A NEW meat market has been opened up on Kent Street in the store formerly occupied by Saunders & Newson, next door to the factory of Mark Wright & Co. The proprietors will be Samuel Gay, the veteran meat dealer of Pownal and his son who have entered into partnership. They intend offering the very best quality in all kinds of meat at the lowest prices. Mr. Gay has been in the business for over thirty years and during that time has universally given satisfaction to all who have dealt with him. With increased facilities for business the firm will command and deserve an increased patronage.

HECTOR THE "BLACK KNIGHT"—Large numbers of people in many sections of this Province will be delighted to know that this distinguished temperance worker and orator will make a tour of P. E. I. in the latter part of this month. Arrangements are under way for holding meetings at Kensington, Summerside, Alberton, Hunter River, Montague, Sour's, and several meetings in Charlottetown. It is to be regretted that in some of the places the halls are so small as doubtless the largest of them will be filled to overflowing. It is understood that tickets will be for sale in good time thus assuring the holders seats for the meetings. Look out for dates.

GEORGE S. McLEAN, son of T. A. McLean, Esq., whose sudden death last evening The Guardian deeply regrets to record this morning, was a young man of about twenty-three years of age. During the past three years he has conducted a lobster fishing business as well as managing the office work of his father's foundry. Whilst on a business trip to Norfolk, Virginia, last September, he contracted malarial fever which weakened his heart and he was confined to an hospital in Boston for a few weeks until enabled to return to his home in this City. When he arrived home he was in very delicate health, suffering from heart complications, and was advised by his physician to take absolute rest for a few months. He gradually regained his former vigor, until within a few days ago, when he developed a severe attack of quinsy, complicated with his former heart trouble which ended with his early demise shortly after seven o'clock last night. To his bereaved father, brothers and sisters The Guardian extends its sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow.
