British Violet Hazel

Those to whom the odor of Witch Hazel is disagreeable will find this preparation desirable, as the odor is that of Wood Violets.

This product is an efficacious remedy in cases of burns, bruises, cuts, insect bites, chilblains, sunburn, etc.

It is perfectly antiseptic and makes an excellent After Shave and Toilet Preparation—25c a bottle.

ISLAND PATRIOTIC FUND SUBSCRIPTIONS

Yesterday was somewhat of an off day so far as subscriptions were concerned, no doubt intending subscribers holding back till the end of the week. It is hoped to close the list on Saturday. In the Guardian of May 29 in crediting the handsome donations from the Women's Patriotic Association of Malpeque, the Guardian mentioned in error Bedeque. It should be stated that $88 of the $100 sent to the Red Cross was made at an entertainment given by the Women's Patriotic Association Malpeque. These loyal and patriotic ladies deserve the thanks and congratulations of all concerned.

YESTERDAY'S SUBSCRIPTIONS,

ANGLICAN SYNOD CONVENES IN HALIFAX

HALIFAX, June 2.—The thirty-eighth session of the Diocesan Synod opened yesterday with a celebration of the Holy Communion in All Saints Cathedral, His Grace the Archbishop being the celebrant.

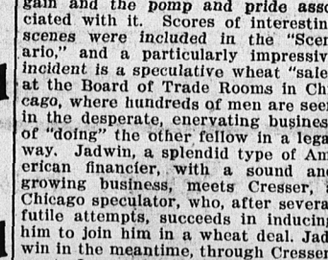
At 10 a.m. the first business meeting opened in St Paul's Hall, Canon Simpson, following the usual introductory routine business, presenting the divinity student fund report— a report which brought a number of interesting and strong addresses from the floor of the synod, and a very fine one from His Grace, who stated that while young priests from England were always welcome, he thought that the time had come when we should look within the diocese for the divinity students who are to be the priests of the future.

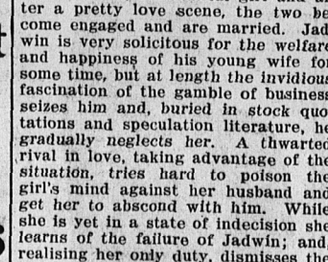
The report of the Diocesan Mission Board was the next subject of discussion. It brought out the fact that a number of the parishes do not make their collections as they are requested to do, with the result that there is a very considerable interference with the general business management of the fund.

His Grace called attention to the fact that Avon and Prince Edward Island deaneries have been the banner deaneries this year.

THE PEOPLE'S

Theatre-goers no doubt remember how huge a success was "The Man of the Hour," shown at the People's some time ago, when the house was almost inadequate to afford even standing room to the overwhelming crowds that endeavoured to see the picture. Equaly as good a picture in every respect as that, if not better than it, was the magnificent five-reel drama, "The Pit," put on at the People's Theatre last evening. The story is one of passion, from beginning to end,—the tender passion of love in the woman on the one hand, and the all-absorbing, overpowering passion of greed, on the other, greed for material gain and the pomp and pride associated with it. Scores of interesting scenes were included in the "Scenario," and a particularly impressive incident is a speculative wheat "sale" at the Board of Trade Rooms in Chicago, where hundreds of men are seen in the desperate, enervating business of "doing" the other fellow in a legal way. Jadwin, a splendid type of American financier, with a sound and growing business, meets Cresser, a Chicago speculator, who, after several futile attempts, succeeds in inducing him to join him in a wheat deal. Jadwin in the meantime, through Cresser, meets Laura, a beautiful girl and after a pretty love scene, the two become engaged and are married. Jadwin is very solicitous for the welfare and happiness of his young wife for some time, but at length the invidious fascination of the gamble of business seizes him and, buried in stock quotations and speculation literature, he gradually neglects her. A thwarted rival in love, taking advantage of the situation, tries hard to poison the girl's mind against her husband and get her to abscond with him. While she is yet in a state of indecision she learns of the failure of Jadwin; and, realising her only duty, dismisses the other man and devotes herself to consoling her broken husband. The denouement is highly dramatic. This is one of the best pictures ever shown here and no one should miss it. The other part of the programme was excellent.





PERSONALS

Miss Prim's Kindergarten in St. James Hall, 8 p.m.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. E. Macdonald arrived in Charlottetown last night by the Express from Liskdale, Ontario.

Mr. James Rodd, of the Marine Department, Ottawa, was a passenger to Georgetown yesterday morning.

Miss Ruth Huggan, who is training for a nurse in Boston, arrived in Charlotetown by the Express last night on a visit to her home here.

Gunner Hollis Rowe, Sydney Mines, arrived in Charlottetown by the Express last night on a visit to his home in this city.

Mrs. James MacNeil and Miss Fannie MacNutt, of this city, left yesterday morning for a trip to Halifax and the Annapolis Valley.

Mr. Harold Clay, Bridgetown, was among the passengers crossing on the Empress yesterday on his way to Western Canada.

Mr. Herbert Stewart was a passenger on the Empress yesterday on his way to Edmonton, where he will take a position on the teaching staff of the public school there.

Mr. John W. Trowsdale, Conway, is at present a patient in the P. E. I. Hospital where he underwent a successful operation for appendicitis. The Guardian is pleased to learn that Mr. Trowsdale is progressing favorably.

Mrs Duncan Finlayson, with her three children, arrived in Charlottetown on Tuesday evening from Quincy, Mass. While on the Island she will visit at the home of her father, Mr Alex. Balderson, Flat River, and also at the home of her father-in-law, Mr Angus D. Finlayson, Grand View.

Mr. A. P. Starr, Vice-President of John Starr Son & Co., Ltd., Halifax, paid The Guardian a pleasant visit yesterday. Mr. Starr was some years ago on the news staff of The Guardian and, later, on that of the Toronto News. Abandoning journalism for the more lucrative commercial field he became associated with his father in the above named firm. He has very pleasant recollections of Charlottetown and greatly enjoyed his brief visit to the city, where he has many friends. He leaves this afternoon for Summerside.

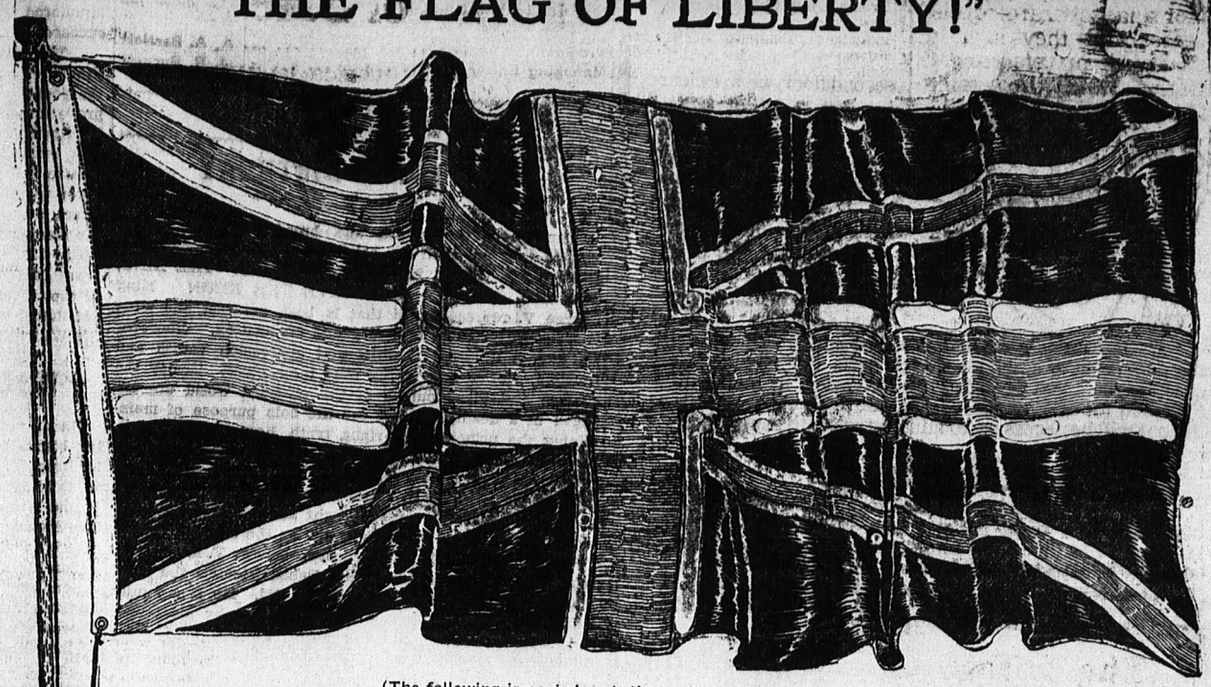
"Up with the Union Jack, boys,
And let the Nations see
The Flag which Britons hail with pride,
The Flag for which our fathers died,
The Flag we'll guard whate'er betide—
THE FLAG OF LIBERTY!"



(The following is copied verbatim as it appeared in daily press dispatches!)

No Gaiety On His Birthday is wish of His Majesty

Flags Should Be Flown But No Dinners Are To Be Given

"Ottawa, May 22nd---A message from Hon. Lewis Harcourt, Secretary of State for the Colonies, has been received by the Government in regard to the celebration of the King's birthday. The call states: "It is His Majesty's wish that on the occasion of His Majesty's birthday this year flags should be flown but no dinners, reviews, salutes or other celebrations should take place."

Instructions have been sent out by the Militia Department to officers commanding divisions and districts to carry out the King's wishes throughout their respective commands."

The distribution of British flags by this newspaper therefore comes at a most opportune time. Here is an opportunity to secure for the mere expense of distribution a full sized standard Union Jack which should be flung to the breeze from the house fronts of all patriotic Canadians as an evidence of loyalty to King and country, and to have available for celebrating other holidays—and those victories that ARE SURE TO COME! The outfit is complete with flag, jointed staff, halliard and metal socket for the window.

We strongly recommend the Complete $4 Outfit at $1.48 as most desirable (instead of the Flag alone at $1.10). With the complete $4 Outfit, you will at a moment's notice be able to display the Flag from any window, from the roof, or gable-end.
