A Measuring Party

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr and Mrs Ernest Graham, Dec. 9th when the Pembroke Women's Institute held a measuring party for the purpose of raising funds for institute work.

Although the roads were not very good a large number attended each one being measured as they came in. The evening was spent in music, singing, etc. One of the attractions of the evening being step dancing by Mr. Harry Reid and Harry Graham, also Mr. Earnest Graham and Mr. Abraham Graham. Mr. Wm. Sencabaugh furnishing the music.

NIGHT SCHOOL

With a view to organizing classes for instruction in elementary and technical subjects, applications will be received at the Department of Education up to December 28th from any persons desirous of attending same.

Applicant should state the subjects in which he wishes to receive instruction so that places may be arranged accordingly.

Courses will be offered in English, arithmetic, simple accounts, writing, drawing, woodworking, motor mechanics, Household Science, sewing and millinery, and in any subject in which a sufficient number of applicants will warrant the formation of a class.

Special attention will be given to those who missed the opportunity of acquiring the elements of a common school education.

Two Killed In Explosion

(Canadian Press) BALDWIN, N. Y., Dec. 23.—Two persons were killed, about a dozen injured and 12 wooden buildings destroyed today in an explosion at a factory in Baldwin.

Authorities believed the explosion was caused by a bomb set off in a "shoemaker" shop last week. District Attorney Edward J. Walsh learned that Samuel Acarbi, a shoemaker, occupied a large lumbering operation.

Three more months of winter. Mr. Ed. Mosher of Wood Islands is in company with his son, Harry
