CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 15.—Halide Edid Hanoum Turkey's foremost woman novelist and political writer, has written friends in Constantinople that she will not attempt to return to her homeland as long as the Kemalist Government continues its persecution of her husband, Dr. Adnan Bey, the Angora Government's first high Commissioner in Constantinople. Both husband and wife are in London. Adnan Bey was sought by the government for trial with the Smyrna plotters hanged for conspiring to kill Mustafa Kemal. Until recently the names of Halide Edid Hanoum and Latife Hanoum, divorced wife of Mustafa Kemal were coupled as the most prominent women in Turkey.

CORNWALL SERVICES—There will be service in the United Church of Canada, West River on Sunday, Sept. 19, at 11 a. m. at Kingston at 3.00 p. m. and in Cornwall at 7.30 p. m. The service at Kingston will be conducted by Rev. W. M. Ryan, Charlottetown.

NUPTIALS—The marriage of Miss Maud Malone, of Pictou, to Mr. Wilfred Connolly, Central Bedoune was solemnized at St. Mary's Church, Indian River, on Wednesday morning, Sept. 8th, Mr. Gillis officiating. The bride, who was being comely attired in navy satin crepe and large black hat, was attended by her cousin, Miss Anna Quinn, of Charlottetown, while the groom was ably supported by his brother Bernard. They entered the church to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Driscoll. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to Charlottetown, returning in the evening to the home of the bride, where a reception was held for the immediate friends of the bride and groom being invited. The many and useful presents testify to their popularity. The groom's gift to the bride was an amethyst ring and brooch, to the bridesmaid a silver rosary and to the organist a gold bar pin. Amid a shower of congratulations the happy couple left for their future home in Central Bedoune.

Acids In Stomach Cause Indigestion

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How To Treat

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well. Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. To lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

In Memoriam

MISS CATHERINE BULGER

At the residence of her nephew, Joseph Bulger, Hope River, on Sunday, July 4th, 1926, Miss Catherine Bulger was called to her eternal reward at the advanced age of eighty-four years. She was the last surviving member of the family of the late Thomas Bulger. She was born in Newfoundland, and when but a child emigrated to Prince Edward Island with her parents. She was always a robust health until a few months previous to her death. She was visited many times during her illness by her pastor, Rev. W. V. McDonald, who also administered to her the last Holy Sacrament of the Catholic Church of which she was a devout member. When but a young girl she went to the United States, where she lived many years, and by honest integrity she made good, and was the help of her then widowed mother, younger sisters and only brother, Patrick, to whom she returned in later years and made her home until his death in May, 1924. Being of a cheerful manner she made many friends at home and abroad, who with her nieces and nephews and relatives, will cherish her memory for the many deeds of kindness extended them. Her funeral took place on Tuesday morning, July 6, at St. Ann's church, Hope River, and was largely attended by her many relatives and friends. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Clarence Peters, Blistock, who also officiated at the grave, where all that was mortal of a loving aunt was tenderly laid to rest, there to remain until summoned to meet her Saviour in final judgment. Whom we earnestly pray, shall be with a smiling and benign countenance. May her soul rest in peace.

CHARLES E. McDONALD.

Charles E. McDonald, whose tragic death is deeply regretted by all, was a superior specimen of nature's noblemen. Possessed of a magnificent physical constitution, and endowed with superior intellectual powers, he commanded respect and attention wherever known. A fluent and instructive speaker, as well as an interesting and engaging conversationalist, he made company the better by his presence, and his worth was often actuated by his absence.

Endowed with a mental energy that demanded acute physical activity, he was ever on the alert, and his example was most impelling to the indifferent or passive. Although he did not have the advantage of a university education, he yet possessed a wonderfully comprehensive and boundlessly endowed mind, which he kept adequately informed on all the broad and leading measures that actuated the public mind. He was conspicuously altruistic, which trait ever rejected selfishness. He displayed a happy medium that was at once effective and exemplar. In politics he was a supporter of the Liberal-Conservative party, yet his vision was not ob-

Bedeque Baptist Centennial a Great Island Success

Vast Crowds Gather at all the Services.—Hundreds Turned Away. Pageant to be Rendered Again on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of this Week.

"A tremendous success." These words were on the tongues of every person that availed themselves of the privilege of attending the sessions of the Celebration on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of the past week.

The opening meeting was held on Friday afternoon at 3.00 p. m., the occasion being the One Hundredth Anniversary Roll Call. The members of the Bedeque Baptist churches responded as their names were called, and then the names of the various churches on the Island were read off by the clerk. Each church represented responded with Centennial Greetings, thus showing a real spirit of co-operation and enthused interest in the Centennial.

The clergymen present throughout the Centennial were Rev. Mr. Lindsay, Moderator of the Island Association, Revs. Ross Eaton, of Charlottetown, McLeod of Summerside, J. H. Copeland of O'Leary, Norman Whitman of Sackville, N. B., E. S. Mason of Wolfville, W. M. Machem, St. John, N. B., Licentiate Robertson of Belmont, P. E. I.

The Roll Call Sermon on Friday afternoon was preached by Rev. Norman Whitman, B. A., a former Pastor of the Church, and in an inspiring way he dealt with the great theme, "I have meat to eat, that ye know not of." The incident on which the sermon was based being "Jesus and the woman of Samaria."

In the evening an Historical Anniversary was held. The Moderator, Rev. Mr. Lindsay, took the chair, supported on the platform by the visiting ministers, and the Bedeque Orchestra and Choral Club. After appropriate music, Mrs. Neil McLeod of Summerside, gave an interesting lecture on the "Bedeque of a Century Ago." Full of humor, full of pathos, full of realistic interpretation of a by-gone age, for half an hour the audience hung breathlessly upon her words. The Rev. Ross Eaton, of Charlottetown, then followed with an historical paper on the Baptist Denomination on P. E. Island. This was very much appreciated. After his address, greetings were read from various ministers, especially old pastors. These were read by Rev. Mr. Robertson, of Belmont. One Centennial Greeting from the United Church in Summerside, "Trinity," arrived too late to be read at these meetings, but was read at the Monday night presentation of the "Pageant." The Baptist brethren were especially delighted with this Greeting from Trinity Church.

One happy event of the evening was the reception of the Pastor of the Central Bedeque Church, into the Baptist Association. The Right Hand of Fellowship was extended in well chosen words, by Rev. A. A. McLeod of Summerside. Dr. Sider responded with much feeling.

On the same occasion, three deacons were ordained to the sacred office by the Pastor and visiting Ministers. They were Bros. John Dawson, Artimus Schurman, and Albert Wright. The Charge to the Church was given by Rev. Mr. Lindsay, the Charge to the Candidates by Rev. A. A. McLeod of Summerside, the Ordaining Prayer being offered by Dr. Sider. Rev. Norman Whitman conducted the Ordination Service.

Saturday morning a testimony was given at which the gathering perhaps the greatest blessing of the Celebration was received. One testimony was of special interest, namely that given by Rev. A. A. McLeod of Summerside. It told of hard days on a Mission Field, of scars and real hardships, and of the way God answered prayer was an inspiration to all present. "Eyes were wet with tears secured but he could see merit in his opponent. In so doing his presence was again intensified the interest that was shown by the company, and he was always able to intensify the degree of interest that was displayed.

In the matter of church activity he always performed his duties both individually and socially with a force that produced results.

He rendered noticeable aid in the building of the new church at Indian River. He was always in evidence where help was needed at socials, picnics, and tea parties and in all unions for religious purposes he was ever a factitive element.

All this was contributed free, and to do so pleased no one better than himself. Now that he has passed to his eternal reward, a grateful party should be mindful of the effective assistance that may be rendered to his soul in the realm of eternity.

At the conclusion of the story and a deeper faith in God, was the termination of everyone present.

The Ladies' Missionary Meeting held in the afternoon, was addressed by Miss Calbeck, of Bedeque, returned missionary from Japan, of the United Church. In glowing phrases, she showed the value of Christian work in the Orient, and by showing many articles of interest from her field of labor, created a tremendous impression. Mrs. Glidden took the chair, supported by the local officers.

The Pageant on the Saturday evening, was a huge success. In another issue the Pageant will be reported. Suffice it to say that vast crowds gathered to see it, very many being unable to even get into the building. Three nights this week, it will be reproduced, and if necessary, again on Monday, Sept. 20th. Watch another issue of the paper for a full report.

Sunday was indeed a Red Letter Day in Central Bedeque, and for Baptists all over the Island. The morning service was conducted by the Moderator, and Bro. Lindsay was heard at his best. His message might be termed "The Prospects of the Future." Full of tender sympathy, breathing the spirit of love, Bro. Lindsay carried his audience to the very foot of the Throne, Dr. God.

At the conclusion of the E. S. Mason then conducted a Communion Service. A large number stayed and partook of the sacred elements, and a spirit of love pre-empted. Mr. J. B. Lewis sang very sweetly "My Father Knows."

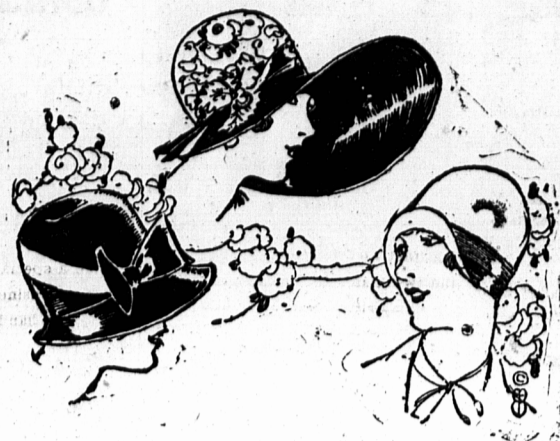

After singing in the Church, the Choral Club sent over to the Hall, and rendered almost the same program, thus bringing to a close the Centennial of the Baptist Denomination on the Island.

Much interest has been manifested. The ladies provided supper and dinner during the celebration, so that all were enabled to stay on the grounds and participate amidst congenial surroundings in this event of Island wide interest.

The thanks of the Baptist people are due to all who took part in the Celebration, especially to members of the other churches, who rallied, loyally to the opportunity, and enabled the Baptists of Bedeque to make their Centennial, really worth while.

BOTHERED WITH ECZEMA IN RASH

Face Was Disfigured. Healed by Cuticura.

"Some time ago I was bothered with eczema which broke out on my face in a rash. I took no notice of it at first until the trouble began to spread and the irritation caused me to scratch. My face was disfigured and the trouble lasted about three months.

"I tried different remedies but none seemed to do any good. I heard about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some, and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed."
