CHANDLER & REDDIN.

It pays to buy in this Province. Miss E. B. Purdy, city, leaves in the near future for Vancouver. Chester W. Clark, of CascoTec, Lot 6, attended the Seed Fair in Summerside on Thursday.—A. John and Mrs. Andrew, Vermont Mills, returned last night from Summerside, after attending the Seed Fair. The funeral of the late Samuel Howard, Cornwall, took place to the Cornwall Cemetery. Today's Guardian comprises sixteen pages of carefully assorted reading matter. Readers should make sure they secure the entire copy. Frank Hawkes, who has been a student at St. Dunstan's College, leaves for his home in Somerville, Mass., the next trip of the Earl Grey. The funeral of the late Mrs. M. A. Offer, City, will take place this afternoon at 3.00 o'clock to St. Paul's Church thence by rail to Sherwood Cemetery. The funeral of the late Miss A. Douse, City, will take place this afternoon at 2.00 o'clock to the Railway Station, thence to Sherwood Cemetery. Some excitement was caused by a horse falling on the street near the west end of the market yesterday. After he had struggled for a while some man who knew what to do sat on his head. The students' Bible classes will meet at the usual hour this evening at the Y. M. C. A. After the routine talk given last Saturday evening by Rev. R. G. Strathe every member of these two classes should be present promptly. George Day of Granville was in the city yesterday disposing of his winter's catch of furs. Among his lot were twenty-five number one fox skins, which he secured with his hounds. They were purchased by J. D. Jenkins, fur buyer, city. Yesterday forenoon in Prince Street School, Prof. Wright, City, introduced R. A. Diplock of Montreal, to the teachers and pupils of the school who were massed in the Assembly hall. Mr. Diplock, a member of St. Paul's Choir in Montreal sang to Prof. Wright's accompaniment, "Fear ye not oh Israel," "Alice where art thou?" and for encore two very laughable selections "The little Irish girl" and "You better ask me." By special request he favored the class with "Then you'll remember me" and "Mary of Argle." Needless to say his listeners were delighted with such an unexpected treat. The talented singer possesses a magnificent tenor voice and the clearness of enunciation, gave evidence of being carefully trained. The Intercollegiate assault-at-arms held on Saturday at the McGill gymnasium, Montreal, turned out to be a very tame affair, in which the men from the Kingston seat of learning copped all the honors. Varsity and the Royal Military College having side-stepped the tourney, McGill were left to battle with Queens in the various classes at boxing, wrestling and fencing. R. L. McBeath of McGill, heavyweight wrestler, a native of P. E. Island, was beaten by J. A. Macdonald of Queen's. It was a jolly crowd of young people that gathered at the Y. M. C. A. last night for a social time. The young ladies of the gymnasium class and other friends were the invited guests of the young men. A most enjoyable evening was spent in playing games and in listening to a short program. Parker Hooper was in splendid voice and sang to the delight of all. A. W. Gaudet in trombone solos was greatly appreciated. George Green, always a favorite with the young people gave several readings. Miss Kate Stanley, Miss Nellie Gillespie and others assisted in the musical program. It is the object of the Y. M. C. A. management to make the Association the centre rallying place for the young people of the city and the success of last night's affair showed that the young people are beginning to appreciate such a fine opportunity. "Do you shave yourself? If so we have the very article needed for the pleasurable carrying out of that operation. Fine line of drops, brushes, soap, after shave in fact every article that conduces to comfort and luxury. See us for supplies. The McKinnon Drug Co., Cor. Gt. Geo. & R. Streets. drtf.

STOCK NOTES: W. S. Newsome, Charlottetown, purchased on Thursday last from Frank McKewen, Summerside, a team of mares which will be hard to equal. One of them is five years old, sired by McGitchen, dam, Knight of Ardgowan, weighing 1500 lbs. The other is two and one half years old from the same dam, sired by Honesty and weighs about 1400 lbs. The former has taken six prizes at different exhibitions, three first as draft filly, and the others in a matched team with her dam. The other mare took two prizes as a draft filly and as a foal. They are a handsome pair and Mr. Newsome is to be congratulated on securing them.--S.
