For years, I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried "Fruit-a-lives" and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches".

KHAKI BOY HONORED

Notwithstanding the bad roads and inclement weather, quite a number assembled in Brookfield Hall, to bid farewell to their last recruit from that section, Mr. Daniel McL. Wood.

Mr. Chas. E. McDuff occupied the chair, and patriotic speeches were delivered by Messrs. L. Y. McLean, E. Johnston, B. Matheson, Robert McDuff, A. Beaton and others. Mr. Wood was presented with a handsome wrist watch and fountain pen by Miss Sadie E. McDuff on behalf of the people of Brookfield, and the following address read by Mr. Angus Beaton:

Brookfield, April 7, 1917.

Mr. Daniel McL. Wood, Dear friend.—Learning that you deemed it your duty to offer your services in defence of your country and that you are soon to depart for the front, we cannot let you go without giving you some token of our appreciation of your conduct.

We, who have known you from boyhood, have always found in your daily walk and conversation everything we would wish to find there; and we know that among all your schoolmates and associates there is not one who does not hold you in the highest esteem. The fact that you have given up a good position to serve your King and country tells us how deeply rooted your patriotism is, and we will never forget the sacrifice you have made.

Please accept these small presents, and may the God of battles guard you and guide you safely through the dangerous paths you have undertaken to follow; and when you safely home to your anxious parents and friends.

Yours in behalf of Brookfield School District.

Chas. E. McDuff, Samuel Johnston, Ernest Y. McLean.

Mr. Wood replied in a few well-chosen words, thanking his neighbors for their gift and address, and declaring that he wanted to do his bit. The meeting closed with singing, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and God Save the King.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WM. CUDMORE.

Phoebe Cudmore, wife of the late William Cudmore, Winloe, died at the residence of her son William H. Cudmore of Elm Avenue at 12 o'clock p. m. Saturday, 7th inst. She is survived by two sons W. H. Cudmore of this city and George Cudmore, Nihart, Montana, U. S.

MALCOLM DANIEL McLEAN.

On Sabbath the 18th March, Mr. and Mrs. George McLean, Lewis, were called upon to suffer the loss of their youngest child, Malcolm Daniel, aged eight months. From infancy he had not been well, but through the summer he grew stronger, and the parents hoped that a week before he died he took a cold to which he succumbed.

The sympathy of the community goes to the heart-stricken parents, who six years ago lost another bright child. I shall go to him but he will not return to me. The funeral services were conducted by their pastor, Rev. M. D. McLeod.

MR. JOSEPH BELL.

The death occurred in this city early Sunday morning of Mr. Joseph Bell of the firm of Messrs. Chamberlain & Bell, stonecutters. The late Mr. Bell had been in delicate health for several months, but was not confined to his bed. Early Sunday morning he became very weak, and a few hours afterwards passed away. There are left to mourn their loss a widow, three daughters, Misses Hilda, Florence and Gladys at home, and three sons, Russell, employed in the C.G.R. offices in Moncton, and Horace and Joseph at home. Also two brothers, Messrs. John H. and Charles Bell, of this city. The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 2.30 o'clock to the People's Cemetery. To the bereaved family The Guardian tenders its sympathy.

MR. JAMES McDONALD

There passed away to his reward a few days ago at Monticello at the old age of 81 years, Mr. James McDonald, a good and respected man of integrity and justice, and much regretted by his neighbors.
