Special Services at Baptist Church

The Evangelistic meetings at the Baptist Church continue to be largely attended and of deep interest. Last evening the service commenced at 7.30 with a bright, inspiring song service in which the congregation joined heartily.

After prayer by the pastor, Rev C. R. Freeman the evening address was delivered by Rev. E. P. Calder. His subject, The Church, was treated in his usual vividly illuminating style. He pointed out that the church stands for Gad's claim upon man—His right of sovereignty, His right to worship, to devotion, to the surrender of our spirits to Him.

The church stands for man's claim upon God. Man's claim for help, for inspiration, for redemption. The Church stands for man's claim upon man. Jesus put his gospel into three words—Father, Redeemer, Brother.

In this light the church is sufficient to meet the institutional needs of the world.

He closed with a deeply earnest plea to all to follow the Master in his programme for the world's salvation.

This evening Mr. Calder will deliver a sermon on "What have you gained or lost?"

COAL TO BE CHEAPER—Mr. S. George Davis, General Sales Agent for the Inverness Railway and Coal Company, Inverness C. B., arrived in Charlottetown last night Mr. Davis in conversation with a Guardian representative stated that owing to the embargo placed on coal last August and the closing down of the steel plant at Sydney the Inverness mine like many other mines in Nova Scotia had difficulty in disposing of the output and this brought about financial difficulties which made it impossible to operate. The Inverness mine was however, only closed for a few days and it is now under new management and is working three to five days per week. Word has been received from Ottawa that the Dominion Government will place the Canadian Merchant Marine Steamers, not otherwise engaged, in the coal carrying trade at a low rate of freight which will enable the Nova Scotia mines to market their coal in the upper provinces in competition with the United States. It will be of interest to the local dealers and consumers to learn that the famous Inverness coal will be somewhat cheaper upon the opening of navigation.

A Merciless Exposure Of Govt. Incompetence

HON. W. M. LEA declared that the assessment was made fairly and equitably. The last pound of flesh was not exacted. The assessors knew at the time that possibly land values were higher than they had ever been and that it was not right to take advantage of the boom in levying taxes. Regarding the poll tax notice, he admitted that there might have been an oversight in not sending it with the others.

MR. CREEL McARTHUR believed that the charge made about favoritism in collecting taxes was unfounded. More knowledge should be given through the press regarding the poll tax, he thought.

MR. PETER BRODIE did not wish Mr. Arsenault's statement regarding valuation of property to pass unchallenged. The soldiers thought they were getting pretty cheap property by purchasing through the Government but it did not always work out that way. He knew of one property sold to the government at $9,000 at public auction which was not worth one dollar over $6,000. The assessors valued it at $5,500. He didn't believe in the present valuation system and thought that valuation by school trustees was about the best thing for the province.

HON. A. E. ARSENAULT maintained that the forty-seven assessors employed by the Government were not doing their work a bit more efficiently than the six assessors under the old Act. The number of officials are so numerous now that they were cumbersome. "They go to one house and the whole thing is done there, as I well know," he said.

MR. KENNEDY (referring to the Act under discussion), the Attorney General says it is a Tax Bill. Last year in this House we spent three weeks putting through a Tax Bill which must have been wrong, if it is necessary to bring it in again. Now they are trying to amend it to make it right. Mr. Cox says "Push it through". That's exactly what he did last year—pushed it through! This House knows and the country knows that you are boasting of your Taxation measures. But though you have been asked on different occasions last year to meet the people on this issue, only one of you—the Commissioner of Agriculture—had the nerve to do so. We all know how he came back after that meeting at Tryon. Every time the Liberals came back into power there has been an increase in taxation,—and still you blame the press for the indignation you have aroused. What a terrible crime it is that the Guardian can go to work and write an editorial about taxation! When the Guardian or any newspaper takes this matter up they are simply doing their duty and protecting the people of this province. Of course, one cannot blame the honorable leader of the Government for putting things in as fair a light as he can, but when a man gets up to a certain age he should be very careful of the statements he makes. Why is it that the Government have not collected their taxes? It is because they cannot do it. That was stated by a prominent lawyer in Charlottetown. The sheriff was going around the city for months with executions which he couldn't serve. One gentlemen openly defied him. Why couldn't be serve them? Because the Government knew they would lose their case in Court and in that way lose prestige among the people.

HON. J. J. JOHNSTON maintained that in the case of people of moderate means the Tax Act has actually reduced the rate.—a statement which Mr. W. B. LePage, Premier Bell and Hon. W. M. Lea supported. Mr. Arsenault centended that it was on the poor man, not the man of moderate means, that the burden of the poll tax rested. Some time was taken up in this discussion.

MR. DENNIS suggested that the chairman call the speakers to order and that the members get down to business.

The Act was read through and adopted with some slight grammatical amendments. It was ordered to be read a third time tomorrow.

PREMIER BELL then laid on the table the report of the Provincial Auditor.

THE SPEAKER read a reply from the Secretary of the Governor General stating that the address of the House on the car ferry and railway stardardization matters had been received through the Lieut. Governor and would be laid before His Excellency.

HON. A. E. ARSENAULT asked when the report of the Commissioner of Public Works could be expected. He understood that the report was ready. He did not think it should be necessary for him to be eternally nagging at the heads of departments in order to make them table their reports.

PREMIER BELL replied that he had not yet been able to get it.

The House adjourned until 3 p. m. tomorrow.

MARCH 30

The House met this afternoon at 4.15.

PREMIER BELL presented a petition to incorporate the Imperial Biscuit Company.

HON. A. E. Arsenault presented a petition to incorporate the Summerside Council, Knights of Columbus.

HON. W. M. LEA, Commissioner of Agriculture, presented a petition to incorporate the Potato Growers Association.

These bills were given first reading and ordered to be read a second time tomorrow.

According to notification, various questions were asked the Premier and the Commissioners of Public Works and Agriculture, answers to some of which were tabled. In several cases the answers were not ready.

The Report of the Public Works Department was tabled.

The House went into committee with Mr. Creel McArthur in the chair for second reading of an Act to further amend the Act to incorporate the Telephone Company of Prince Edward Island.

HON. A. E. ARSENAULT asked if the Premier had any concise information to lay before the House in considering this important bill. It is recognized by everyone said the speaker that the Telephone Company had served a good purpose in this province, and that it was today facing difficulties which prevent its development. The matter of adjusting these difficulties has been hanging over since the early part of 1919—practically two years—without anything being done. It was a matter which the late Government had to face, and which they did face, but in a manner entirely different to the method of the present Government. They did not feel like tackling a difficulty without having first made proper enquiries into it; and they proposed to have expert advice in the triple interests of the Company, the Government and the rural lines. The present Government did not see fit to carry out that idea but constituted themselves into a court of inquiry and started to deal with the matter. The Premier sent several reports through the province, submitting a long questionaire which elicited answers as variable probably as the number of forms sent out. At any rate the House is now faced with the settlement of a difficulty about which there is no information. I do not know how far the Premier has taken his followers in to his confidence, continued Mr. Arsenault, but we on this side of the House are absolutely in the dark. It is manifestly unfair to ask a Legislature to deal with a matter affecting profit and public interest without the information that should go along with it. I will ask the honorable leader of the government if he has made into memoranda form the great mass of correspondence between the government and the Telephone Company on this question,—whether he has set out the available information for the Houes in a concise form?

PREMIER BELL replied that no digest had been prepared of the correspondence. The whole matter has been one of adjustment and compromise between the Government and the Telephone Company, he said. At the last meeting held the Company agreed to waive their demand for an increase in tolls as presented on the 1st, of January, 1921, and to accept the proposition of the year before. The amount which they demanded a year ago was only about one half of their increased demand. The Government agreed to give them a five year extension to keep the Company upon a business basis, though a great many people throughout the country were opposed to granting any further exclusive franchise. The main proposition envolved in the bill before the House is that of making use of the present iron system of wiring employed by the Telephone Company and putting it into effective shape,—making it satisfactory all over the Island, and at the same time retaining the flat rates. The Government was very well satisfied, the Premier said, with the arrangements made with the Company.

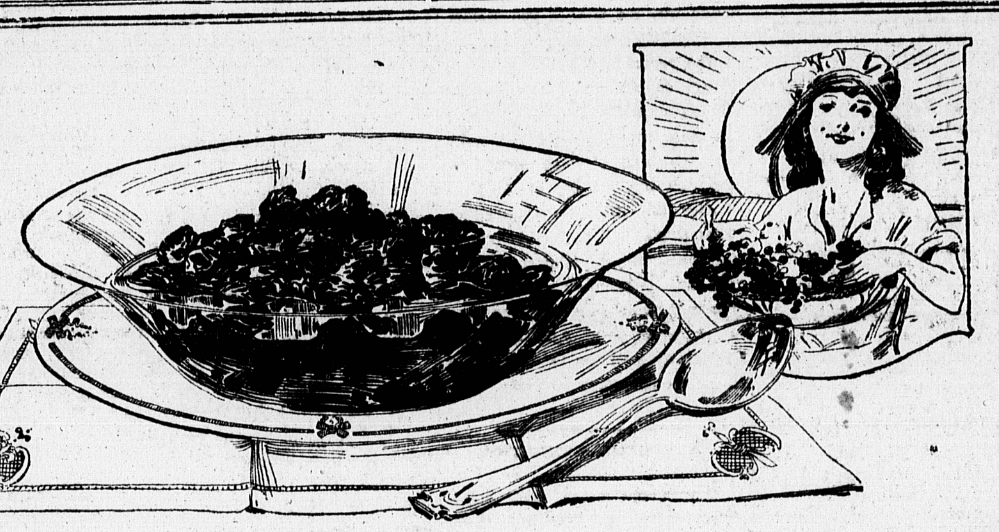
OFTEN WORKED ALL DAY WITHOUT A BITE TO EAT

Soucey Hardly Able to Sleep or Work Before He got Tanlac—Days Work Doesn't Tire Him Like half Hours job Did Before.

"I was so down and out I could hardly eat, sleep or work, but Tanlac has built me up all round and I feel just like I've been wanting to feel," said J. A. Soucey, 2257 Jacques Hertel St., Ville Emard, Montreal, a well known employee of the Older Timber Co.

"I had indigestion so bad that many a time I went all day long without eating a bite of anything. In fact, I almost hated to eat, for I suffered so with pains and cramps that sometimes even a glass of water turned against me. My nerves were so shattered they kept me restless all the time and I dreaded to see night coming on for I would lie awake for hours rolling and tossing. Then in the morning I had a terrible headache and all through the day I felt so weak and no account I would nearly give out.

"But I feel as strong and healthy now as I ever did in my life and five bottles of Tanlac are what fixed me up so fine. I'm surprised at the way Tanlac has built me up. Why, a whole day's work now doesn't tire me as much as a half hour's job used to. I eat hearty, sleep good and sound and don't see now anybody could be in better health. Tanlac has done even more than I expected, and it is my turn now, I think, to do something for Tanlac."



"A Beauty Sleep"—and then

"A Beauty Breakfast"

Try it for 30 days—to prove

This is what thousands do at the direction of experts to win back the healthful rose tint to pale cheeks—as told by the editor of a famous magazine which is read by half a million women.

They take regular exercise, sleep regular hours, and then start breakfast with stewed raisins. The raisins are plump, delicious fruit-meats stewed so the juice forms a luscious sauce. Note recipe printed on this page. A more alluring fruit dish never has been served in any home—nor any other food that's more effective in this way.

Read opposite what Dr. J. H. Kellogg, an authority who has made a life-time's study of foods, thinks of the raisin. You'll serve stewed raisins every morning when you know the good they do.

Luscious nuggets of food-iron

Raisins are nuggets of food-iron—and food-iron is an essential to good blood.

Get what you need of it each day, and an incomparable, natural rose tint on the cheeks is the reward—nature's irresistible attraction—the good looks of good health.

No need to imitate with rouge when nature thus provides.

Youthfulness is the real beauty, as every woman knows. And good blood is the first consideration. Women of fifty often look but thirty if that natural rose tint is still there.

Stewed raisins are mildly laxative also. Those who eat them regularly are apt to have the clear, white skin that sets the color off—unmarred by blemishes or sallowness.

Great sanitariums serve stewed raisins to rheumatic patients when other fruits might disagree.

So this simple but effective food is one of the most important that any woman ever used. Try daily for a month and see. Begin tomorrow morning. Look in your pantry now.

Let every member of the family have stewed raisins.

Be sure to mail coupon below for "100 Raisin Recipes," a valuable free book that every woman ought to have.

Stewed Raisins

Cover Sun-Maid Raisings with cold water and add a slice of lemon or orange to each half pound. Place on fire; bring to a boil and allow to simmer for one hour. Sugar may be added but is not necessary as Sun-Maid Seeded Raisins contain 75 per cent natural fruit sugar.

What Dr. J. H. Kellogg says:

(Dr. Kellogg is head of the famous Battle Creek Sanitarium.)

"Raisins are served on the Battle Creek Sanitarium Table every day. A pound of Raisins has twice the food value, an equal amount of iron and seven times as much food lime as a pound of choicest lean steak. The sugar of Raisins is much more wholesome than cane sugar, requiring no digestion and being absorbed in one-fourth the time required for ordinary sugar. If the American people would eat more Raisins and less meat the results would be better digestion, less rheumatism, less Bright's disease, less heart disease, greater efficiency and longer life."

SUN-MAID RAISINS

Always use Sun-Maid Raisins for your every cooking need. Made from California's tenderest, sweetest, juiciest table grapes, noted for their fragile skins.

Packed in a great sun-lighted, glass-walled plant. Sweet, clean, wholesome American raisins—the kind you know are good.

Three varieties: Sun-Maid Seeded (seeds removed); Sun-Maid Seedless (grown without seeds); Sun-Maid Clusters (on the stem). All dealers. Insist upon the Sun-Maid Brand.
