WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, April 12 (CP)—
Coarse grains took on a firm tone today on Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Minor demand by shippers and exporters came into oats but no aggregate buying was reported as offerings continued light.
Trading in barley was less active than in oats, with locals and commission house demand reported. Offerings here too were light.
Commission houses were active in the deferred months of rye futures as selling outweighed buying in the late stages.
Prices of class two wheat were reduced one cent from Saturday. Cash prices:
