David Schurman, Charlottetown, Provincial Manager of the Massey Harris Co. was in town Saturday.

Press Doyle, postmaster of Norway, let a fall last week on the ice breaking his leg in two places. He is doing well under the care of Dr. Johnson, Tignish.

Tignish.—March came in due and the Railway line being opened out the scarcity that dirt exist will now soon be supplied. Many young men are now home from the woods in Nova Scotia and Maine and it took about all they made to get home.—The C. M. E. A. held a social on Monday night, the 9th inst.—The scarcity of fowls is now very much felt in certain localities and if the Government buy will not soon make its appearance many cattle will die of hunger.

A VERY successful parlor social was held at the home of W. J. and Mrs. Caldwell, Kensington, Friday evening, March 10th, under the auspices of the W. M. S. Owing to the unavoidable absence of the pastor Rev. H. S. Young, Mr. Lowther acted as chairman and the following program was well rendered:—

Chorus—Swanee River Recitation—Harrison Lowther Recitation—Annie Stewart Solo—Miss Mamie Morrison Reading—Mrs. Col. Bowness Instrumental Music—Miss Morrison and H. Casely. Recitation—Miss George Bendley. Chorus—Old Folks at Home Reading—Mrs. Lowther. Instrumental Music—Miss Morrison and H. Casely.

The gem of the program was a Gaelic song by Roderick Nicholson accompanied in the organ by Miss Morrison. Mr. Nicholson sang again at the close of the evening much to the enjoyment of all present. Cake and coffee were served by the ladies and a silver collection was taken up in aid of their work. Too much cannot be said of the kindness and hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell in opening their house for those socials and setting all in their power to make things pleasant.

The members of the Degree Team of Prince Edward I. O. O. F. are requested to attend practice at 7.30 tonight.

Rector McLeod, Charlottetown was in town Saturday visiting his brother Hon. R. C. McLeod whose condition was reported a little worse.

The death occurred suddenly about five p. m. Saturday of Mrs. McNeill, widow of the late Charles McNeill, Summerside. Mrs. McNeill had been in good health up to within an hour of her death. She had gone out doors and on coming in slipped and fell complaining of hurting her ribs. She went into the kitchen and a few minutes after they found her in convulsions which terminated fatally. The cause of death was heart failure resulting from the fall. She was in the 68th year of her age and was a daughter of the late John R. Gardiner, formerly of Bedouque. She leaves to mourn besides one daughter, Miss Eva at home, two brothers Charles C. Gardiner of Charlottetown, at present in Toronto, and George formerly of Summerside, now in West Somerville, Mass, also three sisters Mrs. D. Price, Dorchester Mass, Mrs. James Dunbar, California, and Miss Mary of Summerside at present visiting in Dorchester. The Guardian extends sympathy to the bereaved.

Any Boys? If there are boys in the house, or girls either, then croup, coughs, catarrh, bronchitis, and sore throat are sure to be there, too, sooner or later. Don't crowd their stomachs with medicine, just have them breathe in the vapor of Vapo-Cresolene; they'll like it, and it will give immediate relief. In this way you put the medicine right on the place that needs it. For whooping-cough it's the perfect cure.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists, or sent express prepaid on receipt of price. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit including a bottle of Cresolene, complete $1.50. Send for free illustrated booklet. LEWIS & CLARK CO., Sole Agents, 288 St. James Street, Montreal, Can.

A serious accident was narrowly averted here about noon Saturday when the western train was going out. A young man Gilbert Gallant (Barnack) attempted to jump off the train at Road's Crossing. In doing so he slipped, falling into the cutting under the train. He was dragged along the track and badly bruised about the back by the steps of the last car and the wing of the danger. His face and hands were also badly cut by the ice along the side of the cutting. He was carried to his home near-by and Dr. J. F. McNeil was summoned. It was fortunate that his overcoat caught in the steps otherwise it might have resulted seriously. He was reported resting easy latest account.

WAX DOLLS OBSOLETE Simon Ford tells of a little girl of his acquaintance who constantly carried about with her a big wax doll that the hotel man had given her. Recently there arrived in the house another youngster. During the afternoon following this interesting came Mr. Ford chanced to encounter the little figure on the street. He at once observed that she was without her usual companion, the big wax doll he had given her. "Why, Mary," said he, "where's your nice doll?" Whereupon the little one elevated her nose to an unwonted angle. Said she: "I don't have any use for wax dolls now. We've got a real guest baby at our house, and that takes up all my time."—Collier's for March 11.
