F. L. Haszard, K. C., Bayfield Williams, J. F. Whear and W. F. Bentley returned last night from Summerside.

THE young lad Enman at the P. E. I. Hospital was resting comfortably yesterday and was taking some nourishment. His pulse however was very rapid and nothing but a faint hope is entertained that he may recover.

THE funeral of the late Mrs. D. O'M. Reddin took place yesterday morning and was largely attended by all classes of citizens. At the Cathedral High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. Morrison assisted by Rev. Dr. Monaghan and Rev. J. C. McLean with a full choir. Mrs. Byrne rendered Ave Maria during the service. The pallbearers were Lieut-Gov. McIntyre, Hon F. THE examinations in connection with the Provincial Sunday school Association are now being held. [illegible] grades of classes, [illegible] R[illegible] vised Normal [illegible] Stalker's Life of Paul. There were three hundred students registered in the various classes throughout the Island, and seventy-seven are writing the examinations. The first year that this work was instituted there were ten to write the examination, the second year thirty two, last year fifty-two and this year seventy-seven.

THE May makes of cheese in Cornwall and Fort Augustus factories have been sold to Messrs Dillon and Spillett and Carvell Bros respectively. Cornwall sold 58 boxes at 11 cents and Fort Augustus 50 boxes at 10¾ cents. Hazelbrook and Orwell have also disposed of their May makes. These are the first sales of the season and the prices are the highest ever offered for spring make. The cause of the high prices is the scarcity of cheese from drought and the fact that the market is well cleaned up at present time.

THE Halifax did not arrive till seven o'clock last night having been detained by the fog in the Straits. Her passengers were:—H. I. Osborne, B. A. Williams, Mrs. A. Williams, Miss M. S. Johnston, F. THE Inter-Maritime Rifle Match. To-morrow the three Provinces will be in the throes of internecine war. Deadly as are the missiles the victory will be a bloodless one, and none will cheer the victors more heartily than those from whom victory has been wrested. The composition of the team is:

Major Weeks, C. Engineers Commandant.
Major Crockett. 82nd Regt.
Capt. Jones, " "
Lieut. Shaw, " "
Lieut. Smith, " "
Sergt J. A Moore, " "
Sergt. Reg. Stewart, 4th C. A.
Corpl. Kennedy, A. M. C.

These will uphold the prestige of the Island with Captain Watts, R. O. as adjutant and coach. The latter left by S. S. Halifax last night. The team leave by the Princess this a.m. The trophy which we hope may be ours to bring back is a handsome cup. It was won by the Island in 1900 and 1901, but ceded next year to the country Nova Scotians.
