Card to the Electors

Ladies and Gentlemen, Electors City of the of Charlottetown; –

Not wishing to seem premature but being convinced that there is no time like the present, I take advantage of this opportunity of making known my position, re Civic Politics.

I have been interviewed by many prominent citizens and believing them to be good judges of the Civic pulse, after due consideration I have decided to nominate as a Candidate for Mayoralty honours at the forth-coming Civic Election.

My record for the past two years is an open book. I have endeavoured to give to the City my best and have tried to uphold the dignity of the office. Having had a most strenuous two years, I am of the opinion that a second term may be in order.

If I have the honour to be re-elected, I can assure you Ladies and Gentlemen, I shall as before have the best interests of our City and Citizens at heart, ever endeavouring to promote any and every feasible measure that may arise, whereby our City may be benifited.

I thank you most heartily for your support in the past and the many honours shown me.

It is almost impossible for me to interview you all personally. I therefore take this opportunity of soliciting a continuance of your confidence and your votes.

I remain

Yours respectfully

A GIFT AND ADDRESS OF APPRECIATION

On the evening of Dec. 29th, a large number of friends assembled at the hime of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Andrews of Hunter River to say good bye to Mrs. Herman L. Callbeck who is leaving her native province to make her home in Moncton. The evening was delightfully passed in music and games. At the hour of eleven o'clock the gathering assembled in the living room with Mr. H. L. Pickering occupying the chair. An address of appreciation was read by Mrs. W. A. McMillan and Miss Ruth Rodgerson presented her with a well-filled purse. Mrs. Callbeck fittingly replied, thanking one and all for the kindness shown towards her.

Following in the address:—

Mrs. Callbeck,

Dear friend;—We your friends of Hunter River and vicinity on learning of your intention of leaving your native province to make your home elsewhere, cannot allow you to leave us without expressing our reget at your departure. Previous to your marriage you resided in our midst and you were always ready and willing to use your splendid talents for the advancement of the work in church and Sunday school and for the betterment of society. We are ever mindful of your faithful services as organist of the church and Sunday school and we wish you to know that your services have been highly appreciated. In social gatherings and entertainments your vocal talent has added materially to the success of the same, and your name on the programme was always an assurance of something good. In conclusion we would ask you to accept this purse as a small token of our apreciation of your worth wishing you and your husband and family every success in your new home.

Signed:—

IN MEMORIAM

MRS CHARLOTTE CALLBEC.

At Tryon, P. E. I., December 18th Mrs. Charlotte Callbec, after a brief but severe illness passed to her eternal reward, aged seventy-two years. The deceased was a member of the Tryon Baptist Church, a woman of kindly disposition to all and especially devoted to her home and family. She leaves to mourn a husband, Matthew Callbec, three daughters, Mrs. Edison Mabey, Augustine Cove; Mrs. Matilda Arbing, North Tryon; and Mrs. William Sentner, Sask. Also two sons, Robert, Tryon and William, Crapaud and one sister, Mrs. Isabella Spenser, Malden, Mass. The funeral was conducted by her pastor Rev. F. A. Hubley. May the loving Heavenly Father comfort His sorrowing children.

ALBERT HENRY PARKMAN.

The death of Albert Henry Parkman at New Glasgow P. E. I. on Dec. 18th, came as a great shock to the whole community. Taken ill on Monday 15th with pleuro-pneumonia he succumbed after four days of severe suffering. All that could be done to prolong life was of no avail.

Deceased was only 24 years of age, and was a young man of most cheerful disposition, and one of the most industrious and progressive farmers in the community. He gave himself to Christ in the days of youth, and was a member of the church of Christ, New Glasgow.

The funeral service was conducted by his minister J. W. Hayter, and was very largely attended.

The floral tributes were beautiful and evpressive of the love of relatives and friends. His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at New Glasgow to await the call of the resurrection morning.

To his parents, brothers and sisters the sympathy of the whole community and of many acquaintances goes out, in their sad bereavement.

MR. PATRICK CANNON

Mount Mellick lost one of its most highly esteemed inhabitants on Thursday, November 27th 1919 when Mr. Patrick Cannon passed to his rest and reward in his 85th year. The deceased leaves to mourn two sons, Daniel and John, both of Mount Mellick. Although Mr. Cannon was bereft of a wife in early life he kept his home and family together. He was a man of a quiet unassuming disposition, sober, industrious and upright in all his dealings, a kind father and good neighbour; he was deservedly respected by all who knew him and his death will be deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. For some years he had been in somewhat precarious health which was quite natural considering the weight of years upon him. "Pat," as he was familiarly known, followed the threshing mill for many years which brought him in contact with the people far and near, and all classes and creeds. Then, owing to advancing age he retired nearly a quarter of a century ago, since which time he has lived a life of leisure. The funeral which was largely attended took place Saturday morning to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, where service was held after which the body was laid in its last resting place in the family plot beside his wife and daughter who predeceased him some years ago. ST. TERESA'S SEMI-ANNUAL SCHOOL EXAMINATION

The semi-annual examination of St. Teresa's acvhool took place on the evening of Dec. 24, about 60 visitors were present. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by some of the men present and Miss Helen Baldwin and their answers showed that the time of either pupils or teacher was not spent in vain. A short programme was successfully carried out. The class room was beautifully decorated for the occasion and an attractive Christmas tree stood in the corner with a gift for each of the pupils. When Santa Claus had distributed the gifts to the pupils and had given them a beautiful step-dance which was greatly enjoyed by all present he then departed. Then the teacher was presented with a purse from the pupils and an excellent address was read to him by one of the pupils, after which the teacher took the opportunity of thanking the pupils for their appreciation for his efforts. Rev. Father McDonald spoke on the good progress of the school and said that much of the credit was due to the teacher. Some of the other men spoke also and every one present were well pleased with the work done. After all was over tthe ladies of the district served coffee and cake to all present. This part of the programme was greatly enjoyed by the children. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION

The semi annual examination and Christmas tree was held in Stanhope School on Monday evening December 22nd. The school room was decorated for the occasion with Xmas bunting, bells, etc. A large number of rate-payers and visitors from the surrounding districts were present. The pupils were examined by their teacher Miss Katie McCabe, assisted by Miss Estella Morris, teacher of Grand Tracadie and Mrs. Thomas McCabe, and by their prompt and correct answers gave evidence of careful training. After the examination the following programme was rendered by the pupils: Opening Chorus by the school; Recitation by Irene Lawson; Dialogue, "The day after Xmas" by three girls; Recitation, "Jolly Old St. Nicholas" by Cordelia Marshall; Exercise "Cakes and Pies" by Mabel Lawson and Margaret Marshall; Flag Drill by ten boys; Monologue, "An aspiring young dishwasher" by Frances McCabe; Recitation, "What a little girl can do" by Edith McLaughlan; Dialogue, "Jake Hayseed in the city" by James Horgan, Helen Horgan and Mary MacAulay; Recitation, "Who made the speech" by Helen Lawsion; Monologue, "Mrs. Edwards enjoys the telephone" by Dorothy MacAulay and Irene Lawson; Song, "Santa Claus is coming" by three girls. At the close of the programme the ringing of bells proclaimed the coming of Santa Claus and his beloved wifey. He soon stripped the tree giving candy and nuts to the pupils and to the teacher pleasing gifts from her pupils. The visitors were then served with cake and coffee. At the close a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the teacher, Miss Morris and the good ladies for their kind assistance. The affair closed with mutual good wishes for a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.
