COOL WATER FOR THE FOWLS.

The following simple device, recently described in the Agricultural Gazette, is said to be a very satisfactory method of keeping water cool during the hot weather of summer. The device consists of a large stone bottle, with a bung hole at the bottom. Seal top of bottle to keep air out. Get a bung a few inches long, bore a hole through centre, insert a small piece of tube (bent so as to deliver water into a dish), then get a box opposite bung, then pack tightly with sawdust, using paper or rags to keep sawdust from dropping out near bung. Nail lid on box. To fill, lay with bung up-hill; nail a piece of wood V-shape to cover dish.

COMPANIONS BY THE WAY

From the May Woman's Home Companion: "Never blow up the grocer. It fatigues you and infuriates him. Simply state what went wrong, and let him blow himself up." "If the pit of the stomach seems to drop out when the elevator starts down, you can prevent the discomfort by stepping across the elevator at the moment of starting." "To keep your footing in a car or on a boat, walk with your feet wide apart. This is all there is to sea-legs." "People say that growing relieves these nerves. On the contrary, it doubles the strain by fixing the growers attention on annoyances, and increasing their powers to do mischief." "Smiles go a long way towards reducing the difficulties of shopping." "People behind counters respond to a smile, whereas a worried, distressed expression puts them in the wrong mood at the outset." "To make sure of courtesy from a policeman, address him as Mr. officer. If you have to call him in an emergency say Mr. Officer, we need your head over here." The effort is miraculous.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR AT SMALL COST

A Simple Remedy Beautifies the Hair, Cures Dandruff, Stops Falling Hair.

What a pity it is to see so many people with thin, wispy hair, faded or streaked with gray, and realize that most of these people might have soft, glossy, abundant hair of beautiful color and lustre if they would but use the proper treatment. There is no necessity for gray hair under sixty-five years of age, and there is no excuse for anyone, young or old, having thin, straggling hair, either full of dandruff or heavy and rank smelling with excessive oil. You can bring back the natural color of your hair in a few days and lose forever rid yourself of any dandruff and loose hairs, and make your hair grow strong and beautiful by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. For generations common garden Sage has been used for restoring and preserving the color of the hair; and Sulphur is recognized by Scalp Specialists as being excellent for treatment of hair and scalp troubles. If you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, or if your hair is losing its color or coming out, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and notice the improvement in the appearance of your hair after a few days' treatment. AUTHORESS A FLOWER EXPERT.

Margaret Deland, novelist, has a national reputation for the beauty of her bouquets, and her sale of the best of the Children's Hospital in Boston is an incident of moment about her New England home. Mrs. George Gould and Helen Gould send flowers to florists to be sold for favorite charities. Miss Gould's blossoms are gardenias, which retail for a dollar each in winter, half to the florist, who makes the sale and to pay the expense of transportation. Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain has for years sold rare specimens of orchids for the crippled children's home in Chelsea, Mass.
