Rev. G. J. Bond will give an illustrated lecture "Unbeaten Paths in Farthest China" in the First Methodist Church school room next Thursday evening. Admission 20c.

The special mail train bringing the passengers and mails from the Minto at Georgetown arrived in this city at two forty-five in the afternoon yesterday. There were about fifteen passengers.

The MacMac Indian Hockey team of Nova Scotia arrived in the city on the train from Summerside yesterday morning and left for Georgetown. They will cross to the mainland this morning on the Minto.

The many friends of R. Matheson, of the P.E.I.R., city, will be delighted to know that he is about again after his recent severe attack of pneumonia. He is, however, as yet unable to resume his duties.

There was a good attendance at the Arena Rink last night. The ice, after the cold snap of yesterday, was never in better condition. The music of the Fourth Regiment Band added to the enjoyment of the skaters.

The Guardian has received from the Royal Bank of Canada a very valuable wall calendar. Besides a fine picture of the head office in Montreal.

There are splendid and concise maps of the Maritime Provinces and the Dominion of Canada, besides a large calendar of 1911-12. A. W. Hyndman is the popular manager of the branch in this city while there are also branches in Summerside and Cranford.

Owing to the cases of smallpox which have appeared in Murray Harbor, originating in New Glasgow, N. S., Dr. Conroy, Quarantine Officer, who has been regularly meeting the steamer passengers from districts infected with smallpox, has given special instructions to the officers of boats to detain any persons who have come from places which are infected or where there is a suspicion of disease existing.

The attention of the Supreme Court was occupied all day yesterday with the case of W. A. Coughlan vs. Duncan Robertson, an action for malicious prosecution and debt. The hearing of witnesses, took up the greater part of the day and in the afternoon Mr. Duffy, the plaintiff addressed the Court. Judgment was given for the defendant without the court calling on his attorneys, Matheson, K. C., and Macdonald. Court then adjourned until Monday morning at eleven o'clock, when the case against the Leders and Dobson, will be commenced.

A committee, on behalf of the parishioners of St. Bonaventure's Church, Tracadie, waited upon the pastor, Rev. P. D. McGuigan on Friday evening, the 30th ult. and presented him with a brief note, congratulating him on the care and attention that he has ever devoted towards the spiritual and temporal welfare of the parishioners, complimenting him on the great improvements that have been effected in parish affairs under his wise administration. The address was accompanied by a substantial cash donation. Father McGuigan, in reply said that a great share of the success pointed out in their address was due to the hearty co-operation of the people with the pastor in everything that aimed at the spiritual and temporal advancement of all. Father McGuigan has been pastor there for over ten years, having also charge of St. Michael's Mission, Corran Bun, which is six miles away, and also charge of St. Eugene's Cove Head, which is fourteen miles away. Despite the distance he only missed one Sunday in each of the missions during all this time. A strong will combined with a strong physique count for much.

Remember—auction sale, Hunter River, January 19th. See ad. 1-12461pd.

He underwent two operations and, happily is now convalescent, though still in a weakened condition.

The bombs for the explosive signal service on St. Peter's Island have arrived and more of the necessary appliances arrived in Georgetown on the Minto yesterday and will be forwarded to this City today. These will then be taken to the South Shore and driven across to St. Peter's Island over the ice on the sand bar. This may mean a delay of several days as the ice may be in such a rough condition as to prevent crossing with a heavy load.

I. E. Mutch, of this city, is the possessor of a handsome silver fox skin. It is of large size and the whole back and rump are very dark, and streaked with silver, the only thing of the sort he has mastered in the shoulders. The fox whose pelt now adorns the wall of Mr. Mutch's office, was shot recently during a hunt at Barnscliffe by Roy Mutch, a cousin. The party consisted of Frank, Roy, Holton, R. E. and Will Mutch and Neil Prought.

There was a good attendance at the second performance of "The Third Degree" by the Paul Gilmore Company in the Opera House last evening. This play is undoubtedly one of the best seen here for some time and as presented by the Gilmore Company with Miss French, a favorite here, as the leading lady, there is nothing left to be desired. Miss French made a splendid impersonation of the "Annie Jeffries" of the plot and, by her really inimitable stage work elicited ecstasies of praise from all who had the opportunity to see her. Her role is a difficult one yet she has mastered it to a nicety. John Conroy, as Richard Brewster, was in full sympathy with the character of his role at all times. The other members of the company showed real talent in their several parts. The plot of the play, as referred to yesterday, is something new in the dramatic line and in their presentation the Gilmore Company exhibit fully the strength and ability of their company, individually and collectively.

YOUR lady friends will like Tuckett's Special Turkish Cigarettes. Their aroma is delicate and sweet, which the women-folk find decidedly acceptable after enduring the presence of so-called Turkish cigarettes.

Tuckett's Cigarettes

are invariably the choice of the discriminating smoker; the man who considers his company as well as himself. Their mellow flavor and fragrant aroma is due to the fact that every bale of tobacco used
