A very pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday afternoon at the residence of J. A. Moore, Kent Street, when their eldest daughter Linda Irene was joined in wedlock to T. Whitfield Bentley, Kensington. Both the principals in this happy event are well known, the bride being a most popular young lady in this city and Mr. Bentley is a young man widely known over the Province. He is a son of the late G. W. W. Bentley, Kensington, and has two brothers in the legal profession who are well known here, viz:—William E., practicing in this city, and J. Augustus, member of a law firm in Western Canada. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen, who wore a costume of cream silk, with lace trimmings and the groomsmen was Arthur W. St. Kensington. The many presents received by the bride included a beautiful fern dish from the First Methodist Choir. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ezra Moore, who is a relative of the bride. After luncheon had been served the newly-wedded couple proceeded to the station where they left for Kensington, where they will in future reside. The Guardian extends hearty congratulations and best wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Bentley years of unalloyed happiness.
