

Week's News Budget for Our Saturday Subscribers

Monday

—ATTENDING ANNUAL MEETING—Mr. Peter G. Clark, of Summerside, left this morning for Ottawa, where he will attend the annual meeting of the Canadian National Live Stock Records and Breeders Association, which takes place on Thursday and Friday of this week. Mr. Clark is a director of the Association.—S.

WILL PROBATED—

Probate of the will of the late Senator Benjamin C. Prowse was granted in the Probate Court Friday to The Eastern Trust Company, Executor; right being reserved to the widow of the late Senator Prowse, who is at present absent from the Province, to be joined as Co-Executrix upon her return. After providing for certain charitable bequests to the Prince Edward Island Hospital and the Charlottetown Hospital, the Will directs that the greater portion of the estate is to be held in trust during the lifetime of the widow, after which the principal is directed to be divided among the children of the testator.

—ATTENDED DIRECTORS MEETING—

A meeting of the directors of the Canadian National Silver Fox Breeders' Association was held at their headquarters at Summerside on Friday last, when routine matters were discussed and attended to. Amongst directors attending the meeting from outside the Province were Mrs. Mabel Berry, of Delaona, Alberta; Mr. Matthew Snow, of Winnipeg; Mr. W. H. C. Ruthven, of Alliston, Ont.; Mr. L. McKenzie, of Truro, N. S.; Mr. L. T. Leman, Salisbury, N. B. The president, Mr. G. Shelton Sharp, Mr. Leman and Mr. Arnett are the delegates from the Association to attend the meeting of the Canadian Live Stock Records and Breeders' Association at Ottawa this week. On their way they will also attend the annual meeting of the Provincial Silver Fox Breeders Association at Quebec. Mrs. Berry and Mr. Snow will also attend the meeting. The party left on Saturday.—S.

Tuesday

NEW LIBRARY OPEN—The doors of the new Public Library were opened yesterday morning to the public, all the fiction from the Dods Library having been placed in the new building. A great many people availed themselves of the opportunity of securing new fiction, which is being released for circulation for the first time.

—FUNERAL OF MRS. JOSEPH J. GILLIS—

The funeral of Mrs. Joseph J. Gillis took place from her late residence at Summerside to St. Paul's Church on Saturday morning. Rev. J. J. MacDonald celebrated Requiem High Mass. The large number of friends who were at the funeral service testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in the R. C. Cemetery. Rev. Urban Gillis officiating at the grave. The pall bearers were Messrs W. B. McNeill, L. M. McNeill, John J. McNally, Fidele T. Gallant, Fidele Perry, William Gillis.—S.

CLERGYMAN ILL—

The many friends of Rev. William V. McDonald, parish priest of Hope River, regret to learn that he is ill at the City Hospital. His condition is not considered of a serious nature, and he hopes to be about again in a very few days.

ENJOYABLE MEETING—

An enjoyable evening was spent at the Conservative Women's Club last evening. The president, Mrs. H. H. Horne, presided. A very interesting address was given by Mr. W. C. S. McLure, M. L. A. Conservative candidate in the forthcoming federal election, on his recent trip to England.

TRANSFERRED—

Don Blackadar, of New Glasgow, teller of the Amherst Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, has left for Charlottetown, having been transferred to the Island capital. Mr. Blackadar has been in Amherst for more than a year and has made many business and social friends in the town.

—FUNERAL SERVICES—

The funeral of the late Mr. Joseph Currie, which left his residence on Water Street, Georgetown, on Monday, March 10th, was largely attended. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. O. Kiggins. The pall bearers were James Skinner, Ashley Allen, Chester Llewellyn, William Martell, Michael Burke and Angus MacLaren.

NEW LICENSE PLATES—

A number of new automobile license plates have already appeared on the cars in the streets of the city. The figures on the new plates are green in colour on a white background. Apart from the change in colouring the plates are exactly similar to those used last year. About twenty licenses have been taken out since March 1st.

ERECTING STEEL—

The site for the new Canadian National Hotel presents a picturesque scene, and one humming with activity as the giant derrick rears pillar after pillar like mast in a crowded harbour. It has been found that the footings of the piers in the furnace room have been built two feet too high, and it was necessary, last night, to chip them down to the proper level.

PASSED AWAY—

There died suddenly yesterday morning in the city Mrs. Herbert McLeod, nee Helen Diamond, age 29 years, a daughter of the late Charles and Mrs. Diamond, Winalee Road. She leaves to mourn one daughter Winnifred, age 5, and her sorrowing husband, also three sisters, Mrs. L. W. Ford, Minneapolis, Mrs. Levi Cudmore, city, Mrs. Edison Chandler, North Milton. Funeral Wednesday at 2.30 p. m. from her late residence to People's Cemetery.

DIES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA—

Captain David Bertram, 52, a native of Prince Edward Island, died recently at Kelowna, B. C. When most men are thinking about retiring, Captain Bertram decided to emigrate to the west, and he left Prince Edward Island to take up ranching in Saskatchewan. He stayed there from 1892 until 1905, when he moved to Kelowna. He served in the 82nd Regiment and took part in the Northwest Rebellion. He is survived by five daughters and two sons, all living in the west.

WEDDING BELLS—

A quiet but pretty wedding of interest to Charlottetown people was solemnized at the Church of St. Charles Borromeo, Detroit, Mich., on Monday, March 4th, when Rev. Fr. Haney united in marriage Frances Beatrice, daughter of James A. MacMillan, of Charlottetown, and John E. Connolly, son of Mrs. John Connolly, of Sydney, N. S. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mulcahey, of Sydney. The bride, who looked very winsome, was attired in a gown of chocolate colored crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid was becomingly gowned in old rose crepe with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of orchid sweet peas. After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate friends of the young couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mulcahey. Prior to her marriage the bride who was a valued member of the staff of the Maritime Stationers, Ltd., was the guest of honor at several pleasing functions. The groom is a former well known Maritime newspaper man. Many gifts of linen, cut glass and silver testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace of pearls and to the bridesmaid, an amethyst rosary and to the groomsmen, a fountain pen. After a short wedding trip the young couple will reside in Detroit, where the groom is a member of the staff of the Hudson Motor Car Co.

BIRTHDAY PARTY—

An interesting event took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Vincent, West Devon, when their daughter, Margaret, was celebrated in the birthday anniversary of Mr. John Dalziel, of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Dalziel have been worthy and respected citizens of the community for a great number of years. Some eighteen or twenty neighbors and friends gathered to wish Mr. Dalziel many happy returns and to express the hope that he and his amiable partner, Mrs. Dalziel, might enjoy a measure of good health to be able to all spend many more happy evenings together. An address was read and some appropriate remarks offered. Mrs. Blake Wood made the presentation in the form of a well filled purse as a token of good will from those present. This was followed by singing "For They're Jolly Good Fellows," music and social converse, after which the choicest refreshments were served including a beautiful birthday cake, prepared by Mrs. J. Beaton, furnished a delightful evening's entertainment, which was brought to a close by the singing of "Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgot."

HAD DELIGHTFUL VISIT—

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Munn, Marshfield, have returned from a two and one half months' visit to Southern California and San Francisco, returning by the coast to Vancouver. From there, they visited Chilliwack in the Fraser Valley, a splendid farming country and Pentiction, the centre of the fruit growing industry. They also visited Calgary and Lethbridge, Alberta, where Mrs. Munn's brother, Stewart MacEachern, resides. They met many Island friends all of whom are doing well. The weather was ideal and the wonderful and varied scenery combined with the cordial welcome from their many friends, made a delightful visit.

—ISLANDER DIES IN WINNIPEG—

There passed away at the Grace Hospital, Winnipeg, Manitoba, on January 8th, 1930, Allan H. MacNeill son of the late William C. and Mrs. MacNeill, Cavendish, P. E. I. He was born at Cavendish on April 24th, 1865, where he spent his boyhood, later moving to Spring Valley, and Malpeque, where he farmed for a number of years. In 1917 he moved with his family to Winnipeg where he resided till the time of his death. For the past few years he had not been in good health and the end came peacefully on the above date. He leaves to mourn his wife, formerly Miss Jane Adams, New London, two daughters, and one son and several grand children, two brothers, Malcolm and Hamilton MacNeill on the old homestead in Cavendish. Two sisters, Mrs. James S. Bentley, Kensington, and Mrs. George H. Robertson, Mayfield, to all of whom sincere sympathy will be extended in their sad bereavement.

Quaint poems of William Henry Drummond, the great Canadian poet recited in the French Canadian dialect by Mrs. F. S. Wilkins, talented elocutionist, a feast of music in piano solos by Mr. Walter McNeill, violin solos by Miss Kathleen Hornby, vocal solos by Mrs. J. A. Lawson, and a solo, quartette and chorus by Mrs. Lawson and the St. James Church C. G. T., constituted a much enjoyed program of "An Evening with Drummond," at St. James Church Hall last night.

The poems of Drummond were rendered by Mrs. Wilkins with pleasing effect and with most careful attention to accentuation, to articulation, and to the dramatic. The personality of the gifted elocutionist seemed to flow in an undercurrent through each of her carefully chosen numbers.

THE P. E. I. MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION met in its monthly session in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Church, Tuesday, March 11th, at 10.30 o'clock.

The President, Rev. H. R. Grant, was in the chair. Rev. H. W. Johnson of Milton, led the devotional period. He gave a lenten message. The minutes having been read and adopted, the association proceeded at once to the report of the committee on the conducting of funerals. This committee recommended that the association do all in its power to encourage the people to use the church buildings for funerals rather than their own houses. It also recommended that the association adopt a uniform ritual for the funeral service. It was also thought advisable that the clergy do all that was in their power to discourage Sunday funerals. At 12.15 o'clock dinner was served in the Hall of Trinity Church. After dinner little details were attended to and the association adjourned.

—DEATH OF MR. SYLVAN RICHARDS OF MONT CARMEL—

There passed away on Sunday in the Prince County Hospital Mr. Sylvan Richards of Mont Carmel at the age of 68 years. Mr. Richards had not been well for some time and entered the Prince County Hospital about ten days ago. On Saturday an operation was performed from which Mr. Richards did not rally. The deceased was a native of Mont Carmel, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lemang Richards and was well and favorably known in the district and will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends. His wife predeceased him about five months ago. There were no children from the marriage. The following brothers and sisters are left to mourn, namely: Charles L. and Peter of Mont Carmel; Joseph L. of St. John, N. B.; and John L. of Moncton, N. B.; Mrs. Narcisse Gallant, Mrs. Joseph Arsenault and Mrs. Stanislaus Galant, all of Mont Carmel, to all of whom sincere sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Tuesday from his residence to the Church and Cemetery at Fifteen Point. Rev. Theodore Gallant officiating. Mr. Joseph Richards of Summerside is a nephew of the deceased and attended the funeral of his uncle.—S.

—WEDDING BELLS—

An interesting event took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Vincent, West Devon, when their daughter, Margaret, was celebrated in the birthday anniversary of Mr. John Dalziel, of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Dalziel have been worthy and respected citizens of the community for a great number of years. Some eighteen or twenty neighbors and friends gathered to wish Mr. Dalziel many happy returns and to express the hope that he and his amiable partner, Mrs. Dalziel, might enjoy a measure of good health to be able to all spend many more happy evenings together. An address was read and some appropriate remarks offered. Mrs. Blake Wood made the presentation in the form of a well filled purse as a token of good will from those present. This was followed by singing "For They're Jolly Good Fellows," music and social converse, after which the choicest refreshments were served including a beautiful birthday cake, prepared by Mrs. J. Beaton, furnished a delightful evening's entertainment, which was brought to a close by the singing of "Should Auld Acquaintance be Forgot."

—WEDDING BELLS—

The formal opening of the third session of the 41st General Assembly of Prince Edward Island took place yesterday accompanied by the usual ceremonial and colorful military display. The function was performed by His Honour Lieutenant Governor Heartsy, who was attended by a mounted travelling escort of fourteen troopers from the Prince Edward Island Light Horse in command of Lieut. E. W. Johnson of Long River and Lieut. J. Morris of this city. The escort was in four sections. Two outsiders preceded the first carriage and the same the second. Two officers rode on either side of the third carriage immediately followed by six riders and the latter at a distance of thirty feet by two rear riders. The troopers as usual carried lances.

—WEDDING BELLS—

The Guard of Honor comprising one hundred men was supplied by A Company of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders. The Guard was in command of Major T. B. Rogers with Lieut. C. Campbell and Lieut. W. Reid. The Guard was accompanied by the Canadian Legion Band which played suitable selections for the occasion.

HALIFAX WEDDING—

The marriage took place in Saint Mary's Cathedral, Halifax, of Miss Lily Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry, Charlottetown, to Ambrose Atkins, linyote operator of the Halifax Herald and formerly of Charlottetown on Monday morning. The ceremony being performed by Rev. Father Stone. The bride wore a navy blue georgette dress with hat and shoes to match and carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The attendants were Miss Nora Burke and Robert Creighton. The bridesmaid also wore blue georgette and an egg shell hat. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a sapphire pendant and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. The wedding breakfast was served at the Carleton Hotel. In the evening Miss N. C. Brown, 51 South Park street, entertained in honor of the bride and groom. The rooms were decorated with daffodils and ferns and the presents received were numerous and beautiful and included silverware and linen. (Before removing to Halifax Mrs. Atkins was employed as accountant with N. Rattembury Ltd., of this city while Mr. Atkins was employed as linyote operator and is a son of the late Simon Atkins and Mrs. Atkins of this city.)

Friday

STEEL WORK PROGRESSING—Three eight ton girders have been hoisted into position in the frame work of the new Canadian National Hotel. The work of steel erection has progressed smoothly and without a hitch so far. Girders are now being put in place on the second story. Riveting will probably not begin before Saturday. Crowds gather each afternoon to watch the derrick hoist the pieces of steel into place, and to see the workers as they move through the maze of framework with sure-footed swiftness.

ISLANDER, SECRETARY-GENERAL—

Mr. John E. Andrew, Charlottetown Foyalty, student at King's College, Halifax, held the position of Secretary-General of the Intercollegiate Model League of Nations held at Halifax recently. The very efficient arrangements which made the Model League a great success were largely the work of Mr. Andrew. This Assembly is a replica of the Geneva League and delegates of the different colleges in the Maritimes represent the governments of the various nations in the League. Mr. W. S. MacNutt of Charlottetown, student at King's College, represented Italy and put forward his country's views on disarmament. Mr. Andrew, who is a brilliant student, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Andrew, Charlottetown.

At 2.45 p. m. the Guard of Honor left the Drill Hall, proceeded up Kent Street, to Queen along Queen to Richmond and the Parliament Building. Five minutes later His Honor left his residence at Edgewater. In the first carriage was J. Nicholson Usher of the Black Rod; in the second were His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and Col. U. G. Dawson, oficer commanding the Prince Edward Island Highland Brigade, in the third were Lt.-Col. J. P. Hooper, senior aide-de-camp of His Honor, Lieut. George A. Buntain, naval aide, and His Honor's Private Secretary, Capt. P. S. Fielding.

These carriages proceeded by way of Grafton to Queen and along Richmond to the Building. A salute of fifteen guns was fired from the Park Roadway by a detachment from the 8th Medium Battery under command of Major P. W. MacNevin with Lieut. Karl Kelly. The first gun was fired at 2.53 as His Honor entered the precincts of the House.

Before the Lieutenant Governor entered the House the members having taken their seats with the Speaker in the chair, the Clerk read the Proclamation calling the House together. The Speaker read a message from the Lieutenant Governor's Private Secretary stating that His Honor would arrive at 3 p. m. to open the House. The Speaker then left the Chair. Just as the City Clock was striking three the Lieutenant Governor entered the House preceded by the Sergeant-at-Arms.

Thursday

The annual meeting of the Temperance Alliance of Prince Edward Island took place yesterday in the Y. M. C. A. with the president Mr. Thomas Moysse, Bedeque, in the chair. The first session was held at 11 a. m. and the second at 1.30 p. m. Both were fairly well attended. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. A. J. Reynolds, Bedeque. The secretary, Rev. J. M. McLeod, read the minutes of the last annual meeting which were adopted as read. The president in his report complained that at the plebiscite there was an evident lack of interest as shown by the small vote polled and the unsatisfactory majority. He deplored what he described as the subtle propaganda of the brewers and distillers in the press and by other means. A number of recommendations were also embodied in the report of a committee subsequently appointed, which were unanimously adopted.

PROPOSED HOTEL—

The probability of an up-to-date summer hotel being provided at Georgetown is now being discussed by the people of the eastern capital. Negotiations have been underway with a view of securing "Highlands," the residence of the late Hon. Dr. A. MacKinnon. "Highlands" which is admirably located commanding a fine view of the beautiful harbor and its inflowing rivers, would be a very suitable building, after certain changes are made for hotel purposes. There is also a proposal to secure some of the adjoining land owned by other parties for a golf course.

—PRETTY WEDDING—

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening at 8.30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Woodside of Summerside, when their daughter, Miss John Ernest Morrison, son of the late Mr. D. R. Morrison of Summerside. The marriage ceremony was performed under a beautiful pink and white arch. The living room was also decorated with lovely pink and white carnations and ferns. Rev. W. H. Harding was the officiating clergyman. The bride, who looked charming in a lovely gown of orchid corquette with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink carnations, was given in marriage by her father. The bride and groom were unattended. Miss Mildred Woodside, sister of the bride, played the Wedding March. After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served to the immediate relatives and friends who were present at the wedding, after which the happy young couple left for a short honeymoon trip to the Mainland. In their return Mr. and Mrs. Woodside will reside in Charlottetown. The Guardian joins a host of friends in wishing them every happiness and prosperity. S.

—DEATH OF MRS. CAROLINE FORD—

The death occurred at her home in Mount Pleasant on March 1st, of Mrs. Caroline Ford, at the age of 72 years, after an illness of only five weeks. The deceased lady lived in Mount Pleasant for thirty years, going there from Moncton, N. B., and was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of the Anglican Church and up to a few years before her death, was very active in the welfare of the church. There are left to mourn four sons and three daughters, namely, Alexander, James, Frederick and Beecher, all of Mount Pleasant; Mrs. Westley Penwarden, of Summerside and Mrs. Janie Ramsay of the U. S. A., to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on March 4th, from her late residence to St. John's Church and Cemetery at Ellerslie, Rev. H. R. Coleman officiating. Interment was in the family plot beside her late husband, who predeceased her five years ago.—S.

RECEIVED SAD NEWS—

Mr. J. J. Storey, grocer of this city has received the sad news by telegram of the death in Cambridge, Mass., of his sister, Libby, Mrs. Wallace Blackett. The deceased, who has been in poor health for several months was showing signs of recovery, when a day or two ago she took a turn for the worse, and gradually grew weaker, her spirit passing away at 5 o'clock on the evening of March 13th. Mr. Storey is at present waiting for an answer to a wire which will advise him whether the body will be brought home for burial or not. If so notice will be given to the press.

—AGED RESIDENT—

Mr. Leo Hart who is believed to have attained the age of 100 years passed away at his home in Dunblane, Lot 8, on Wednesday, March 12th. The deceased came to this section from the eastern part of the Island over half a century ago. He lived in Mount Royal for a time and later moved to Dunblane District. A sad feature of the case is that his daughter, Mrs. Wellington McWilliams of West Cape is now in the Prince County Hospital receiving treatment for a fractured hip which she sustained when the sleigh in which she was driving home from her father's home was overturned and the occupants thrown out. Mrs. McWilliams and her brother, Mr. Theo. Hart, are the only members of the family who are living on the Island. Interment will be made in the Presbyterian Church at West Point, but definite arrangements will not be made until relatives, who have been notified by telegraph, of Mr. Hart's death, have been heard from.—O.

—DEATH OF MRS. CAROLINE FORD—

The death occurred at her home in Mount Pleasant on March 1st, of Mrs. Caroline Ford, at the age of 72 years, after an illness of only five weeks. The deceased lady lived in Mount Pleasant for thirty years, going there from Moncton, N. B., and was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of the Anglican Church and up to a few years before her death, was very active in the welfare of the church. There are left to mourn four sons and three daughters, namely, Alexander, James, Frederick and Beecher, all of Mount Pleasant; Mrs. Westley Penwarden, of Summerside and Mrs. Janie Ramsay of the U. S. A., to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on March 4th, from her late residence to St. John's Church and Cemetery at Ellerslie, Rev. H. R. Coleman officiating. Interment was in the family plot beside her late husband, who predeceased her five years ago.—S.

WEDDING BELLS—

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica at 5 o'clock a. m. on February 25, 1930. The participating parties were Miss Annie MacInnis, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald MacInnis, of Southport, and Mr. Frederick A. Cole, employee of the Island Telephone Co., and only son of Mrs. Margaret Cole and the late J. W. Cole, of Kensington, now residing in this city. The bride looked charming in a gown of madeline blue silk flat crepe with flesh georgette and lace trimming, over which she wore a navy chinchilla coat, with fur collar and navy hat to match. Miss Mable Malone acted as bridesmaid, and wore a rose blege canton silk gown, with a wine marvella coat with hat to match, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Albert Kearney, also an employee of the Island Telephone Company. After a delicious wedding breakfast, which was served at the home of the groom, the happy young couple left on the early train, on a short honeymoon trip. Previous to her wedding, the bride was showered twice, once at the home of Mrs. John Caswell, at Southport, and again at the future home of the bride, in Charlottetown. The gifts, which were numerous and expensive, consisting of cut glass, silver, linen, money, etc., showed the popularity of the young couple.

RECEIVED SAD NEWS—

Mr. J. J. Storey, grocer of this city has received the sad news by telegram of the death in Cambridge, Mass., of his sister, Libby, Mrs. Wallace Blackett. The deceased, who has been in poor health for several months was showing signs of recovery, when a day or two ago she took a turn for the worse, and gradually grew weaker, her spirit passing away at 5 o'clock on the evening of March 13th. Mr. Storey is at present waiting for an answer to a wire which will advise him whether the body will be brought home for burial or not. If so notice will be given to the press.

—AGED RESIDENT—

Mr. Leo Hart who is believed to have attained the age of 100 years passed away at his home in Dunblane, Lot 8, on Wednesday, March 12th. The deceased came to this section from the eastern part of the Island over half a century ago. He lived in Mount Royal for a time and later moved to Dunblane District. A sad feature of the case is that his daughter, Mrs. Wellington McWilliams of West Cape is now in the Prince County Hospital receiving treatment for a fractured hip which she sustained when the sleigh in which she was driving home from her father's home was overturned and the occupants thrown out. Mrs. McWilliams and her brother, Mr. Theo. Hart, are the only members of the family who are living on the Island. Interment will be made in the Presbyterian Church at West Point, but definite arrangements will not be made until relatives, who have been notified by telegraph, of Mr. Hart's death, have been heard from.—O.

—DEATH OF MRS. CAROLINE FORD—

The death occurred at her home in Mount Pleasant on March 1st, of Mrs. Caroline Ford, at the age of 72 years, after an illness of only five weeks. The deceased lady lived in Mount Pleasant for thirty years, going there from Moncton, N. B., and was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of the Anglican Church and up to a few years before her death, was very active in the welfare of the church. There are left to mourn four sons and three daughters, namely, Alexander, James, Frederick and Beecher, all of Mount Pleasant; Mrs. Westley Penwarden, of Summerside and Mrs. Janie Ramsay of the U. S. A., to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on March 4th, from her late residence to St. John's Church and Cemetery at Ellerslie, Rev. H. R. Coleman officiating. Interment was in the family plot beside her late husband, who predeceased her five years ago.—S.

WEDDING BELLS—

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica at 5 o'clock a. m. on February 25, 1930. The participating parties were Miss Annie MacInnis, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald MacInnis, of Southport, and Mr. Frederick A. Cole, employee of the Island Telephone Co., and only son of Mrs. Margaret Cole and the late J. W. Cole, of Kensington, now residing in this city. The bride looked charming in a gown of madeline blue silk flat crepe with flesh georgette and lace trimming, over which she wore a navy chinchilla coat, with fur collar and navy hat to match. Miss Mable Malone acted as bridesmaid, and wore a rose blege canton silk gown, with a wine marvella coat with hat to match, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Albert Kearney, also an employee of the Island Telephone Company. After a delicious wedding breakfast, which was served at the home of the groom, the happy young couple left on the early train, on a short honeymoon trip. Previous to her wedding, the bride was showered twice, once at the home of Mrs. John Caswell, at Southport, and again at the future home of the bride, in Charlottetown. The gifts, which were numerous and expensive, consisting of cut glass, silver, linen, money, etc., showed the popularity of the young couple.

—DEATH OF MRS. CAROLINE FORD—

The death occurred at her home in Mount Pleasant on March 1st, of Mrs. Caroline Ford, at the age of 72 years, after an illness of only five weeks. The deceased lady lived in Mount Pleasant for thirty years, going there from Moncton, N. B., and was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of the Anglican Church and up to a few years before her death, was very active in the welfare of the church. There are left to mourn four sons and three daughters, namely, Alexander, James, Frederick and Beecher, all of Mount Pleasant; Mrs. Westley Penwarden, of Summerside and Mrs. Janie Ramsay of the U. S. A., to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on March 4th, from her late residence to St. John's Church and Cemetery at Ellerslie, Rev. H. R. Coleman officiating. Interment was in the family plot beside her late husband, who predeceased her five years ago.—S.

WEDDING BELLS—

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica at 5 o'clock a. m. on February 25, 1930. The participating parties were Miss Annie MacInnis, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald MacInnis, of Southport, and Mr. Frederick A. Cole, employee of the Island Telephone Co., and only son of Mrs. Margaret Cole and the late J. W. Cole, of Kensington, now residing in this city. The bride looked charming in a gown of madeline blue silk flat crepe with flesh georgette and lace trimming, over which she wore a navy chinchilla coat, with fur collar and navy hat to match. Miss Mable Malone acted as bridesmaid, and wore a rose blege canton silk gown, with a wine marvella coat with hat to match, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Albert Kearney, also an employee of the Island Telephone Company. After a delicious wedding breakfast, which was served at the home of the groom, the happy young couple left on the early train, on a short honeymoon trip. Previous to her wedding, the bride was showered twice, once at the home of Mrs. John Caswell, at Southport, and again at the future home of the bride, in Charlottetown. The gifts, which were numerous and expensive, consisting of cut glass, silver, linen, money, etc., showed the popularity of the young couple.

—DEATH OF MRS. CAROLINE FORD—

The death occurred at her home in Mount Pleasant on March 1st, of Mrs. Caroline Ford, at the age of 72 years, after an illness of only five weeks. The deceased lady lived in Mount Pleasant for thirty years, going there from Moncton, N. B., and was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of the Anglican Church and up to a few years before her death, was very active in the welfare of the church. There are left to mourn four sons and three daughters, namely, Alexander, James, Frederick and Beecher, all of Mount Pleasant; Mrs. Westley Penwarden, of Summerside and Mrs. Janie Ramsay of the U. S. A., to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on March 4th, from her late residence to St. John's Church and Cemetery at Ellerslie, Rev. H. R. Coleman officiating. Interment was in the family plot beside her late husband, who predeceased her five years ago.—S.

RECEIVED SAD NEWS—

Mr. J. J. Storey, grocer of this city has received the sad news by telegram of the death in Cambridge, Mass., of his sister, Libby, Mrs. Wallace Blackett. The deceased, who has been in poor health for several months was showing signs of recovery, when a day or two ago she took a turn for the worse, and gradually grew weaker, her spirit passing away at 5 o'clock on the evening of March 13th. Mr. Storey is at present waiting for an answer to a wire which will advise him whether the body will be brought home for burial or not. If so notice will be given to the press.

—AGED RESIDENT—

Mr. Leo Hart who is believed to have attained the age of 100 years passed away at his home in Dunblane, Lot 8, on Wednesday, March 12th. The deceased came to this section from the eastern part of the Island over half a century ago. He lived in Mount Royal for a time and later moved to Dunblane District. A sad feature of the case is that his daughter, Mrs. Wellington McWilliams of West Cape is now in the Prince County Hospital receiving treatment for a fractured hip which she sustained when the sleigh in which she was driving home from her father's home was overturned and the occupants thrown out. Mrs. McWilliams and her brother, Mr. Theo. Hart, are the only members of the family who are living on the Island. Interment will be made in the Presbyterian Church at West Point, but definite arrangements will not be made until relatives, who have been notified by telegraph, of Mr. Hart's death, have been heard from.—O.

—DEATH OF MRS. CAROLINE FORD—

The death occurred at her home in Mount Pleasant on March 1st, of Mrs. Caroline Ford, at the age of 72 years, after an illness of only five weeks. The deceased lady lived in Mount Pleasant for thirty years, going there from Moncton, N. B., and was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of the Anglican Church and up to a few years before her death, was very active in the welfare of the church. There are left to mourn four sons and three daughters, namely, Alexander, James, Frederick and Beecher, all of Mount Pleasant; Mrs. Westley Penwarden, of Summerside and Mrs. Janie Ramsay of the U. S. A., to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral was held on March 4th, from her late residence to St. John's Church and Cemetery at Ellerslie, Rev. H. R. Coleman officiating. Interment was in the family plot beside her late husband, who predeceased her five years ago.—S.

WEDDING BELLS—

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica at 5 o'clock a. m. on February 25, 1930. The participating parties were Miss Annie MacInnis, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald MacInnis, of Southport, and Mr. Frederick A. Cole, employee of the Island Telephone Co., and only son of Mrs. Margaret Cole and the late J. W. Cole, of Kensington, now residing in this city. The bride looked charming in a gown of madeline blue silk flat crepe with flesh georgette and lace trimming, over which she wore a navy chinchilla coat, with fur collar and navy hat to match. Miss Mable Malone acted as bridesmaid, and wore a rose blege canton silk gown, with a wine marvella coat with hat to match, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Albert Kearney, also an employee of the Island Telephone Company. After a delicious wedding breakfast, which was served at the home of the groom, the happy young couple left on the early train, on a short honeymoon trip. Previous to her wedding, the bride was showered twice, once at the home of Mrs. John Caswell, at Southport, and again at the future home of the bride, in Charlottetown. The gifts, which were numerous and expensive, consisting of cut glass, silver, linen, money, etc., showed the popularity of the young couple.

—DEATH OF MRS. CAROLINE FORD—

The death occurred at her home in Mount Pleasant on March 1st, of Mrs. Caroline Ford, at the age of 72 years, after an illness of only five weeks. The deceased lady lived in Mount Pleasant for thirty years, going there from Moncton, N. B., and was very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a devoted member of the Anglican Church and up to a few