It certainly pays to get the best tuition.
VARIOUS reasons are given why the number of harvest excursionists this year is smaller than the number last year. Two reasons that have not been given have something to do with it. One is that those who go out to see the country and pay their way by working in the fields do not want to see the country every year. Another is that a considerable proportion of those who went in other years did not return, and therefore could not go again.—St. John Sun.

STYLISH FALL COATS.

The stylish new Fall Coats are here in all their beauty—a most attractive and pleasing aggregation of the newest styles. We've been most careful in selecting these coats—particularly as to the durability of the cloths—up-to-dateness of the styles and trimmings, and we believe we show what is probably the finest line in the city.
Coverts, Tweeds and Fine Cloths are prominently shown, many long coats, mostly belted or strapped. But there are many, many styles.
Competent salespeople are ready to show them whenever you come.
