Her many friends and relatives in this province learned with the deepest sorrow of the sudden passing of Mrs. (Capt.) James A. Stewart in Quincy, Mass., on Feb. 11. The deceased was the daughter of the late James Dunville and a niece of Mr. William Dunville,

West Cape. She was a graduate of P. of W. College, Charlottetown and taught for a number of years in this province. After her marriage she resided at West Point, until about 18 years ago when the family moved to Quincy, Mass. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn a daughter, Mrs. Daniel McLeod of Quincy, and a son Rev. Roy Stewart, Pastor of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Westville, N. S., who was called to his mother's bedside when she was so suddenly stricken with paralysis, which caused her death, without ever regaining consciousness. One son Angus and one daughter, Irene, pre-deceased her. Mrs. Stewart was a truly Christian woman, kind and hospitable, and will be sadly missed in the home and among her many friends, also in social and religious activities, in which she was always keenly interested. To the bereaved the sincerest sympathy is extended.

A disastrous fire occurred at Milburn on Feb. 15 when the dwelling house on a farm owned by Mr. J. S. Gorrill of Glenwood was completely destroyed by fire. No one was living on the farm at the time. The fire was confined to the dwelling house, the other building being saved.—O.
