A VALUABLE PRIZE CONTEST

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the International Newspaper Bible Study Club Lessons each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1908. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. They will be published each week in the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily. Only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There is no fee for entrance, and no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prizes without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

MEDALS, BIBLES, BOOKS.
Persons may join the club at any in after explained, to qualify for the prizes. It is, however, desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study Club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a Local Club, and take up the single course herein outlined. Although with their sympathetic co-operation, it is not considered fair to have them compete for the prizes. It is however desirable that the Class scholars, and church goers generally, may belong to this newspaper Club, also non-churchgoers, of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and compete for the prizes. The Guardian has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Lincoln, D.D., which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing, and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

The Guardian is authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantees to all who join and fulfill the conditions, that everything here promised shall be faithfully carried out.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.
1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be paid in advance subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and the Local Club.
2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, August 23rd and the answers must all be in two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.
3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written must contain more than two hundred words and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches.
4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, together with the date label of a current issue of The Guardian so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name will be cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.
5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. The question before answering. First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.
Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.
Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.
Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 to each of the next thirty-five contestants.
Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination a richer experience and more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.

Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner and for what it is awarded, and in the like manner each Bible and writing. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verse or verses, upon which the question is based.
6. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to The Guardian office, and they will be collected at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this local Club will be given out from this office.

THE PRIZES.
Book who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint, but from the point of view of the cogency of their reasoning ideas.

S. S. LESSON,
Jan. 24th, 1909.
The Lame Man Healed—Acts III: 1-26.
Golden Text.—His name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know. Acts III: 16.

Verse 1.—Are two or out persons better than one for keeping as it may help in the Christian life, for each Christian to have a very intimate spiritual friend?
Verse 2.—Was it any fault of this man that he was lame?
Verse 3.—Did you think any the less of him for being lame?
Verse 4.—Is any sickness or bodily infirmity necessarily sinful?
Verse 5.—What proportion of our ailments are a result either of our sin, or our culpable ignorance? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
Verse 6.—To what class of persons do the poor generally go for help?
Verse 7.—Which is the better, to beg or to starve?
Verse 8.—Was this a legitimate way for this man to make his living?
Verse 9.—Should the state maintain all persons who are born with infirmities, maintain themselves?
Verse 10.—Are our laws righteous which forbid begging?
Verse 11.—If you want to impart spiritual benefit, can you do it more effectively by looking the person straight in the eyes?
Verse 12.—Does effectual teaching or helping others, depend as much upon the person taught, or needing help, as upon the teacher or helper?
Verse 13.—Was it an advantage, or disadvantage, that Peter and John had no money to give?
Verse 14.—Was it an advantage or disadvantage to the lame man that Peter and John had no money?
Verse 15.—Would a church do better work if it did not give money to the poor, but needed more of the things they need?
Verse 16.—Need the lack of money, or ability ever prevent any man, from doing the work in life, which God has appointed him to do?
Verse 17.—If we invoke the name of Jesus, in the work to which we are appointed, what effect will it have upon the accomplishment of our work?
Verse 18.—By what power was this lame man healed?
Verse 19.—What reason is there for the belief, that the power of God generally works in conjunction with human effort?
Verse 20.—Would it be wise, or not, if we made more outward demonstration, in returning God thanks for the wonders of his love?
Verse 21.—Is there any merit in outward thanksgiving if we have inward loyalty to God?
Verse 22.—If we were to outwardly demonstrate more, would the work of God go on faster?
Verse 23.—What is the greatest influence in advancing Christ's Kingdom?
Verse 24.—Is it a sign of faith, or of unbelief, when we "murmur" at the fulfillment of any of God's promises?
Verse 25.—Which was the guiltier, Pilate or the chief of the Jews, for the murder of Jesus?
Verse 26.—If a man does a wrong thing through ignorance, when he could have known better, is he as guilty as if he knew better?
Verse 27.—What is our only reasonable hope of salvation?

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured her. Read her letter.

Mrs. J. A. LaBerte, of 34 Artilerie St., Quebec, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "For six years I have been doctoring for female weakness, heart and nerves, liver and kidney trouble, but in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I can safely say I have found a cure. I was continually bothered with the most distressing backaches, headaches, and bearing-down pains, and I kept growing more and more nervous. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of all these distressing symptoms and made me a well woman. I would advise all suffering women, young or old, to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.
For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?
Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
