

Important Provincial News of the week for Saturday Subscribers.

MONDAY.

Rev R. G. White of this city whose severe illness is regretted by many friends, and who has been resting and recuperating in Cape Breton, is reported to be improving, but still suffers a good deal. He expects to return to this city by the Boston boat Sept. 7. The Baptist Convention in Halifax by unanimous vote expressed sincerest sympathy with Rev Mr White coupled with the hope for his speedy and complete recovery in which The Guardian cordially joins.

A Caledonia correspondent to The Guardian writes as follows:—The school is doing good work under the good management of Nathan Bears of Brookline, Lot 61. Following are the visitors to Caledonia—Mrs Frank Chalmers of Cambridge, Mass, Miss Maggie McLennan of Quincy, Mass, Miss Mary A. McDonald, of Boston; Miss Minnie Hume of Boston, and John Willis of Dominion, C. B., formerly of Caledonia. L. J. Martin of the S. S. Stanley, paid a short visit to his home on Saturday the 21.

Rev J. W. McConnell, pastor of the Fredericton Methodist church and one of the best known ministers in the Methodist church in the Maritime Provinces, has accepted a call tendered him recently to the pastorate of the Jubilee Church at Sydney, C.B. Rev. Mr McConnell has been pastor of the next pastor of the Fredericton church and the changes will take place at the end of the present conference the year in June next. Rev Mr McConnell was the former pastor of the Central Methodist church—Moncton Times.

Clipping from Fallbrook Times, Calif. J. D. Weatherbie and Son—blacksmith and machinists, who came here last January from Spring Valley have a large and well equipped shop, make new work to order and do all kinds of repairing on automobiles, vehicles and farm implements and machinery. The senior member has had thirty years experience in the business and is a thorough machinist. They are now making arrangements for putting in up-to-date machinery and equipment. Mr. Weatherbie and son formerly belonged to P.E.I.; and they many friends will be pleased to hear of their success in business.

In a short address last night Rev. H. E. Thomas, of the First Methodist Church, City, made fitting reference to the services of Prof. W. H. Watts as organist and choir-master of his congregation. Rev. Mr. Thomas spoke of Prof. Watts' efficiency and courtesy, laying special emphasis upon the energy with which the Professor undertook to carry out his numerous duties and the capable manner in which he fulfilled them. Especially in musical circles will Prof. Watts be kindly felt in this city and it will be difficult to obtain the services of an organist and instructor who will in every way successfully fill his predecessor's position.

In connection with the trial now proceeding, in St. John against "Free Speech" the following further particulars about correspondence appears in the Standard. A writer from the Commercial Hotel, Kensington, P. E. Island, says: "Your paper is just what is wanted in this town," and orders a number of copies. G. O. Morrison, 209 Sydney street, Charlottetown, complains of "trickiness" in the Postoffice Department, and the loss of a letter mailed to McDougall.

A. D. McPhee, "P. M." wrote from Georgetown, P. E. Island, promising to send some "copy" next week. A. R. Duck of Charlottetown, and L. D. Jones of Charlottetown, approved of the policy of the paper and the latter sent some news.

The contract for repairing Ravenwood, on the Experimental Farm has been let to Messrs Lowe Brothers for a sum in the vicinity of $2,500. The veranda and kitchen which are quite dilapidated, will be removed and a portico at the entrance and two bay windows extending from the lower storey to the roof will be built, also a new kitchen. A complete system of hot air heating, and a system of electric lighting will be put in, and the city water will be carried from the Mount Edward Road, a distance of 500 feet to supply the house, and also extended to the barn. The necessary plumbing is included in Messrs Lowe Brothers' contract. The room at the eastern entrance to the house will be fitted up as an office for the Superintendent. A telephone has been put in. The contractors hope to complete the work in about two months time.

BE A CHARMING WOMAN.

You never saw a beautiful woman who didn't have beautiful hair. The charms of a beautiful woman lie in her hair. Many women do not realize the attractions they possess because they do not give proper attention to the care of the hair. The women of the "400" are famed for their beauty, not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor, lustre, and strength to the hair. Up to a few years ago Parisian hair could hardly be obtained in America. But now this delightful hair restorer can be had in every town in America. Geo. E. Hughes sells it in Charlottetown for 50 cents a bottle, and guarantees it to grow beautiful, luxuriant hair; to turn dull, lifeless hair into lustrous hair; to stop falling hair; to stop itching of the scalp. Understand, Geo. E. Hughes will give you your money back if it fails.

Rev Lemuel Ackland, Kensington, is spending a short time in the city. Rev Mr Ackland has been assistant pastor in the Baptist Church at Amherst but lately resigned his pastorate there as he intends to take a theological course in the Newton Theological Seminary at the opening of his next session.

Alexander McDonald, Captain of Police, has passed away from cerebral hemorrhage, at Providence Hospital.

Since July when Capt. MacDonald was stricken suddenly at police headquarters, his life has been despaired of. For a time the end was momentarily expected. A week ago they came a change for the better. He regained consciousness for a time and even walked for a day. Friday he suffered a relapse and sank gradually until yesterday afternoon, when another stroke resulted fatally.

As a superior officer, Capt. MacDonald was rated unusually competent. After the election of Mayor John P. Miller, friends of the officer who died yesterday urged his appointment as chief of police, and the selection of the head of the department was made between McDonald and Ward.

Captain MacDonald was appointed to take the place of Irving Ward when the latter was named chief of police by Mayor John P. Miller. Since that time until he was suddenly stricken, he was a patrol commander.

He was born on Prince Edward Island, Canada, January 10, 1861. He was educated in the public schools and for six years taught school on Prince Edward Island. He later taught in the schools of Victoria, B. C., for two years. He was in Seattle in 1889 and 1890, but for the next four years he lived in Portland, where he engaged in the real estate business. After spending some time in Alaska he returned to Seattle in 1898, and joined the police force as a patrolman. He was appointed clerk, sergeant and then captain. Captain MacDonald is survived by a widow and one adopted child.—Seattle Intelligencer, Aug. 15.

The Prince Edward island contingent of marksmen to the D. R. C. Meet at Ottawa returned home by the mail train on Saturday night with the exception of Colonel Stewart who will return very shortly. The Guardian is informed that this Meet just completed was one of the most successful ever held, the attendance being 150 more than any previous year and totalling 650.

The Meet was also successful in the class of work done. Such general scoring was done that it was necessary to make 32 out of a possible 35 in order to get into any prize list and the total number in attendance were six to one of the prize winners.

In the Governor General's Match the following Islanders were in the finals:— Major J. M. Jones 174 $6.00 Captain D. A. McKinnon 173 $6.00 Sgt. E. Rogers 166 $6.00 The Grand Match which was shot at 1,000 yards, ten shots, possible 50, had the following among the prize winners—Major J. M. Jones, $15; Sgt. E. McGinnis $10; Capt. D. A. McKinnon, $5; Major W. A. Weeks, $5.

The Charlottetown Civilian Rifle Club has won eight prize in the Canadian Civilian Rifle League, the shoot for which took place in June last. The Military Rifle League, the Fourth Regiment Rifle Club won seventh place.

The London Merchant's Team Match was one in which the Prince Edward Islanders did exceptionally well, defeating all other teams excepting Ontario and British Columbia, which provinces had very strong teams. This team was composed as follows:—Team Captain, Major W. A. Weeks; Coach, Sgt. L. N. Seaman; Team, Major J. M. Jones, Captain E. Stewart; Capt. D. A. McKinnon; Sgt. E. McGinnis, Sgt. D. P. McRae; Bomb J. Landrigan; Gr. C. B. Jones; Gr. A. Seaman. $40 was the prize won by this team.

The complete returns for the Extra Series are not yet in, it is understood that the Islanders have won a considerable sum in money prizes. In the Bisley Aggregate, Major Jones takes twenty-second place. This assures the Major that if he so wishes he may have still another trip to the Old Country to shoot for Canada.

It is apparent that at the long range the Prince Edward Island men effected themselves, their scores in most cases being almost equal to those made by Ontario. Bomb J. Landrigan made the splendid score of 47 out of a possible 50—the highest individual score in the field at that range.

TUESDAY.

At the Police Court yesterday morning two parties, viz—John Cullen and Joseph Hennessey, who had bail bonds for their appearance before the court, had the bonds of ten dollars forfeited. Summons have been served on William Maher and John Gillis. These parties are alleged to have been drunk and disorderly on Sunday last. The oft adjourned case against Joseph Cameron, charged with the theft of a bottle of beer, came up before the court this morning, and His Honor sent the defendant up to the Supreme Court for trial at its next sitting.

There were nine boats started in the Summerside boat races yesterday. The course was three round trips from a point near the Railway wharf to the lighthouse. The boats were started as follows:—No. 1 boat owned by P. C. Gallant, started at 10.54. No. 2, Phillip M. Arsenault, 10.54. No. 3, Corey Steves, 10.57. No. 4, Ed. McWilliams, 11.06. No. 5, Benj. Sharp, 11.08. No. 6, W. Trenholm, 11.09. No. 7, Cyrus Morris, 11.10. No. 8, H. T. Holman, 11.12. No. 9, T. B. Grady, 11.15. Great excitement prevailed during all the time from the starting of the first boat till the last one of the five prize winners passed under the line on return. The crowd cheered lustily as each of the puffing craft ended their exciting race in the following order. T. B. Grady, first prize, cup, time 1.25. Benj. Sharp second, a Morris chair, 1.33. C. Morris, third, a dress suit case, 1.32. H. T. Holman fourth, a banular set, 1.31. P. C. Gallant, fifth, a clock, 1.51.

The tea at Fort Augustus yesterday which was held in aid of the C. M. J. A. Hall was most successful. Over one hundred people went up to the farland from the City and were met by teams at the wharf from whence they were driven to the grounds. A lancing booth was ready and some wely dancing was indulged in while the violins supplied the music.

Thomas will perform the marriage ceremony, followed by the best wishes of a large circle of friends will leave on a wedding trip to Toronto and other Ontario towns, before proceeding to their future home.

Guardian readers will hear with deep regret of the death of Rev. Peter Curran, which occurred at Colorado Springs, Colorado, last night. Rev. Dr. Curran, who is a brother of Rev. Theresas, and was in his fifty-sixth year. He was a son of the late Francis Curran and was educated at St. Junstan's College after which he taught school for a number of years. He was appointed School Inspector of the eastern part of the island in 1874, which position he held until 1884, when he went to the Province of the College at Rome. He was ordained Priest in 1889 and was appointed Professor at St. Dunstan's College in 1890. Afterwards he took charge of Tracadie Parish, and in 1895, was appointed Rector of St. Dunstan's College. He governed this institution for three years, and was then given charge of St. Margaret's Parish, where he remained until he was obliged him to give up his parochial duties and seek to recuperate his health in a more congenial climate, and he went to Colorado Springs in 1902. Here he had undergone several operations the last of which took place about four months ago.

George Mackenzie departed this life at his residence in Minneapolis, Minn., on the morning of August 10, 1909. He was in failing health for a short time before his death being troubled with weak spells caused by the heart failing to give proper circulation to his blood. On the morning of his death he arose and dressed himself, but on coming out of his room was overtaken with a weak spell and died shortly afterward. He was born in Invergoron, Scotland, May 16, 1833, and came to Prince Edward Island in July 1860. Settling at Dundas where he engaged in farming at Cumberland Hill and later in business at Dundas Cross roads. While living at Dundas he was a Justice of the Peace for a number of years and also Clerk of the County Court. He was also an elder in the Presbyterian church at Dundas for many years. All of these duties he performed to the best of his ability and in the fear of God. In 1886 realising that the West afforded greater opportunities for his family he removed to Minneapolis, Minn., where he resided till his death. In 1870 he was soundly converted to the Lord and experienced the Saving grace of Christ in his heart, under the powerful preaching of the Rev. Alexander Sterling a noted Presbyterian Minister of P. E. I., and from that time to the day of his death lived a true consistent Christian life and died in the triumphs of the Christian faith. Shortly after coming to P. E. I., he was united in marriage to Miss Maggie McIntyre of Scotland, who with her only child died in 1884. In 1888 Ann Wood of Dundas who survives him. Six daughters all of whom survive him excepting one daughter who died in infancy. The funeral service was held on Thursday afternoon, August 12th, from his late residence, conducted by Rev. M. E. Hedding, pastor of Western Ave. Methodist Episcopal Church. He was laid to rest in the beautiful Lakewood Cemetery there to await the resurrection morning. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea said the spirit that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."—W. A. McK.

A new departure is about to be made by the First Methodist Church of this city in the employment of a Deaconess. For some years the Methodists in Canada have had a department regulated to the work of young women who offer themselves to be trained in all forms of practical Christian work—at the Deaconess Home in Toronto. A course is followed in Bible History and Interpretation, Evidence of Christianity, Christian Doctrine, Early Church History, Methods embracing Kitchen Work, Cooking, Sunday School work, Evangelistic, Kindergarten, Conducting Meetings, Elementary medicine including Anatomy and Physiology, General Diseases, Hygiene, Emergency, Obstetrics and diseases of women, Diseases of Children, Surgical Emergencies, Nursing, the eye and teeth and the evidence of Christ. From this it can be seen that a Graduate from the Home is fitted to perform the most practical forms of Church work and a Church equipped with the services of such an officer must be in a position to make its influence widely felt. The First Methodist Church has received word of the appointment of Miss Caroline Connor, who has had some experience in Ottawa and comes here with the highest credentials. Miss Connor will reach the city on Thursday next.

Baby's Great Danger During Hot Weather

More children die during the hot weather than any other time of the year. Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum, and stomach troubles come without warning, and when a medicine is not at hand to give prompt relief, the delay may prove fatal to the child. Baby's own Tablets should be kept in every home where there are children during the hot weather months. An occasional dose of the tablets will prevent deadly summer complaints, or cure them if they come unexpectedly. Mrs. O. Moreau, St. Tit's Que., says: "My baby suffered from a severe attack of cholera infantum, but after giving him Baby's Own Tablets, the trouble disappeared, and he regained health splendidly." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Rev S. J. and Mrs Woodroffe, City, leave this morning for their future home in Dartmouth, N. S. At the conclusion of the Sunday morning's service in St. Paul's Church Mr Woodroffe was presented with an address eulogistic of himself and his work and appreciative of the way in which Mrs Woodroffe had assisted him during his residence in this City. Mr and Mrs Woodroffe will be greatly missed in social and church work and take with them the best wishes of all citizens in which The Guardian heartily joins.

Last evening a number of the sailors from the S. S. Philea, now in port, assembled in Victoria Park and enjoyed a variation of Association football, there not being enough players to make up two teams. Their practice was very interesting and amusing and the men kicked, butted and punched in good style. A game might be arranged with local players while the steamer is in port.

The general regret expressed by a number of our readers and the hearty appreciation of his services during the time he has been with us, were evidenced by the large and representative audience assembled last night in the First Methodist Church. The occasion was Professor Watts' farewell recital, and they were fortunate indeed who were able to be present and enjoy the splendid programme of vocal and instrumental music carried out by Prof. Hazel Bremner, ably assisted by the Church and choir rendered in a most interesting and effective manner. Among other accompaniments, etc., Nocturne in C. Minor, and Andantino and an offertory in D, which were played with that grace of execution and mastery of detail known only to those who have spent years in its acquisition. Miss Bremner was in splendid form in her rendering of "These are the days which are better than wine." The choir sang two songs, "The Church is the Body of Christ" and "The Guide Me Heavenly Father" sang as a solo by G. I. Moore was appreciated and "The Island Hymn," "God be with You till we Meet Again" and "God Save the King" were the concluding numbers. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation to Prof. Watts by the Church and Sunday School of an address and purse, the former expressing appreciation of the Professor's services in the past, regret at his departure and best wishes for his future success; the latter a tangible evidence of the esteem in which he is held. Prof. Watts made a brief but effective reply thanking them for their gift and good wishes, and assuring them that the memory of their kindness would remain with him long after his departure. After the audience had dispersed the choir presented Prof. Watts with a gift and an address to which he responded feelingly.

On Sunday evening the Rev Mr Styles, Pownal, preached an eloquent and impressive sermon from the Epistle of John 5th Ch-4th V. "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." The Rev Gentleman held the close attention of the large congregation as he unfolded his subject in a clear and convincing manner showing that the regenerated soul is the great and only power to "overcome the world." The devil has quarrel with man, and the devil has not strikes conclusions with God, but he strikes at God through the instrumentality of man. Showing the necessity of a new truth "Ye must be born again." He urged on his hearers the consecration of their lives to Christ and thus be enabled to overcome the world. Mr Styles has a good delivery, has the pleasing faculty of "striking" to his text. That he has made a favourable impression, is attested by the presence of the large congregations, that attend to "hear the word." Com.

The following letter signed by Colin McFadyen, Laura MacLean and Angus I. McKinnon has been forwarded to Bro Hugh McPhee, Canoe Cove: "We desire to tender to you and the other members of your family an expression of our heartfelt sorrow and sincere sympathy as it has passed Almighty God in his all-wise Providence to remove the soul of your beloved father to that home on high which has been prepared for those that love him. Although your hearts are filled with grief and sorrow at the parting yet what a joy it is to know that you can meet again where there will be no parting and no more tears. We each and all sincerely condole with you and would gladly help you bear your burden but as we feel we are so helpless to do but little we can only direct you to the God of all comfort and consolation praying that he speak his own words of help and grace to you and the members of your family in this your hour of grief. Signed on behalf of Harvest Division S. O. T. No 269.

Rev J. S. Smith preached an eloquent and thoughtful sermon at Wheatley Hill last Sunday to a large and appreciative audience. The subject of the address was co-operation and responding with Divine Energy. The thought developed was that man to be successful in things temporal and spiritual must co-operate with the Divine Energy as manifested in the Kingdom of nature and law and man must find out these things by laws and work in harmony with them. When not in harmony with God there is friction and pain. The thought was also made clear that this century would be noted for the assertion of the moral forces in the world. Mr Smith is one of the province's bright and eloquent preachers. Com.

Exhibition time will see some of the finest looking cows on the fair grounds that the admiring public could possibly wish to see. Sleek appearance, generous thriftiness and show condition will be appraised, conformity to type will be judged, and point by point various characteristics will be valued. Excellent as they may be, these cows on exhibition must submit to a further examination before the ordinary factory patron is prepared to award them first place in his estimation. He will ask and rightly so, can this cow give a large yield of milk and buttermilk at a low cost? He cannot afford to accept just a two days high record; he needs a cow that will attend strictly to business, the business of making money for him, three hundred days in the year. The one vital point for him to ascertain is, does it pay me to keep this cow, is her profit sufficiently large? To this end he keeps records of each
