ONE GLASS OF WINE AND HEAVY FINE.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., April 17.—That it is illegal under the Ontario prohibition act to give a person under twenty-one a glass of liquor, is not generally known. Mrs. ~~Mary~~ Thomas found it out in police court today, when she was fined $50 and costs. She was charged with giving a 17-year-old boy a glass of wine.

Mrs. Thomas said the boy's father came to her house. He was cold as he had no fire in his house. "I asked him if he'd have a glass of wine and he accepted. The boy was with him, and I asked him if the boy could have a glass to warm him up. His father said he couldn't see any harm in it."

The boy and his father were in court today. "Yes", said the father, "I told her I didn't think a glass of wine would hurt the lad as he was cold."

Bank Act Now Under Discussion

OTTAWA, April 17—The Banking and Commerce Committee got down in earnest yesterday under the chairmanship of Hon A. K. MacLean to the revision of the Bank Act. The Canadian Bankers Association was represented by counsel in the persons of Aime Geoffrey, K. C., of Montreal and H. J. Symington, K. C, of Winnipeg. The morning discussion was lively at times and indicated that the members are taking a firm interest in all the intricacies of the act. Certain objection was raised by Mr. Spencer of Battle River to that clause which fixes the duration of charters to ten years. Chairman MacLean pointed out that the Bank Act was always amendable by parliaments at any time. The sub sections dealing with the double liability of subscribers aroused some discussion Mr. Spencer quoted Sir Edmund Walker as having expressed the opinion that the double liability was not worth the paper it was written on. Messrs Fielding and MacLean express surprise.

CHURCH HEAD FAVORS ROYAL VISIT TO POPE

LONDON, April 17—Lord Stamfordham, private secretary to King George has acknowledged the receipt of the Albert Hall resolution protesting against the King's visit to the Pope, and says it has been forwarded to the prime minister. The Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of London are both out of London, but their chaplain informed The Star that, in common with other leaders of the Anglican church, they have had no association with the Albert Hall meeting. The King, it is stated, has acted on advice of his ministers.

It is declared absurd in ecclesiastical circles to suggest, as was done at Albert Hall, that the King's visit would be taken as an acknowment of the Pope's supremacy. The King's courtesy visit, it is pointed out, is only acknowledgment of the fact that his Majesty has millions of Roman Catholic subjects.

PLACE MORE GUARDS ON RUHR RAILROADS

ESSEN, April 17—The soldiers guarding the bridges and railroad junctions at all important transportation points throughout the Ruhr and the Rhineland have been doubled, owing to the increase in acts of sabotage.

At Mercklinde junction last night a car containing explosives, standing on a siding at a point where there was a grade in the line was let loose and crashed into a string of freight cars near the station. Five cars loaded with coal were smashed into kindling wood. The experts are puzzled as to what sort of explosive was used to throw the force of the explosion upward. The tracks were not damaged and the ballast was left intact.

At Rolandseck, near Bonn, sabotage operations of a different sort, necessitating the participation of expert switchmen, were attempted. The switches in the tower were jammed with the purpose of sidetracking an expected Mayence-Dusseldorf train into a blind siding. The engineer, who was proceeding cautiously, stopped his train in time to avoid an accident.

Near Kettwig and Witten mines were exploded, damaging the main tracks.

THINK MUTINY OCCURRED ON RUM SCHOONER

NEW YORK, April 17—Mutiny, real or fake, and not piracy, was the theory advanced today by Federal officials who are seeking to solve the mystery of the abandoned rum runner "Patricia M. Behan" which was picked up esterday at the entrance of Great South Bay by the coastguard cutter Manhattan.

The vessel's sails were set, her aschor was dragging and there was no sign of the crew, which probably numbered ten.

The deck was littered with empty cartridge shells and bullet holes were located in various parts of the ship.

At first the theory was put forward that pirates might have overcome the crew, but as the investigation advanced this supposition was eliminated. One official expressed the opinion that a mutiny had been carefully staged so that the vessel might later be salvaged.

Edward Barnes, assistant solicitor of the collector of the port office, said he believed the crew had become discouraged by the hardships of rum running and abandoned the craft.

The boat, which apparently was at one time a Nova Scotia trading schooner, had changed hands several times and her real identity is in doubt. Entries made on a torn leaf from a notebook indicated the boat had been engaged in rum running since last January between Bridgeport, Conn., and Keyport, N. J.

FINAL VICTORY OVER DIABETES, IT IS CLAIMED

WINNIPEG, April 17—The winnipeg Free Press publishes the following from its Edmonton correspondent this afternoon: "That a cure for diabetes lies latent in green onion tops, onion roots, barley roots, green wheat leaves, bean tops, lettuce and various forms of yeast has been demonstrated through a long series of experiments conducted by Dr. James B. Collip head of the Department of Bio-chemistry at the University of Alberta and co-discoverer of the insulin treatment of diabetes with Dr. F. G. Banting, Dr. J. J. R. McLeon, and Dr. C. H. Best, at the University of Toronto, more than a year ago. The new discovery, it is stated, will supplant insulin in the near future. It means the final victory over diabetes.
