MAKE YOUR OWN CALF MEAL

None Better—Cost Only 1 1/2c per lb.

HERE IT IS—100 lbs. Oil Cake Meal, 300 lbs. Shorts, 4 lbs. Herbageum, about 1 lb Salt. Mix well. Stir about two cupfuls in a gallon of scalding water and feed warm.

And Remember—Nothing Else is Quite so Good.

LETTERS FROM THE ISLAND PROVINCE.

During three years I have used Herbageum regularly for my herd of hogs, and I find it excellent for the appetite and for keeping them in a healthy growing condition.

Herbageum is the very best thing that can be given milk cows. It is a great advantage both before and after coming in.

I have used Herbageum with cows at calving time, also found it satisfactory for horses, and customers speak well of it.

THOUGHT COLD WOULD TURN INTO CONSUMPTION

LEFT LUNG GOT VERY SORE, HEART DID NOT FEEL ANY TOO GOOD.

Mr. Robert McLarnon, Shawville, Que., writes:—"I am writing to tell you an experience I had with a bad cold and a bottle of your valuable medicine. I was up in the lumber camps teaching horses, and I caught a very bad cold. I thought it was going to turn into consumption, for my left lung got very sore and my heart did not feel any too good. I came home and tried some different remedies but they did me no good. A friend told me about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I tried it, and when I had taken two bottles my cold was gone. I think it is a great remedy, and will advise any one with a cold to use it. I can't praise it enough."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains all the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree, which combined with Wild Cherry bark and other pectoral remedies, makes it one of the greatest known preparations for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, and all Throat and Lung Troubles.

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC TOURIST.

From her diary—"Last night I spent in a gondola on the Grand Canal in Venice and as I lay there drinking it all in, life never seemed so full before."

PAT'S RETORT.

Pat and his little brown mare were familiar sights to the people of the town of Garry. The mare was lean, blind, and lame, but by dint of much coaxing, Pat kept her to the harness. One day, while leading her to water, he had to pass a corner, where a crowd of loafers had congregated. Thinking to have some amusement at Pat's expense one called out.

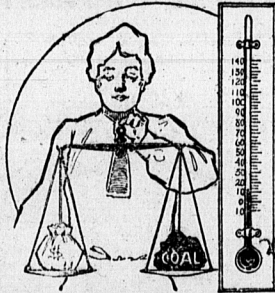

"Hallo, there, Pat, how much is that mare of yours able to draw?" "Begorra," answered Pat, "I can't exactly say, but she seems to be able to draw the attention of ivery fool in the town."

THE ALSO RANS.

A boy took a position in an office where two different telephones were installed.

"Your wife would like to speak to you on the 'phone, sir," he said to his employer.

"Which one?" inquired the boss, and started toward the two booths. "Please, sir, she didn't say, and I didn't know that you had more than one."

To the Electors of Ward Five

Ladies and Gentlemen:—Having been nominated to contest the Ward at the forth coming civic election for councillor at the request of many voters I have decided to become a candidate. I now take this opportunity of soliciting your liberal support without personal canvass and if you choose to elect me as one of your representatives I assure you I shall give your interests my careful consideration and attention as well as the improvement and progress of our city. Thanking you in anticipation for your support I remain Yours ARCHIBALD McLEAN

CARD

To the Electors of Ward Five

Ladies and Gentlemen:—Having been nominated at a representative meeting of the electors of Ward Five to contest the Ward at the coming election as Councillor I hereby accept the nomination. I selected I will do my best for the interest of Ward Five, in particular, and for the city generally. I am in favor of improved Sanitary Laws and of inspection of food supplies; also the encouragement of industries and all measures having for their object the advancement of the city. Yours respectfully GEO. WHEATLEY

A Ticklish Customer.

The Dublin jockey or car driver is rich in wit and repartee. Here is a story of a characteristic member of that characteristic tribe. A gentleman new to Ireland wished to hire a car. The first driver who offered himself was "dressed" in a horrible assortment of rags and was indignantly rejected by the hiker. Finding a smarter coachman, the gentleman pointed to the ragged one and asked how a person thus attired could be allowed on the public streets. He was told that the man could not help it and inquired whether he was so poor. "Oed, no, yer honor," was the smiling answer. "But, faith, there's not a tailor in all Dublin dars put a measuring tape to him—he's so ticklesome."

Touching.

Mr. Newlywed (reading letter from his wife at seaside)—My own darling—a thousand kisses—could you send me $50 at once? Thank you so much. I won't ask for more until I write again. I will try and make that last until I need some more. If you could send me $75 instead of $50 it would save me writing before next week. I have to pay 2 cents every stamp I use. The extortion of these hotel keepers is something frightful. Good-bye, lovey.

Wasted Genius.

"I once knew a man who got rich picking huckleberries." "How unfortunate that he wasted his time." "Wasted his time? I said he got rich." "I know, but a man who could get rich picking huckleberries could undoubtedly get much richer doing something else."

WAS TERRIBLY NERVOUS.

WOULD START AT THE LEAST NOISE.

Wherever there are people who are troubled with deranged nerves they will find that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will restore the equilibrium of these deranged centres, and bring back the shattered nervous system to a perfect condition.

Miss Emma Read, Laskay, Ont., writes:—"I have great pleasure in writing to tell you about the great benefit I have received by using your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About a year ago I was very badly run down and could hardly do my work. I tried different medicines but none of them did me any good. I was terribly nervous, and would start at the least noise, and even start in my sleep, which made me very weak. I used two boxes of your pills and I am now well and strong again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25. For sale at all dealers, or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

S. A. McDonald's Card

To the Elector of Charlottetown, Ladies and Gentlemen:—At the solicitation of a large number of citizens I have consented to become a candidate for Mayor at the forth coming Elections.

I am in favor of a progressive Civic policy. With a car-ferry to the Mainland, and a reduction in our freight rates, the chief obstacle to making Charlottetown a manufacturing city is removed.

If elected, I will endeavor to get in industries located here, by making such concessions from time to time, as are made in and in the interests of our city.

Situated, as we are, in close touch with the coal fields of Nova Scotia, with excellent shipping facilities by rail and water Charlottetown, the fifth largest city in the Maritime Provinces, will then have as many inducements to offer investors as any other city. Think what it will mean to our working men. Instead of going abroad they will remain at home and help to build a greater Charlottetown.

I am in favor of improved sanitary laws as well as all measures having for their object the advancement of our city and province.

I am opposed to any further increase in civic taxation.

I take this opportunity of soliciting your support and of thanking the electors of Ward Five, for electing me to represent that large and representative body of citizens, in 1906, 1908 and 1910, and trust that I may receive from them their hearty support for the Mayoralty.

I Beg To Remain, Yours Most Respectfully, S. A. McDONALD
