HIS LORDSHIP'S BEARD

A certain peer, who had a very long and very bushy beard, had dismissed his valet for the night. Shortly afterward, however, he was much annoyed to hear peals of laughter from below, and called back the man to explain. The valet answered that it was just a little joke; but his lordship would have none of it, and demanded the details, angrily.

"Well," admitted the man, with reluctance, "it was really a little game we were having, my lord."

"What game?"

"Well, my lord, a kind of guessing game."

"Don't be a fool, Waters! I rang for you in order to get an explanation. What guessing game were you playing? Guessing what?"

"We blindfolded the cook, to tell the truth, my lord, and then one of us kissed her, and she had to guess who it was. The footman held the mop up and she kissed it, and then cried out: 'Oh, your lordship! How dare you!'"—Tit-Bits.

"Do you like that new model full loose Overcoat, double breasted—heavy soft, Shetland-wide collar adjustable to two or three different styles, belt all round? We have it here—and it will fit you better than most custom goods and cost you at least Ten Dollars Less. See it before you buy your fall Overcoat. Moore & McLeod, 1853-10-2M31.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—Rev. J. F. Floyd will preach on the following subjects Sunday in the Central Christian Church, morning, "The Unpardonable Sin," Evening, "The Light of the World."

"INTERESTING LECTURE.—On Tuesday evening Rev. Dr. Shearer, Sec'y of the Board of Social Service and Evangelism of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, gave an unusually interesting illustrated lecture on the work of the Board in the Presbyterian Church of Souris. The views presented added very much to the vivid descriptions given of the various phases of the work. When speaking of settlement work the speaker referred more than once to the excellent service rendered by Miss Hazel Sterns, as food expert in Chalmers House, Montreal. When in Souris, Dr. Shearer was entertained at The Manse."

POLICE COURT.—At the Charlottetown Police Court this morning, Patrick Quinn, on a charge of drunkenness was fined $10 or 30 days.

HOCKEY TALK.—Looking better than ever and in the pink of condition, "Cork" Norman, who is well known in Charlottetown, once a resident of Moncton, but now a drummer for a well known Halifax sporting goods firm is in the city for a few days says a Moncton Exchange. No, it's not a visit, strictly business. Recognized to be one of the best Maritime Provinces bred hockey players, "Cork" has always occupied an enviable position in hockey circles. Last year, owing to business not having trouble with his leg, which was injured in an accident, "Cork" did not appear, although he was signed up by the Sydney Millionaires. It is expected, however, that the "little ray of sunshine" will be back in the game this winter and the team that secures his services will be getting one of the best players that has ever donned a uniform in the M. P. H. A. league and that is saying something.

MACDOWELL-HOWLETT.—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Howlett, Annandale, was the scene of a very happy event on Thursday evening (Sept. 19th), when their only daughter, Miss Bertha A. was united in marriage to Mr. Jack MacDowell of Sydney, Mines, N. S., by Rev. C. O. Howlett of Dewisville, N. B. (brother of the bride). The bride looked exceedingly nice in her beautiful dress of Cream Satin Strip Voile, with veil and orange blossoms, and was attended by Miss Jennie Norton, the bridesmaid being Mr. Marple Howlett. A bountiful supper was served in the dining-room to upwards of seventy guests. The many beautiful presents, received, including cut glass silverware, checks and gold, go to show the high esteem in which the young couple were held. The grooms present to the bride was a beautiful gold bracelet. The bride's travelling suit is of brown Velvet Voile, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. MacDowell leaves for their new home in Sydney Mines, followed by the very best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy married life. (Mr. MacDowell was formerly a resident of Glasgow, Scotland.)
