DYSPEPSIA-PROOF.

How Any Meal Can Be Thoroughly Enjoyed Fy Any Stomach.

Men, as a rule, are first discovered by their enemies. Their antagonists turn on the searchlight, and the proof of merit will lie in being able to stand the flash.

It was only in this way that Mr. White ever knew that dyspepsia was one of Mr. Black's worst enemies. Sitting face to face at a two-by-four table, he handed his afflicted friend the bill of fare:

Oyster Cocktail. Stuffed Olives.
Boston Clam Chowder.
Strained Gumbo.
Sirloin Steak with Mushrooms.
Roast Beef Hash.
Boiled Ox Tongue with Sauerkraut.
Lobster a la Newburg.
Baked Pork and Beans.
Combination Crab Salad.
Hot Mince Pie.
Pineapple Fritters.

Mr. White ordered a "little of each." Mr. Dyspepsia Black ordered crackers and a glass of milk. "I had such a big breakfast this morning," he said, "that I'll just take a bite to keep you company." But Mr. White could not be deceived; "I am afraid you can't stand the gleam, Mr Black. Why don't you say you have dyspepsia and be done with it? You'll always have that hungry look anyhow as long as you have dyspepsia. Now listen. My stomach was in just as bad condition as yours at one time. But now I can eat anything, at any time. For instance, this clam chowder or sirloin steak or even the lobster would be just as welcome to my stomach as your crackers and milk. You don't realize how this dyspepsia business is robbing you of your spirit, of your energy and ability to think quickly. I can't help notice it. You haven't the cheer and sociability you had three months ago. Now I'll tell you what to do," and thereat the cheerful Mr. White took a vial from his pocket and extracted a wee tablet. "There, there is a tablet that contains an ingredient, one grain of which digests 3,000 grains of food. For even the worst dyspeptic it's the only thing that really gives relief. The reason is it relieves the stomach of nearly all the work it has to do, digests everything in the stomach and stimulates the gastric juice. I can't get along without them. They are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get them anywhere on earth for 50c a package."

Yes, it is true, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets absolutely stop heartburn, nausea, indigestion, dyspepsia of the worst type, sour stomach, bloaty feeling and all eructations and irritation, and freshen and invigorate the stomach. They cheer you up, and make you get all the good there is in your food. You will forget you ever had a stomach to worry you.

Advice to parents— If your child are choked up with cold and croup and their lungs are in danger of becoming weakened by the effects—you can do nothing better than give our Guaiacol Emulsion—It always does the work, and is sold on its merits—40c per bottle.—A. W. Reddin, Phem B.

ON Sunday night, Feb. 4, the dwelling house of Miss Nyand, Mayfield, was destroyed by fire. Miss Wyand and her sister who were the sole occupants of the house had retired for the night, when they were awakened by the noise of the fire, which started upstairs in a defective flue. The neighbors came to their assistance, but the flames had made such headway that the house could not be saved, There was no insurance on the dwelling and Miss Wyand has the sympathy of the community in her loss.

A CORRESPONDENT at New Haven, Conn. sends The Guardian the following extract from The New York American of a few days ago:—"While cleaning a bloated smelt, recently, Fred Ivanny, a fish dealer of West Second street, discovered a tiny bottle containing this message: "Whoever gets this note will confer a favor by replying to the undersigned, Harry Durant. Margate, Prince Edward Island, Canada. January 4, 1906." Ivanny has investigated and learns that the vial was not, as many supposed, swallowed by the fish, but was placed there, prior to shipment, by Durant, who is a fisherman. His purpose merely was to get into communication with someone who could recommend to him a good cook."

UNDER the heading "Maritime man wins Scholarship" the Montreal Star has the following to say:—Mr. McLeod is a student in his fourth year in the Arts faculty, and will in the due course of events receive the degree of B. A. at the convocation in April next. He is at present following the honor classical course, and is the probable winner of the Chapman gold medal for 1906. He entered McGill in the autumn of 1902, coming from Prince of Wales College, P. E. I., a preparatory school which ranks second to none in Canada in the graduating of students who have afterwards won honor in the higher educational institutions of Canada. McGill in particular has been favored in respect to the matriculants from this school, and in recent years Prince of Wales students have formed no small proportion of the medalists in the faculty of Arts. The school has been particularly famous for turning out successful students of the classic, McMillan '07 and Robertson '09 being among the recent winners of the Chapman medal.

THE Guardian's correspondent of Grand View writes:—Neil J. McPherson, eldest son of John N McPherson, Murray Harbor Road, died on the 6th inst of appendicitis. A large concourse of people followed his remains to their last resting place in Valleyfield Cemetery. He leaves a widow and three young children. The Guardian extends its sympathy to the bereaved. Rev. Mr. Webb, of Hazelbrook, conducted the funeral services which were very impressive. Shortly after the service Mr. Webb was seized with a sudden attack of illness and was obliged to remain in Grand View for a few days the guest of Jas McLean. He is now recovered but was unable to fill his engagements last Sabbath.—Rev. S.D.McPhee preached in both churches of Orwell congregation last Sabbath. Although the roads were scarcely passable the attendance was good, an eloquent testimony those days of the people's desire to hear an eloquent and earnest preacher.—Many friends are sorry to learn that A. G. McPherson, teacher of Newton, is confined to his home owing to a sprained knee. It is hoped he will soon be able to resume his wonted duties.—C. L. and Mrs. Grant while on their trip over the M. H. Railway in their private sample car remained over night at Grand View. Mr Grant is one of the most obliging popular and successful salesmen on the road.—We are pleased to see J. D. McLeod, teacher of Grand View School, around again after his recent severe cold. It was gratifying to see some of the lads and belles of Grand View Lodge so attentive on their brother during his illness. Mr. McLeod is of opinion that it would not require very strong specs to enable anyone to see the benefits to be derived from membership in such an organization.

PARALYSIS YIELDS TO DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS

AFTER SEVERAL DOCTORS HAD PRONOUNCED THE CASE HOPELESS.

Convincing Proof That Cure Was Permanent—in Five Years the Patient Has Had no Relapse—Facts in a Remarkable Case Substantiated by Sworn Statements.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are not a patent medicine, but the prescription of a physician, placed on sale with full directions for use under a trade mark that is a guarantee of their genuineness to every purchasr. They contain no stimulant, opiate or narcotic, and while they have cured thousands have never injured anybody. To show that cures effected by this remedy are really permanent and lasting we recently investigated the case of Mr. Frank A. Means, of Reedsville, Mifflin County, Pa. Mr. Means has been an elder in the Reedsville Presbyterian church for many years, has served three years as county commissioner and as school director for nine years. He was afflicted with creeping paralysis, losing the entire use of the lower half of his body, and for a year was a helpless invalid, confined to his bed with no power or feeling in either leg, and physicians had given him up as hopeless. Mr. Means was cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and his testimonial was printed five years ago as follows:

"I had the grip for four winters and as a result my nerves broke down. I lost the entire use of the lower half of my body. My stomach, liver, kidneys, heart and head were never affected, but the paralized condition of the lower part of the body affected my bladder and bowels. For a whole year I lay in bed perfectly helpless with no power in either limb and the feeling gone so that I couldn't feel a pin run into my legs at all. I couldn't turn over in bed without help. To move me a pulley was rigged up on the ceiling and a windlass on the floor.

"During two years of my affliction I had six different doctors, but none of them gave me any relief. A specialist from Philadelphia treated me for three months, but he was of no benefit to me. These doctors gave me up and said it was only a question of a few weeks with me as nothing more could be done. After the physicians had given me up, a friend sent me a pamphlet containing statements of two men who had been afflicted something like me and who had been cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began taking them at once and although my improvement was slow it was certain. Now I can walk most of the time without a cane and everybody around here thinks it is a miracle that I can get about as I do. Your pills have certainly been a God-send to me. Within the last three years I have answered dozens of letters from invalids who had heard of my case and who asked me if it was true that I had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have told them all that this remedy cured me and I am glad of this opportunity of telling about my case so that others may find relief as I have done."

ALBERT S. GIBBONEY.
Notary Public.

One day recently Mr. Means was visited at his handsome home over-looking the valley of Honey Creek, near Reedsville, where he made the following statement:

"Before I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I had been treated for a long time by my home doctor who pronounced my trouble creeping paralysis. I always believed that to be my trouble and I do yet believe so. I had also spent five weeks in the University Hospital in Philadelphia without the treatment benefiting me and had returned home to die. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in 1897, but did not give a statement of my case for publication until I was sure that I was cured. After returning from the hospital I did not take any other medicine for my trouble and I owe it to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and to them alone that I am able to be about to day. Since my cure, as related in my statement of April 17, 1901, I have never suffered any relapse nor had occasion to employ a physician except for minor troubles such as coughs, colds, etc. I endorse Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as fully and heartily to-day as I did five years ago."

Signed. FRANK A. MEANS.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 22nd day of January, 1906.
JACOB KOHLER.
Justice of the Peace.

Justice Kohler, of Reedsville, before whom the above affidavit was made, voluntarily gave and signed the following statement:

"I have personally known Mr. Frank A. Means for the past forty five years and know that any statement he makes is entirely reliable. I personally visited him when he was confined to bed and utterly helpless. I now see him daily and know him to be in as good health as most men of his age."

Signed, JACOB KOHLER.

Mr. Daniel W. Reynolds, postmaster at Reedsville, Pa., stated that he had received many inquiries from all parts of the country concerning Mr. Means' marvellous cure, and he cheerfully added his confirmation of the truth as follows:

"I certify that the facts stated in the testimonial of Mr. Frank A. Means are absolutely true. I knew him when he was unable to move and I see him every day now on the streets and in my office."

Signed, DANIEL W. REYNOLDS.

Here is evidence that must convince the most skeptical. But because many of the cures accomplished by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are so marvellous as to challenge belief, the following offer is made.

$5000 REWARD. The Dr. Williams Medicine Campany will pay the sum of Five Thousand Dollars for proof of fraud on its part in the publication of the foregoing testimonial.

No sufferer from paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance or any of the lesser nervous disorders can afford to longer neglect to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the great blood builder and nerve tonic. Sold by all druggists or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
