Souris Tea

The Parishioners of St. Mary's, Souris, will hold their Annual Tea in aid of the New Church in the beautiful Church grounds.

ON Thursday July 21, 1910

Every effort will be made to make this gathering one of pleasure, comfort and amusement to all patrons. As Souris is one of the most charming summer resorts in the Maritime Provinces, a visit to it at this season of the year will be most enjoyable.

The music will be furnished by the Souris Band and our regular piper. Our visitors will enjoy, moreover, a great musical treat—they shall hear the famous Piper from Mabou, "Aonghas Dubh," who played before the military at Aldershot.

Remember the day and the date and cancel all other engagements and come to the Great Souris Tea on Thursday, July 21st, and hear the great piper, "Aonghas Dubh."

Fakirs need not ask permission to hold forth on the grounds.

Should the 21st be unfavorable, the tea will be held on the first fine day.

Following are the fares and train arrangements:

Special trains will leave Murray Harbor at 5.30 a. m., Richmond at 5.25 a. m. and Charlottetown at 5.15 a. m., and run on the following schedule:

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Agent; and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

The latest news, first of all.

A sensational case is reported from Fortune Bridge, King's County, and the circumstances which led up to it, are alleged to be as follows:—About two years ago a Herbert Archibald, of Plymouth, N. H., and his wife became divorced. Both married again; he to a woman in Plymouth, and she to John Conahan, of Fortune Bridge. They had three children a girl and two boys. When they parted, Archibald kept the two boys and his wife a little girl Agnes, now four years of age. Mrs. Conahan states that at 10 o'clock Friday morning Archibald and a strange man drove up to the house, took the child out of her arms and then drove rapidly away. Mr. and Mrs. Conahan came to Charlottetown and placed the case in the hands of Mathieson & McDonald. Archibald states that she was allowed to keep the little girl under a temporary injunction granted to him by the Court, but that subsequently this order was annulled by the judges and that under this order he had a right to take the girl. The latter has been a year with Mrs. Conahan, who is a native of New Hampshire. Archibald contends that he will contest the case. At present the whereabouts of himself and the child are unknown and it is stated that they have left the Province.

"Boys' khaki duck suits with military stripes, ages 5 to 14 years. The popular apparel for boys. Price $1.50 to 1.75—H. H. Brown, The Young Men's Man, 7-8d21.

HOW TO TELL THE DATE.

(Lippincott's.) A way of deciding dates of certain important events is suggested by the following anecdote. The parents of an undergraduate were disputing as to the date of their last letter to their "hopeful" from whom, somewhat, to the distress of the mother, they had not heard for some time.

"Are you sure, Thomas," asked the mother, unconvinced, "that it was on the 12th that you wrote to Dick?"

"Absolutely," was the father's decisive response. "I looked it up in my check-book this morning."

THE BEST TIME FOR A BATH.

On this point there is considerable difference of opinion. The general idea is that the best and most convenient time for taking a bath is just after getting out of bed in the morning, and there can be no doubt that a cold bath then does act as an invigorating tonic to the system. Dr. Richardson, however, and other eminent authorities on hygiene maintain that this theory is incorrect and that if for any reason it is impossible to carry out ablution twice a day, which is beyond question the best plan, then general ablution is best just before going to bed. "There is no practice," says Dr. Richardson, "more objectionable than to go to bed closely wrapped up in the dust and dirt that accumulates on the surface of the body during the day, nor is there anything I know so conducive to sound sleep as a tepid douche just before getting into bed. I have many times known bad sleepers become the best of sleepers from the adoption of this simple rule. If the body be well sponged over before going to bed the morning ablution, though it is still better to carry it out—need not of necessity be so general. The face, neck, chest, arms and hands may be merely well sponged and washed at the morning ablution."

HIS AUTOGRAPH.

Richard Pe Gallienne, the poet, was entertaining a group of magazine editors at luncheon in New York. To a compliment upon his fame Mr. Le Gallienne said lightly: "But what is poetical fame in this age of prose? Only yesterday a schoolboy came and asked me for my autograph. I assented willingly. And to-day at breakfast time the boy again presented himself. 'Will you give me your autograph, sir?' he said. 'But,' said I, 'I gave you my autograph yesterday.' 'I swapped that and a dollar,' he answered, 'for the autograph of Jim Jeffries.'"

The impression appears to be growing that Chancellor's Day is one of those unnecessary noises we hear so much of nowadays.—Indianapolis News.
