CRAPAUD NOTES—Haying is well advanced in this section of the country and the crop is an abundant one. In consequence the farmers are busy and business quiet.—Recently on two occasions the Methodist church at Crapaud Corner was filled to overflowing. On one occasion Rev. J. K. King from New Brunswick occupied the pulpit and on the second Rev. J. W. Wadman from Japan. The Victoria Bridge collapsed a few days ago, but we are pleased to hear that necessary repairs have been made, and the travelling public are again passing over in safety.—Judge Warburton of Charlottetown and J. H. Bell M. L. A. from Summerside, visited this place yesterday. We understand the Judge was bidding good-bye to his numerous friends previous to leaving the capital for King's County.—O. B. Wadman of Crapaud has an exhibition in one of his show windows, some Japan Corios and the medals, captured by Mr. Fenton Newsome of the GUARDIAN staff, Charlottetown.

VEGETABLES fresh from the garden are superior in flavor to those pulled two or three days, and we are placing our large garden at the disposal of every family in Charlottetown. For the benefit of those ordering from the country, we quote as follows: Cabbages, 30 to 40c per doz; cauliflower, 30 to 50c per doz; beets and turnips, 6 to 8c per doz; green peas, 12c per ga; lettuce, 25c per doz; mushrooms, 25c lb; cucumbers, radish, parsley, cut flowers, etc, etc; Orders for vegetables gathered and shipped the same day as received. We take this opportunity to thank our customers for their liberal patronage, especially do we appreciate the many orders at our gardens, and we will always make a special effort to give full satisfaction, having more time at our disposal there, than at the market. If you cannot call use your telephone. A telephone paces our garden at your door; if you have not a telephone, your neighbor has, and he is a jolly, good fellow.—J. J. GAY & SON, Nursery Garden, head of Prince Street, Charlottetown, Telephone 180. 28 1w & wky ex & pat.
