Entries In Harness Events Old Home Week Set New Mark

Secretary J. W. Boulter, of the Charlottetown Driving Park and Provincial Exhibition Association, who are staging Old Home Week at Charlottetown, August 13 to 16, has already received a record-breaking list of entries for the 12 events which will be raced on the four afternoons of Old Home Week.

Last year's races, which was the Golden Jubilee of the Exhibition, attracted what was then a record entry of 161. This year entries received up to this afternoon totalled 165. They are distributed by provinces as follows: Prince Edward Island, 71 entries; Nova Scotia, 60 entries; New Brunswick, 33 entries; Montreal, 1 entry. It is possible that entries are on the way from points in Maine, but not probable, as there are races at Skowhegan the same dates and that would likely attract the kind of horses that would make the long trek to Charlottetown, that is those of class.

Already the vanguard of the great trek has arrived with Bill Cummings of Halifax, four horses, Jimmie Sanderson, Truro two horses. These are here to race at Northam today, Wednesday afternoon. Quite a number will arrive next week to take part in the races at Montague, August 7, but the great bulk will come towards the end of next week and will be well settled down for the battles of August 13 to 16.

Prince Edward Island has as usual the preponderance, but this is made up very considerably by entries in the Two, Three and Four Year Old Futurities, which are almost exclusively Island bred. Without the Futurities Nova Scotia has nine to the good, showing what a strong hold racing has on the Blue Nose Province. New Brunswick has come very much to the fore in recent years by the success which has attended races at Buctouche, Shediac and other points, particularly at Buctouche, where there is a very enthusiastic bunch of horsemen and horse lovers.

The largest entry lists are in the 2.19 Trot and Pace and 2.22 Pace the latter having 25 entries, and if the bulk of them decide to face the starter the event will have to be divided into two classes with an increase of purse money. It is years since a Maritime track has had to do this, but it was done at Charlottetown in the same class in the 1920's.

The horsemen's response to Old Home Week is most gratifying to the management because while it indicates the goodwill of the horsemen and their preference for Charlottetown as a racing point, yet it also gives an indication that great crowds will come as well, because it is a sure thing that a town or hamlet's race horses always bring a following with them.

Pioneer Hanover Best Pacer In Grand Circuit

PAWTUCKET, R.I., July 30—(AP)—W. E. Miller's Pioneer Hanover again proved himself the best pacer of the Grand Circuit meeting here, when he won the Second Division Pace of the Trotting Club Stake in straight heats today.

The son of Peter the Brewer set a record for pacers at 2.02¼ in winning the Third Division Pace last week. He did not beat this time today, his winning heats being timed in 2.05 and 2.04, but he raced impressively to beat Queen's Mac first and Stoneridge Direct later.

With his owner in the sulky, Pioneer Hanover took the lead at the head of the home stretch in the first heat, and won by a wide margin.

A speedy drill through the second and third quarters of the second heat brought Pioneer Hanover his victory in this mile. He was seventh going into the back stretch, but came to the head of the home stretch on top. That drive took a lot out of the horse and he just lasted to beat Stoneridge Direct to the finish. The judges called for a photograph before they announced the result. This stake was worth $2,328.

It took three heats to decide the Fourth Division Trot of the Trotting Club Stakes with Arch Hanover winning the first and third. The second heat was taken by Brittanic who was a rank outsider when he went to the post, having finished fifth in the previous heat.

Gotham Experts Astonished By Welter's Power

By DILLON GRAHAM
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 30—(AP)—Boy; throw away that obituary of Henry Armstrong. The guy's gonna live forever.

Every time a pretty tough cookie comes along the fellows drag out those sketches of Hammering Hennery's career and add a few lines saying that a fast pace and old Pop Time catch up with everyone, and now it's Hennery's turn. He was a great little guy but the end has to come for all of them, et cetera.

And then begorrie, Hankus goes out and licks the stuffings out of the tough cookie—and whose faces are red?

Hank did it again the other night, polishing off Lew Jenkins, our new weird lightweight champion, in just six heats. Lew, the terrible thumper from Texas, felt too terrible to take any more thumpings.

The welterweight champion fought a smart fight. He covered up while boring in during the first three rounds, and let Lew wear himself out swinging. Then, when he began to sense that the Panhandle Puncher had lost some of his zip, Hank turned on all his guns and the ex-cavalryman found that Armstrong's speed and power was too much.

He Can Take It

After the fight, Fat Eddie Mead, the negro's manager, said: "Henry's got too much down here," pointing to his heart.

A boxing commission physician told me that Henry's molars extended deeper than any he had ever seen. He thought this explained why Armstrong could absorb such a pounding on his jawbone without going down.

So far as I'm concerned Billy Conn and Joe Louis are the only champions safe from Armstrong. He can beat the little fellows. He just knocked out the lightweight champion and is undisputed ruler in his own welterweight class. And he fought a draw with Garcia when the bolo-puncher was middleweight champion. He probably would have outpointed him if he hadn't lost several rounds on fouls.

Henry took the best Jenkins and Ceferino Garcia could toss. Garcia had him in trouble, but he bobbed away. He has been cut up but none of the others have had him anywhere near a knock-down.

The guy is unbelievable.

Australia Rejects Tennis Players Offer

MELBOURNE, Australia, July 30—(AP)—The council of the Australian Lawn Tennis Association has rejected Adrian Quist's proposal that he and Jack Bromwich tour the United States playing exhibition games to aid Australian war funds.

Quist, who was rejected by the Australian Imperial Forces, said United States correspondents reported that American has been suffering from a lack of competition which the Australian players could remedy. He said he was sure thousands of pounds could be raised by his plan as against hundreds by exhibition matches in Australia.

The council replied the proposal could not be entertained. One member of the council said the United States is opposed to sending teams overseas during wartime.

Bromwich has expressed his intention of enlisting.

Yankees Drub Tigers 8 - 6

NEW YORK, July 30—(AP)—Red Ruffing lifted the bedraggled New York Yankees out of a forgotten corner today and covered the American League pennant picture with confusion by drubbing the Tigers 8-6 at Detroit.

It was the third straight setback for the Tigers and put them in jeopardy of a tie with Cleveland for first place, pending the Indians' night game with Boston Red Sox.

Ruffing got credit for his 10th triumph of the season.

The White Sox, getting brilliant ninth-inning relief hurling by Pete Appleton, defeated Philadelphia Athletics 3-1 at Chicago.

The Sox, in taking their 14th victory in their last 20 starts, scored all their runs in the second inning.

Reds Rout N. Y. Giants 6-3 To Stop Backslide

NEW YORK, July 30—(AP)—Cincinnati Reds, who haven't had a losing streak longer than three games this year, routed New York Giants 6-3 today to stop a backslide of two straight games.

Paul Derringer got credit for setting the Reds back on the right track and for his 15th victory.

Neither the Reds nor the Giants liked the umpiring and Coach Jimmy Wilson, of the champions, and relief pitcher Walter (Jumbo) Brown of the Giants were sent to the showers for saying so.

Johnny Mize registered his 27th and 28th homers of the season while St. Louis Cardinals were overwhelming the Bees 13-5 in a slugfest at Boston.

Mize rapped out his No. 1 home when he opened the fifth inning against Starter Bill Posedel, and collected his second one of the game against Al Javery in the ninth with Enos Slaughter on base.

The Phillies pounced on Bill Lee for five runs in the second inning and got to two of his successors for another pair of tallies that beat the Chicago Cubs 7-5 at Philadelphia.

CAPE TOWN.—(CP) — Owing to the number of table tennis players being called up for active service the Western Province Association decided to abandon the men's competitions. The women's league will be carried on.
