their pastor, Rev. G. P. Raymond and presented him with a purse of $50.00 in gold and the following address;

To REV. G. P. RAYMOND,

Charlottetown, Dec. 23, 1901.

REV. AND DEAR SIR.—During your pastorate with us you have by your faithfulness and kindness endeared yourself to the hearts of your church and congregation. And as you are to be no longer our pastor we the people to whom you have ministered in spiritual things cannot allow this occasion to pass without giving you some tangible expression of our regard for you, and of the esteem in which you are held by us.

We recognise the fact that it was through your untiring efforts and hours of labor, that we have been able to make so large a payment on our church debt and by your faithful efforts in this direction have materially lightened the burden, which we as a church, have to bear.

To you, Rev. Sir, is also due the credit of having improved the lighting of our church building, for you were instrumental in bringing about the change, and securing for us the comfort we now enjoy in this respect.

During the three years that you have been with us, we have found you to be worthy of the confidence reposed in you, and have ever found you ready and willing to assist in every good word and work.

While we regret that you are to be no longer our pastor we rejoice to know that you will still be with us as a brother and member of our church. As you engage in this new department of church work to which you have been called we pray that you may be richly blest and that you may be the means of awakening a deeper interest in this important branch of church work.

And now Dear Sir on behalf of the church and congregation we ask you to accept this gift, not for its commercial value but for the spirit in which it is given, be assured it is from loving hearts and that the prayers of the givers go with it that you and your estimable partner in life who has also proved herself to be worthy of our esteem and love, may be abundantly blest.

Wishing you the compliments of the season and praying that the Giver of all good gifts may continue to bless and make you a blessing,

We remain
on behalf of the church and congregation
Respectfully,

Com. { R. H. JENKINS, H. WEBSTER, Geo. S. SIMMONS.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond replied to the address expressing the pressure for the kind words expressed and the $50 accompanying the address.
