

A Fine Touch of Daintiness

Is afforded by a few drops of perfume and to those who seek the best to be had our complete line of

Perfumes and Toilet Waters offer a selection second to none.

If there is one odor that surpasses all others. We think it is

Princess Patricia

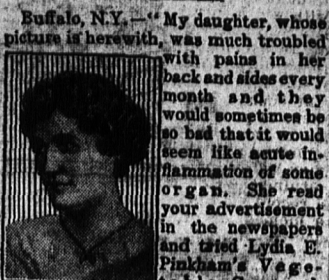

It has proved a great favorite both in Perfume and Talcum Powder and we feel it can be justly recommended—Ask for sample

E.A. Foster

Central Drugstore Sunnyside

YOUNG WOMEN MAY AVOID PAIN

Need Only Trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, says Mrs. Kurtzweg.

Buffalo, N.Y.—My daughter, whose picture is herewith, was much troubled with pains in her back and sides every month and they would sometimes be so bad that it would seem like some inflammation of some organ. She read your advertisement and tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

She praises it highly as she has been relieved of all these pains by its use. All mothers should know of this remedy and all young girls who suffer should try it. Mrs. L. A. Kurtzweg, 529 High St., Buffalo, N.Y.

Young women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by this root and herb remedy.

If you know of any young woman who is sick and needs help, all mothers should write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Only women will receive her letter, and it will be held in strictest confidence.

Debate on Address Closes

(Continued from page two.)

wanted to tell them that he believed in a fair and square deal and to have things done honestly and above board. It did not matter whether the individual was on his side of the House or on the other. If he knew any member of the Government side of the House who was not acting honestly, he would let the country know it mattered not who he was. At present he was concerned with the political record of the Leader of the Opposition. How long since was it that Mr. Bell entered the House? He was returned in 1892 as a representative from Bedouque. What was one of the first actions of the hon. gentleman on taking his seat in the House? He was a lawyer, and they all knew that lawyers get money from people who have money to invest, and they take mortgages on farms from farmers who want to borrow money.

Mr. Bell held a good many mortgages at the time he was first elected, and he came down to the House and asked that House to allow him to have 25 votes in this province on account of the mortgages he held. He asked that House to pass a law allowing a man to have a vote for every mortgage he held, and the length of saying that the mortgage should have no vote at all. That was what their friend Mr. Bell put up about the first time he entered the House. Then when the Liberal party came into power, Mr. Bell was the gentleman who proposed that Dominion Officials should be disfranchised. Mr. Bell who was now the leader of the Opposition, did these things, and he (Mr. Kennedy) wished to remind the members of that House and the people of the country of them. The Liberal party had a perfect right to select whom they liked as their leader, but he thought they owed it to themselves and to the country.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: I never made a statement I am not prepared to back up.

Mr. JOHNSTON: Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order, and I state that the hon. gentleman has made about me is not correct and I ask you to make him withdraw it.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Bracelet Watches

We have on display in our windows a big assortment of Military Strap Watches in Waltham, Elgin and the best make of Swiss at $2.75 up

G. H. Taylor Jeweler & Optician

Why was he now sitting on the Opposition side of the House? Then there was his friend Mr. Johnston, the member for Cardigan, who was his friend in the Liberal ranks? He wished to tell the hon. members that he believed in a strong Opposition, as it was necessary when there were two opinions on a question of policy, to have the matter thoroughly discussed. But discussion was merely a waste of time when one side or the other held no convictions but argued merely for arguments sake. He wanted to tell them that while they on the Government side came there to do country, they here on the Opposition side were met for the petty fault-finding and personal attacks that were a discredit to any party. Take their friend Mr. Johnston. What has he contributed to the discussion in the way of advancing the interests of the country? Nothing. But he had found fault with Mr. Kennedy, because he had resumed his place in the Government. He would remind Mr. Johnston that he (the speaker) had not deserted his party. He had not sacrificed his convictions, and he could remain by his party and placed his services at the disposal of the Government of which he had for the second time been chosen a member. But Mr. Johnston had seen fit to find fault with him for this and his "mouthpiece" the Patriot, to quote the words of Mr. Bell in another connection, had seen fit to back him up and quoted the words "off again, on again, gone again Flinnigan" to show before he went very far who the "Finnigan" was. Now he hoped and he felt very sure Mr. Johnston would have cause to regret having raised the question before he was done with him. Mr. Johnston had started this sort of a controversy for a deliberate purpose and he could blame himself only if he rolled on his own head. Take the political record of the hon. member for Cardigan. He had been a prominent Conservative for many years, and was high up in the order, being at one time financial secretary of the Association. Mr. Kennedy proceeded to assert that because the Conservative party insisted upon Mr. Johnston pursuing a certain course he said he would join the Liberals and a Liberal he became.

Mr. JOHNSTON: I say that is not correct.

Mr. KENNEDY: I never made a statement I am not prepared to back up.

Mr. JOHNSTON: Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order, and I state that the hon. gentleman has made about me is not correct and I ask you to make him withdraw it.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

Mr. JOHNSTON: My point is this, I say that when any offensive remarks are made by any member about another, that member has a right to rise to a point of order. The remarks of the hon. member in reference to me are not true. If he makes them outside of the House I will make him prove them.

The PREMIER: That is a question of fact not a question of order. There are two grounds on which one member may interrupt another. One is a question of fact that may be explained at the time or after the Speaker has concluded his remarks. The other is a point of order which is drawn at once. This is certainly not a point of order. It is a question of fact.

School Teacher

ANAEMIA, RUN-DOWN, NERVOUS—HOW SHE RECOVERED.

There are many cases like this right here in Charlottetown that we are publishing this interesting letter with the hope that some of our customers will try Vinol and get the same happy result that Miss Baez did.

Koy, West, Fla.—"I am a teacher and became anaemic, nervous, run-down, no energy or desire to do anything, I could not sleep and had that languid, nervous feeling that made me a burden to myself. I had taken various tonics without benefit. I heard of Vinol and tried it. Soon I had a good appetite, could sleep all night and I built me up so I have the ambition to do any kind of work." Mary L. Baez, Key West, Fla.

The reason Vinol was so successful in this case is because it is a constitutional remedy that goes to the seat of trouble. The peptone and iron contained in Vinol enriches and revitalizes the blood, while the strengthening, tissue-building properties of the extractives of cods' livers and beef permeate the air in building up the tired, overworked, run-down system.

E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Charlottetown and H. J. Mabon, Drugist, Souris.

Large size containing 24 times the quantity of 60 cents. Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere, or direct, on receipt of price, from the sole agents for Canada, Harold P. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 135 McCaul Street, Toronto.

Proprietors—The Yeno Drug Co. Ltd., Manchester, Eng.

Coughs and Colds, Bronchial Troubles, Nasal Catarrh, Hoarseness. Price 30 cents. Difficult Breathing, Whooping Cough, Blood Spitting, Asthma.

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE

Sunlight Soap

5c. is all you need to pay for the best and purest Soap in the world.

Sunlight Soap. The inducements offered with common soaps cannot make up for the guaranteed purity of Sunlight Soap.

The Great British Remedy

COUGHS THAT HURT

That kind of cough must be stopped, and at once; it is dangerous. The severe strain it causes may have serious consequences. You can stop it—and cure it—with the World-famous British Remedy, Veno's Lightning Cough Cure. There is nothing in medicine more quick or more sure than Veno's. That is why it is called a "Lightning" cough cure.

Awarded the Grand Prix and Gold Medal, International Health Exhibition, Paris, 1910.

Veno's Lightning Cough Cure is the most popular cough remedy in the whole world. Why? Because it's a real cure, quick, sure, thorough; because it is free from every kind of poisonous or dangerous drug; because it is good for children as for adults; because a better preparation could not be made, if the price were dollars instead of cents. Trust Veno's in the treatment of—

Coughs and Colds, Bronchial Troubles, Nasal Catarrh, Hoarseness. Price 30 cents. Difficult Breathing, Whooping Cough, Blood Spitting, Asthma.

Large size containing 24 times the quantity of 60 cents. Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere, or direct, on receipt of price, from the sole agents for Canada, Harold P. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 135 McCaul Street, Toronto.

Proprietors—The Yeno Drug Co. Ltd., Manchester, Eng.

Lady Solicitors Wanted

The Great-West Life Assurance Company would be pleased to receive applications from Ladies who would care to study Insurance and take up soliciting work. In the Upper Provinces and also in Western Canada, Ladies have made a great success at this work, and there are just as great opportunities in P.E.I.

Returned Soldiers can also find useful employment by taking an Agency for this Company.

Extravagance, always a folly, in these days becomes a crime; thrift, always a virtue, in these days becomes a national duty.

Is there any more intelligent manner of exercising the virtue of thrift, than by regularly saving the amount necessary to pay for sufficient Life Insurance protection? The numberless premiums contributed by thrifty people, are redistributed by the Companies in helping to finance the Country and the War—as well as in providing homes and other necessities for thousands of widows and children.

More than half a century of statistics develops the fact that only three men in every hundred are self supporting at the age of 65, and that the other ninety-seven are absolutely dependent upon others for the common necessities of life.

A large proportion of this unfortunate situation is due to the failure of young men to establish a definite financial plan for the future. For such a Plan, Life Insurance is the medium most available and dependable.

The policies of the Great-West Life give the most protection for the least money and pay the highest dividends to policyholders.

Hyndman & Co., Ltd.

Managers P. E. I. Charlottetown

Offices 61 Queen Street Telephone 67

81664-10M11.

81664-10M11.

81664-10M11.

81664-10M11.

MAGIC CREAM

--a Good Polish for Furniture

- Pianos -Picture Frames -Hardwood Floors

a superior article for polishing any fine wood surface.

It thoroughly cleans, removes all dirt and leaves a bright, brilliant and durable polish that will last for a long time.

If you value your furniture, treat it with MAGIC CREAM and see how good it will look.

Get a big bottle, 25c.

MILLER BROS. 123 Kent Street

MILLER BROS. 123 Kent Street

MILLER BROS. 123 Kent Street

MILLER BROS. 123 Kent Street

MILLER BROS. 123 Kent Street

MILLER BROS. 123 Kent Street

MILLER BROS. 123 Kent Street

Bring Up Father

WHY MR. JIGGS, I SHOULD THINK YOU'D LOVE IT OUT HERE IN THE COUNTRY. WHAT IS IT YOU MISS MOST OUT HERE?

THE TRAINS!

DO YOU PLAY GOLF?

THAT GAME WOULD DRIVE ME DIPPY.

WHY GOLF IS KNOWN TO HAVE CURED INSANITY.

DO YOU SPEAK FROM EXPERIENCE?

NO-BUT I KNOW IT TO BE A FACT!

WELL, ALL RIGHT, BUT WHAT WILL CURE GOLF?

WELL, ALL RIGHT, BUT WHAT WILL CURE GOLF?

WELL, ALL RIGHT, BUT WHAT WILL CURE GOLF?

WELL, ALL RIGHT, BUT WHAT WILL CURE GOLF?

WELL, ALL RIGHT, BUT WHAT WILL CURE GOLF?

WELL, ALL RIGHT, BUT WHAT WILL CURE GOLF?