DYSPEPSIA NOW CALLED CATARRH OF STOMACH.

Mr. H. Laberge, 1233 St. Catherine street, Montreal, Can., writes: "I would be ungrateful if I did not write you of the good your medicine, Peruna, has done me."

"For six years I suffered from indigestion and dyspepsia. I tried a number of remedies for this dreaded complaint with little or no good results. A friend of mine brought me a bottle of your celebrated medicine and I began taking it."

"I soon found it to be just the remedy I required, and after taking a few bottles of it I was completely cured."

"I cheerfully recommend Peruna to all sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion."

We have on file thousands of testimonials from persons who have been cured of dyspepsia and catarrh of the stomach by taking Peruna.

We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements Dr. Hartman is constantly receiving.

If you suffer from stomach catarrh, write at once to Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O., and he will be pleased to give you the benefit of his medical advice free.

Mrs. Macleod accompanied by her four children who has been visiting her former home here left yesterday morning on return to her home in Brockton. She was accompanied as far as Point Du Chene by Mrs. Frances Baker.

The Sydney Record, August 8th 1905—The marriage took place at 4.30 this morning at the residence of the bride's parents A. W. and Mrs. Kelly, Union Street, of their eldest daughter, Miss Maude, to Leslie Donald. The bride who looked charming was gownned in a pretty travelling suit of brown and carried a handsome bouquet of roses.

She was attended by her sister Miss Ella Kelly, who wore a becoming dress of buff mohair and carried a bouquet of carnation pinks. The groom was supported by John H. Lang and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Jas. Blesedell. The parlor in which the ceremony took place was prettily decorated with ferns, cut flowers and potted plants.

The wedding march was played by Miss Blesedell. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast. The wedding presents were numerous and costly. The young couple left on the 6.10 car enroute to P. E. Island for a wedding tour. On their return the latter part of the month they will reside on Union Street. Both contracting parties are very popular in social circles. Among the gifts was an elegant tea service from the Methodist choir of which the bride was a valued member. (The groom is a native of Malapque where he and his bride are spending their honeymoon.)
