SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 10. PAUL A PRISONER—THE PLOT. ACTS 23:11,24. GOLDEN TEXT. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress, my God in whom I trust.—Psalm 91:2.

POINTED SUGGESTIONS. By Rev. D. W. Snider. Do not fail to read carefully the passage between the last lesson-box and this one. None of Paul's addresses should be overlooked, nor any of the recorded scenes in his eventful life.

While the apostle is rejoicing in the Divine fellowship and encouragement which is granted to him in the castle, or has gone peacefully to sleep pillowed upon the cheering assurances of his Lord, there are others who are busy working up their case, and ripening their purpose, against him.

Nevertheless, organized wickedness is a fearful thing. Capitalism organized—what tyranny it means! Labor organized—what brutality it manifests!

The right kind of men in official positions is desirable. Because a man is placed in office is no reason why he should forsake his manners, if he be touchy, or become a gruff and surly boar.

Paul gets started on the way to Rome. He wants to see it and to preach Christ crucified there. It is his holy ambition. How he would have chafed under his imprisonment by the way if his ambition had not been surrendered to God and holy!
