CANADIENS AND BOSTON PLAY GAMES DRAWN ONE TO ONE; 3

Three ties were recorded in as many National Hockey League fixtures last night.

Even the champion Ottawa Senators played to a scoreless draw with the Toronto Maple Leafs, and the frisky Canadiens deadlocked with Boston one to one.

The scores were:
Ottawa 0, Toronto 0.
Canadiens 1, Boston 1.
Rangers 2, Pittsburgh 2.

70 Minutes With No Score

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—Toronto Maple Leafs and Ottawa's Senators played through 70 minutes of scoreless and listless hockey in a National Hockey League fixture before 3,500 fans here tonight.

Only at far distant moments throughout the game did play by either side reach major league calibre. Connie Smythe had a well-organized combination machine in his Leaf front rank but after the opening ten minutes the world champion Senators appeared to have solved the system and back-checked them into ineffectiveness.

The champions confined their goal ward thrusts mainly to solo rushes that made but little headway against the heavy Toronto rear guards.

Bailey, Day and Keeling looked best for the visitors, while Nighbor and Clancy stood out in the ranks of the Senators.

Hectic 1-1 Overtime Game

ARENA, Boston, Dec. 7.— The Boston Bruins and the Canadiens of Montreal battled to the hectic one to one overtime tie in a National Hockey League game here tonight.

The contest, fast and bitterly fought throughout, developed plenty of thrills for the capacity crowd of 9,000 and not a little bad blood among the players as well.

The pace and rough body contacts brought about trouble in the third period when Herberts, of Boston and Gagne of Canadiens, after a holding and checking bee, dropped sticks and took to fists. Officials and other players dragged them apart. They were given major penalties. There were also ten minor penalties for a variety of offences. Joliat and Shore each had three.

Mantha, who played a great game both on defense and attack, marched through the whole Boston team for Canadiens only goal in the second period. A few minutes later Shore evened it up for Boston by sniping a side shot when Hainsworth's view was obstructed by a group in front of his cage.

Pirates Fail Again

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 7.— The Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Rangers fought to a ten-minute overtime tie in a National Hockey League game here tonight, 2 to 2. The Pirates failed for the seventh time this season to score a league victory. It was the second successive tie for the Pittsburgh team, coupled with five defeats.

Gray, of the Rangers, scored in the first period, and Milks soon after tied the count unassisted. Boucher put New York into the lead again in the third period, scoring on a pass from B. Cook. Drury scored the Pirates' second counter in the same period with a brilliant unassisted play.
