WEDDING BELLS—St. Joseph's Convent was the scene of a very happy event on Tuesday, January 29th, when Miss Annie Josephine Murphy, a popular young lady of Cumberland, was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest J. During the nuptial mass, which was celebrated by Rev. Frank McQuaid, hymns appropriate to the occasion were beautifully sung by the members of the St. Joseph's Sodality, of which the bride is a member. After partaking of breakfast at the convent, the newly wedded couple drove to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous dinner was served by the bride's mother. The gifts, beautiful and costly, revealed the high esteem and favor the young couple were held in the minds of the donors. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold necklace and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch. At an early hour the bridal party drove to the home of the groom's parents, where, after having spent a very enjoyable time, the guests returned to their homes, after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Currie a long and prosperous journey through life.

Await the Spring
 LONDON, February 6.—German militarism faced its supreme test within its own borders today. The common people, whose general strike to enforce demands for food and consideration of peace negotiations reached its climax in rioting and bloodshed last week had the alternative of returning to work or paying the extreme penalty, death, by the firing squad. The fate of Germany and in a lesser degree, the whole world depends upon the strikers' decision. If they submit to the Supreme Command's ultimatum it will mean that German militarism has won another victory and that the Central Powers may again concentrate their efforts in preparing for the spring drive against the Allies.

Bloody Civil War Threatened
 If they do not submit, bloody civil war throughout Germany and Austria-Hungary will result. There is a tendency here to believe that the death threat will temporarily cow the workers into submission. There is a belief, too, that such a victory for the militarists will furnish only a short respite.
