IT DROPPETH LIKE THE GENTLE DEW FROM HEAVEN.—Mrs. Ernest Warren, and Mrs. Alexander Ladner of North River evidently believed in "the gospel of work," so highly commended by the famous Henry Van Dyke. They invaded the Baptist manse just before the minister's wife returned from her vacation, and washed, swept, and polished wherever necessary, decorated the dining-room and the study with flowers and left a goodly supply of good things in the pantry. This work of love is all the more appreciated, Mrs. MacWalker, "the Mistress of the Manse," is not in her usual good health.

"The Colonial Presbyterian" of St. John of July 5, 1865, describing the appointment said: "This was the greatest honor which, in accordance with the simple usages of the Presbyterian Church, could be bestowed on any of its members. Mr. Bennet's remarks were broad, candid and able, and would bear expansion into a little volume."

—"BOSSY" CAVES IN—A recent Boston paper has the following:—"Bossy" Gillis, standing with lowered head in the Essex Superior Court here today, admitted the law is bigger than he is. The "bad boy" Mayor of Newburyport pleaded guilty to four complaints charging him with illegal storing and selling of gasoline at his station at High and State Streets in that city. He will be sentenced by Judge Nelson P. Brown on Thursday. His decision to quit the legal battle came after his battery of legal talent conferred with the prosecution and Judge Brown in the Judge's lobby of the courthouse where Gillis was on trial before a jury. The charges to which he pleaded guilty totalled twelve counts, all having to do with the illegal sale of gasoline. The complaints were that Bossy sold gasoline without a permit from the City of Newburyport or from the State Fire Marshal."

At the meeting yesterday of the Maritime Province Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, which is holding its sessions in St. James Church in this city, the principal feature was the public welcome accorded the Synod by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and His Worship the Mayor.

There passed away from this life, Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wightman, of Montague, Sept. 25th, 1928, at the early age of 14 years and 11 months, leaving his sorrowful parents to mourn their loss. He was a fine, manly boy, to whom his parents naturally looked to comfort them in their declining years, but it was not to be so. The Lord would have it otherwise and we trust that their loss is His gain. He was beloved by all his school mates, who were greatly saddened to hear of his death. We sincerely hope that God may comfort them in their sore bereavement and enable them to look beyond the fleeting scenes of life to yonder home where death and sorrow are not known.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. McDowell of Caledonia assisted by the Rev. A. S. Stewart of Montague. The remains were laid to rest in Lower Montague Cemetery beside his grandfather Mr. George Wightman. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Wightman.

RECOVERS JEMS.—Some distance from the shore on the cool clear waters of Moosehead Lake, Maine, is anchored a swimming float. Here guests swimming at West Outlet Camps, Maine, and other private camps along the shore, gather and enjoy a plunge in the lake and often indulge in friendly swimming races. During one of those diving tournaments, a young heiress from Trenton, N. J., Miss Mary Blackwell, forgetting to remove her pearl necklace dove in and returning to the float found her valuable pearls were left on the bottom of the lake For several days willing and courageous young friends plunged to the bottom but failed to bring up the prize; the incident had been almost forgotten till last Sunday, some one on the float thought they saw something shining on the clear bottom twenty feet below, with the water a freezing point no one cared to go down; but along came a young man from Mr. MacKenzie's camps, Mr Joseph Lonergan, a native of Charlottetown. Joe quickly changed from his regulation uniform of white to bathing suit, took a plunge into the deep and returned to the surface with the pearls. Mr. Lonergan is receiving congratulations, this being the second time he proved himself a sportsman and a hero having saved a young lady from possible drowning in the early summer.

The Death Angel has again entered one of our homes in Northam, on Sept. 6, and claimed for his own Henry, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben T. Ellis, age 3 years. Less than a year ago little Henry, was one of a happy group. No where could be found a more perfect type of a child robust, active and intelligent, far beyond his years. And in the home where his little chattering tongue was never still, he leaves a vacency that can never be filled. A slight fall developed into alarming symtoms, and he was taken to P. C. Hospital, where an operation was performed, May 26. For a time fondest hopes were entertained by his parents for a speedy recovery. In a few months signs of the old trouble began to reappear. Doctors were summoned but could not give any ray of hope to the heart broken parents. After suffering intense agony for two months, he returned to him who planteth the flower in this world and plucketh it when it is ready to be harvested into a world of joy. Those watching him in his sickness at times would see the sweet face dawn up in agony and at others a look of perfect peace as through he were listening to sweet music or seeing lovely visions beyond the Portals, he was soon to enter. Such may have been the case, who can tell? He leaves to mourn their irreparable loss, his grief stricken parents, also three sisters, Doris, Jean and Glenn, and one brother, Wendell. The funeral which took place Friday, at the Presbyterian Cemetry, Tyne Valley, was very ket covered with flowers was gently lowered to its last resting place. The services at the home and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Colman, Rector of Port Hill. FRIDAY

RECEIPTS LARGE—The rummage sale conducted yesterday by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Protestant Orphanage was very successful, the receipts amounting to $306-65. The thanks of the auxiliary are extended to all those who helped in making it a success.

A VETERAN ELDER.—The Synod of the Maritime Provinces meeting here was honored by the presence of Mr. M. H. McKenzie of Rose Valley, P. E. I. representative Elder who has attained to the age of 97. He still is quite active and enjoyed all the Synod Sittings. He was billeted at the Morell Hotel during his stay in the city, and speaks highly of the hospitality extended to him while staying there.

FIRE AT SOUTHPORT.—Fire broke out yesterday afternoon at 1.30 in the home of Mr. Randall McInnis, Southport. The little home was burned to the ground. The high wind made it impossible for anything to be done. All that was saved was the kitchen stove and some pieces of furniture. The wind was blowing away from the barns otherwise they too would have been destroyed. The sympathy of the entire community no doubt goes out to Mr. McInnis in his loss, especially at this time of year.

The opening service at yesterday morning's sederunt of the Maritime Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada was conducted in Gaelic, this constituting an innovation. The service was deeply impressive, very beautiful and highly devotional. It was taken part in by Rev. A. D. MacKinnon of Whycocomagh, C. B., Rev. D. A. MacKinnon, Gairloch, Rev. M. N. McDonald, Boulardarie, ministers; by Mr. Donald MacDairmid, Boulardarie and Murdock H. MacKenzie, Bradalbane, Elders and by Angus N. MacIvor, Precentor, assisted by J. J. Graham.

Mr. Donald MacDairmid, (age 94), and Mr. Murdock H. MacKenzie, (age 96), were the two eldest members of the Synod.

The Moderator gave a graceful tribute of praise to their constant fidelity to the faith of their fathers. Mr. MacKenzie, in particular, had witnessed the erection of four successive church buildings in Bradalbane. Mr. Muir expressed the hope that they would still have many years of devoted service before them.

A great deal of business was transacted during the day, of which the following is a summary.

The Synod by resolution decided not to assume responsibility for the maintenance of the boys residence, Pictou Academy. However, it appointed a committee to take up the question with the board having control of its administration.

The Budget was presented, the allocation for the Synod being $55,000.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Synod at Stellarton.

The question of the representation of the Presbyterian Church on the board of management of the Maritime Home for Girls was discussed, and a law and legislative committee was appointed to safeguard the interests of the Presbyterian Church in legislation concerning this and other matters.

The reports of various committees were received and adopted. That our Sunday Schools showed a most gratifying increase in the number of pupils over last year; while their statistics indicated a steady increase each year since 1925.

Are You Ready When your Children Cry for it

BABY has little upsets at times. All your care cannot prevent them. But you can be prepared. Then you can do what any experienced nurse would do—what most physicians would tell you to do—give a few drops of plain Castoria. No sooner done than Baby is soothed; relief is a matter of moments. Yet you have eased your child without use of a single doubtful drug; Castoria is a vegetable product. So it's safe to use as often as an infant has any little pain you cannot pat away. And it's always ready for the crueler pangs of colic, or constipation, or diarrhea which must be checked without delay. Twenty-five million bottles were bought last year.
