

Office in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

The latest news, first of all.

C. C. Charlton, Souris, recently donated ten dollars worth of clothing to the Campbellton sufferers which has been duly acknowledged.

On looking down the river one day this week some of the residents of Montague were considerably surprised to see a gasoline launch approaching containing three women, and the remark "where is the man?" could be heard on every side. It proved to be the launch Unique in charge of Mrs. D. J. Stewart, who after spending the afternoon in Montague returned safely home to Aitkin's Ferry, which speaks volumes for both Mrs. Stewart's skill and running qualities of the Unique.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Willing Circle of the King's Daughters now have the memorial volume of Rev. Dr. Dobson's sermons ready for sale. It will make a very appropriate remembrance or gift to send to all your friends. 12-14dirt.

Blankets and Comfortables. Special value at Paton's. 9-14dirt.

All amounts for Guardian advertising and subscriptions in Montague and vicinity should be paid to W. A. Johnstone, agent, and in Souris and vicinity to A. J. McDonald, agent. 1-14dirt.

Among the many booths attracting a great deal of attention in the Exhibition Building is that of the Montague Furnishing Company, Limited, who have a tastily decorated and well-fitted booth up-stairs. There they display an article of universal utility, a hand-power pneumatic cleaner, which is of great interest to all who see it. This cleaner is exactly the same as the power machines only adapted for homes where electricity, etc., is not procurable. Then they have the famous North American sewing machine on show—an article that needs no praise from us. It will pay every visitor to the Exhibition to see this enterprising firm's exhibit. 9-21dirt.

The Ladies Home Journal, the Bridal Number, is now on sale at Carter's Bookstore. This is the number that may have been waiting for, and is an excellent one. Price only 10c per copy, by mail 14c 9-22dirt.
