

STRICKEN IN THE STREET

Completely Restored To Health By "Fruit-a-lives"

832 St. Valere St., MONTREAL. "In 1912, I was taken suddenly ill with Acute Stomach Trouble and dropped in the street. I was treated by several physicians for nearly two years, and my weight dropped from 225 pounds to 100 pounds. Then several of my friends advised me to try "Fruit-a-lives". I began to improve almost with the first dose, and by using them, I recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble—and all pain and Constipation were cured. Now I weigh 208 pounds. I cannot praise "Fruit-a-lives" enough." H. WHITMAN, 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all Dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

MR. ALBERT A. MILLS.

St. Peter's Cathedral Charlottetown, death has deprived this church of the services of a very valuable officer, in the person of Albert A. Mills, at the early age of 38 years. He was baptized and brought up in this church, and has been a member of the choir since boyhood. For the last five years he was sexton, and always justified his duties with loving care and devotion, keeping everything about the church spotlessly bright and clean, and taking an honest pride about his work. his various Sunday duties, beginning in winter at 5 a. m. he would rarely miss being in his place in the choir, and he might truly have said, "Lord I have loved the habitation of Thy House, and the place where Thine honor dwelleth." Suffering from appendicitis, he went to the hospital for an operation on Tuesday, having first made his communion that morning, but the case was so severe that he never rallied, but passed immediately beyond the veil. He was laid out in his cassock and surplice. The funeral took place on Saturday, there being a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.45 a. m., and the burial services at 9 a. m. His stall in the choir was draped with cassock and surplice, and his Hymn Book and Psalter were placed on the casket. Psalms 139 and 130, and Hymn 593 were reverently sung. Canon Simpson officiating. He was afterwards taken to his grave in St. Peter's Cemetery, his fellow choirsters acting his pall bearers, and a large number of mourners followed. LETTER FROM 105TH

The following is a letter from Lemuel LeClair, son of Mr. Mathias LeClair, now of Hope River: Shorncliffe, Eng., July 29, 1916. Dear mother and father:—Just a few lines to let you know that I am well and across safe. We broke up camp at Valcarlos about two weeks ago. We left Halifax for England Sunday morning the 16th on the Empress of Britain. We were nine days on the water and landed in Liverpool Tuesday morning the 25th. It was great sailing weather up till Saturday, when it got very foggy and dangerous. We were chased by the German submarines, but we had too much speed for them, and they could not catch us. I was on watch that night. I was on four days and saw the submarine. We had four submarine destroyers escorting us from Saturday till we landed safely. It was a long, tiresome trip. But this is a handsome country, and the farms here are just like gardens. There are towns here every two or three miles. How is everybody around home? Felix and Joseph Martin are here yet. Our camp is only 35 miles from the firing line, and we can hear the cannons roaring along the coast quite easily, from here. I haven't much news now, and it is getting dark, and we are not allowed to have lights after sunset, so I will close. FROM LEM. Add:—"A" Company, 105th Battalion, 1st Brigade, Lower Diggate, Kent County, Shorncliffe, England.

(Lemuel LeClair, who was a tailor by trade, has many friends in the City who will be glad to hear that they got across safely. He was employed at Mr. John McLeod's Tailor, for about four years. He was one of the first men to join the 105th Battalion, having joined in September, nearly a year ago.)

KEEPING SONS ARE ALL ON ACTIVE SERVICE

To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keeping, Murray Harbor, is due the honor of having everyone of their sons serving their King and Country on overseas service and one is a Lieutenant in McGill Battery, one is attached to No. 3 General Hospital (McGill), one is serving in the 98th, while the others, having recently qualified as Lieutenant at the Royal School of Infantry, enlisted in No. 5 Siege Battery as a gunner. Mr. and Mrs. Keeping, while made lonely by all their sons leaving, are proud of their boys, and wish them all God speed.

This is at least should be an example to many young men from the same district who are physically qualified and are still holding back. Remember there is yet a place for a few men in No. 5 and if a few who are holding back are really men they will fill those places.

A range you can easily control. It is wonderful and easy to regulate both your cooking and the expenditure of fuel—money. And easy to manage, means easy to economize, you know. All the Kootenay controls are on the outside. For instance, how infinitely easier to control the damper from the front of the stove—the Kootenay way—than to bend over the hot top to reach it! Surprising how quickly one gets almost complete control of every bit of heat, making it do your bidding. You keep an eye on the thermometer, and the smokepipe fuel saver, handy dampers, and on the oven that loses no heat; all work together for splendid cooking at least expense. You want to know about the sensible ideas for saving time, the fine bakings you can do with a small amount of fuel, and the way the range withstands the wear and tear that wrecks ordinary ranges; its aluminized flues mean long life to the range because the coated steel linings are rust-proof; asbestos joints prevent leakage of air at joints. McLary's Kootenay Range. The new booklet, just off the press, tells everything in an interesting way. Tear out the coupon and send it to the factory. Before you forget, and certainly before you buy a range, get your copy. McLary's Range. Tear off this Coupon. Kindly send me a copy of your booklet about the Kootenay Range. Name..... Address.....
