Girl Guides

On my honour I promise to do To do my duty to GOD and the King
 To help other people at all times, and
 To obey the Guide Law.

Such was the promise made by 8 recruits in the First Kensington Company on St. Patrick's Day, when the Divisional Commissioner, Miss Carrie Holman, admitted them into the great sisterhood of Girl Guides, which comprises some two million girls throughout the world.
 Miss Holman reminded the girls of the seriousness of the Promise they had made, particularly the first clause, warning them that it was not easy to keep. The names of those admitted are: Doris Cousins, Theresa McNally, Genevieve Delaney, Eileen Profit, Marjorie Conrick, Irene MacDonald, Shirley Hughes and Jean Kelleff. There are now 34 enrolled Guides (one of whom will be absent for some time owing to prolonged illness) and recruits receive their badges were presented to P. L. Wilna Delaney and L. Lilly Hunter.

After the ceremony the First Kensington Brownies came to the hall and there was lots of fun playing games together. Madam Commissioner told a delightful story, then she hurried away to catch the evening train back to Summerside.

The girls are very busy practising for the concert which they, and the Brownies, hope to present. The programme includes recitations, folk songs, plays, songs, recitations, folk dancing and a Reading. The proceeds from this concert are to be used to purchase uniforms for the Guides and Brownies.

Scout
 News
 and Notices

A group of Lone Scouts has been organized at Grimstone, in the Magdalen Islands.

Count Paul Tekei, recently made Premier of Hungary, is Honorary Chief Scout of the Hungarian Boy Scout Association. Count Tekei was Camp Chief of the World Scout Jamboree held in Hungary in 1933, and was there presented with the British Scout Silver Wolf.

"In the Boy Scout Movement I think they have produced a better system of education than any Minister of Education has ever produced, and I have introduced features of the system into my schools."—Valentine Bell, Principal of Esters and Brixton Commercial Schools and member of National Fitness Council of England and Wales.

In Boy Scout circles news of the final dismemberment of Czecho-Slovakia by Germany brought special regret. It meant that Hitler would promptly kill Scouting in that little country, as he did in Austria. The Czech Scout contingents have in the past always been popular units at World Scout Jamborees. Their camp-craft displays have included many interesting and original ideas, and they have contributed colorful numbers to the folk dances and pageants. Their national Scout magazine, SKAUT JUNAK, has been one of the most attractive and best illustrated European Scout publications coming to Canada in exchange with the Canadian official Scout monthly. Its many beautifully reproduced photographs have pictured the finest types of boys, physically and mentally, camping, hiking in the mountains with pack on back, frequently spinning lariats acquired from Canadian and American Scouts. It is sad indeed to think that they have been sacrificed to the German god of belligerent intolerance; that under German pressure they may conceivably some day be directing Bren machine guns or heavy Skoda artillery against Canadian lads with whom they happily fraternized at international Scout gatherings.

There are 1,009,671 Boy Scouts in the British Empire.

There are 389,625 Scouts in England, 55,542 in Scotland, 15,915 in Wales and 9,052 in Ireland.

"I cannot think of any better education and training for the youth of Canada than the Scouting movement."—Hon. Gilbert Layton, Minister without Portfolio, Quebec.

London Sea Scouts having headquarters on the River Thames have enrolled in the London Authority's River Emergency Services, being organized to protect shipping in wartime. Their duties will include rescue work, and maintenance of communication by speed-boats and a series of visual signaling stations, in case of telephone disruption.

You know the progress we have made, and are making in Scouting.
 It is steady, definite and wholesome. I have often stated that the Boy Scouts Association represents the finest movement of its kind in the world to-day, and I sometimes wonder if the sentiments so often expressed of pity and sympathy for the youth of this generation are wise, or warranted. This country does not need to apologize for its youth.

We of the older generation are convinced that, in the main, our younger generation are deserving both of our respect and our confidence. In intelligence, in the appreciation of their obligations, and in their self-reliance they compare very favourably with any previous generation.

I like the practical idealism which is so typical of the mental attitude of our young men and women, and like you I refuse to think that they will not measure up to their responsibilities in a way which will merit and receive the admiration and respect of future generations. The fibre and the patriotism are there, and the principles and practices of the Boy Scouts constitute an asset of which the people of this Dominion are definitely conscious.—Sir Edward Beatty, at the Annual Montreal Patrol Leaders' Banquet.

This disease, received attention. A card of acknowledgement for the expression of sympathy was presented. Moved and seconded that for fruit be paid. The following committees were appointed: Sick, Program, Lunch, Roll Call to be answered next month with your "Favorite Power." The hostess served a delicious lunch. Meeting was brought to a close with a vote of thanks to the hostesses and the singing of the National Anthem.

Call For Peace

LONDON, March 20—(AP)—Dr.

 of Lords tonight a declaration for peace by world Christian unity under the leadership of Pope Pius XII.

NEGOTIATIONS STRIKE SNAG

MEXICO CITY, March 20—(AP) Donald Richberg, attorney for expropriated British and United States oil companies, said tonight that "practical difficulties and obstacles" had developed in the efforts to reach a settlement with the Mexican Government.

Because of the unexpected developments, Richberg said in a statement that "seemed to me fortunate" that engagements concerning other matters "compel me to return to Washington."

He explained this expression by saying the trip would afford him an opportunity to discuss the case with those "most deeply concerned." He referred to executives of the oil companies in the United States capital.

6TH CHARLOTTETOWN BROWNIE PACK

The 17th of March, St. Patrick's Day was the occasion for a delightful supper for the Brownies of the 6th Brownie Pack under the direction of Jean McLeure, Brown Owl, Acting Tawny Owl Annie Hudson, and their leaders, Jean Bevan and June Laird.

The District Commissioner, Mrs.
 Rowe, the guest of the Brownies surprised and pleased the children by bringing a supply of delicious Shamrock Cookies as a treat.

Before the supper was served games were played. The table was beautifully arranged with a pot of real Shamrock grown from a slip "that really came from the Emerald Isle," so the Brownies said, while at each place paper Shamrocks carried out the scheme.

A group of six Brownies set the table and another group waited on table, and after a sumptuous repast two more groups took charge, one to clear away and the other to wash the dishes.

As a fitting climax to a jolly evening the presentation of the Shamrock Cookies was presented to the District Commissioner.

A number of this Pack have already passed the second class tests and are looking forward to the presentation of badges in the near future.

This Company is holding its weekly meetings in the Troop Hall

The meeting on Friday night will begin at 7:15 sharp and please be on time. Guides, Captain and Leaders will participate in singing and knots at this meeting, so be prepared!
