PEANUTS WILL BE A POPULAR FRUIT

GAGETOWN, Aug. 27. — Reports from the upper end of Grand Lake indicate that there has been a great drop in the price of peanuts—that delicious fruit which Col. H. M. McLean seeks to popularize with his picnic policy. Queens County has the honor of originating some great policies in the years gone by. The Col. McLean has taken all the honors from his forefathers and all the rest of the with his great picnic policy, which is expected to do so much towards popularizing the already popular peanut.

This morning the Colonel sent in a message to his A. D. C., in this enterprising village saying that he had already dispensed 734 pounds of peanuts and while the hold of the sloop, Dahinda was filled with peanuts he feared the supply would run out. He has ordered another consignment and they will come by the new line of airships which "W. P." will have running as soon as Explorer Hanson finds out how much water there is not in the river that ought to be there.

Yesterday was circus day at New-castle and a better show day could not have been found anywhere. The animals in the menagerie have put in an objection to the great noise on the Dahinda at night and Captain Kirkpatrick had a lot of trouble to get them back on the Dahinda last evening to get along for today's show. However the Colonel has promised to cut out the rehearsals of his speeches on the deck during the night and the animals will probably be able to get their usual sleep once more.

Disorganizer Copp has made such a distinct hit that he will be sent home at once by Press Agent Wendell B. Farris; A. K. McLean says he don't like the circus business and will also go home.

Yesterday the demand for peanuts was heavier than at Cumberland Bay and the Colonel shook hands with everybody on the grounds. His son, Hugh, has given up distributing peanuts and has taken to the candy, the Colonel having purchased seven tons of Ganong's candies which are handed out in boxes containing about a quarter of a pound each. The Colonel impresses it very strongly upon each and every person enjoying his candy that it was made by Ganong Bros., of St. Stephen. The Colonel is not interested in any corporation manufacturing candies. He only deals in propositions like railways, etc.—see official list of lobbyists at Legislature and House of Commons.

ORMOCTO, Aug. 27. — This morning two members of the 71st Band passed through here on the star, Victoria en route to the Grand Lake district to join Col. H. M. McLean's medicine show circus. They carried with them several inviting looking packages which will be used until Col. McLean gets some life saving stations erected in Queens county. The arrival of the circus in this section is being awaited with great interest. The whole populace is getting in training for the peanut eating contest that is promised.

KING ALFONSO IN LONDON

LONDON, Aug. 27. — King Alfonso arrived here last night and will rejoin Queen Victoria, who is visiting her mother, Princess Henry of Battenburg, sister of King Edward, on the Isle of Wight. His Majesty's arrival was marked by unusual erratic behavior. The Spanish ambassador went to meet the Dover boat at 5 o'clock to welcome him, while other members of the embassy met the train from Dover at the Victoria station at 7 o'clock. None of them saw His Majesty, and there was considerable speculation as to what had become of him. It turned out that he arrived at Folkestone, instead of Dover, and reached the Victoria station on a special train at 11 o'clock last night.
