Big Ben

The Biggest Thing in the Clock Business

Big Ben is the biggest thing today in the alarm clock business. He is only three years old, but he's already getting more work from the Dominion than any clock alive. In three years time, 6,000 Canadian dealers have adopted him. Nearly half of the families in Canada leave it to him to call them up in the morning; nearly half the families in Canada use him all day long to tell the right time by. He is really two good clocks in one—a crackerjack of a time-keeper and a crackerjack of an alarm.

Big Ben stands seven inches tall. He is triple nickel-plated and wears an inner vest of steel that insures him for life. His big, bold figures and hands are easy to read in the dim morning light. His large, comfortable keys almost wind themselves. He rings five minutes steadily or ten intermittently. His price $3.00 is easy to pay because his advantages are easy to see. He is sold in Prince Edward Island by the following jewelers:

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JUNE 29.

REVIEW.

THE VICTORIES OF FAITH.

GOLDEN TEXT.

"This is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith."—1 John 5: 4.

POINTED SUGGESTIONS.

By Rev. D. W. Snider.

Better learn how not to do things from the story of Jacob and Esau than try to cover their faults or minimize your own temptations to self-indulgence, or trickery, or greed. Reverence is natural where there is either a fear or a consciousness of the nearness of God. Whither can you flee from His presence? Therefore, be reverent and offer thy vows. Old grudges are hard to forget or conquer and old fears have haunting powers of resurrection. Such grudges and such fears, however, pass away when the face of God is seen in the face of man because they were begotten of wrongs between man and man.

The dreams of childhood and youth ought not to be discounted or discouraged because of the large place they picture for their future. If one fails to come to the standard of his dreams the disappointment is his; if he attains to the standard of his dreams the chagrin will belong to the one who chided him.

Helpfulness is the proof of quality in character. The kind of help one can offer is according to the measure of his ability. Whether one drives a nail for you or unravels a mystery, it matters not. Your gratitude is due to the willingness of the help you receive rather than to the nature of it.

Exalted position means exalted opportunity and exalted responsibility. Joseph measured to the height of each, and in so doing he became a model for rulers and statesmen throughout the centuries.

Reward comes to the faithful and retribution to those who have sown evil. Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

Love cannot be killed by distance or adverse circumstances. It never faileth. Its expression may be bottled like fruit, for years, but when the cork is lifted its juices are as fresh as the vintage from which they came. Blessed are the opportunities which afford the emotions of love.

Your purposes will stand the tests which others apply to them, or they are not honest. And honest purposes can abide the unfolding of disquieting conditions with serene confidence.

Love's choicest flower and fruit is forgiveness. The manner in which forgiveness is bestowed is the measure of one's culture and tact. Alas, that many ask so little and in a way so gross when they pray.

Old age in the way of righteousness is manhood's crown of glory. But Jacob had not as pleasant reflections before Pharaoh when he was asked his age as he would have had if his early life had cut out meanness and trickery.

Vicious practices are the accompaniment of selfish indulgence. They are unusually found running together to destruction. They that are at ease in Zion are they also that cause the seat of violence to come near. It is woe to them!

Enter ye in at the strait gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction. Joseph affords an example of the fulfillment of this promise: "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He will direct thy paths."

When "Work" Becomes "Labor"

There's Something Wrong,
Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Will Right It.

Thousands of Women
Feel Just Like This.

When it seems as if you simply could not bear up any longer it is high time to look for the cause of the trouble—and the remedy. In an astonishingly large number of cases the real cause of woman's misery is found to be constipation, and the remedy that always cures is Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Neglect of the daily movement of the bowels, so necessary to health, soon poisons the whole system from the impurities retained in the body. Headaches, indigestion, biliousness and lassitude follow, and often more serious female disorders are brought on or aggravated.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills not only regulate the bowels, but they stimulate kidneys and skin as well to throw off waste matter and purify the blood. The result is quickly apparent in the disappearance of the headaches and biliousness, and the return of health and vigor. Thousands of women all over the world owe their present good health to Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

The Tea Caddy

What's the reason for it? Why does any woman keep her tea in a Caddy, a closed box or jar? To keep it pure and good of course, to keep in the quality. Red Rose Tea is put up in 1 lb. and 1-2 lb. Sealed Air-tight Lead Packages for exactly the same reasons and the "Crimson Label" quality is sold at 30c. a lb. Like all Red Rose Tea, "Crimson Label" is a blend of the best Indian and Ceylon Teas. The former assures generous strength, the latter rare flavor for both of which all Red Rose blends are famed.

No loose Tea at or near 30c. a lb. is comparable with Red Rose—nor is it so cheap:

Because, retaining all its richness and flavor until you are ready to use it, it goes farther in the pot—makes more cups of tea.

Ask your grocer for Red Rose Tea. Should he be out of it at the moment he'll gladly get it for any good customer.

Sold only in sealed packages.
