INSIDIOUS EYE STRAIN

We use this adjective advisedly.

Sufferers from Eyestrain may have perfect vision and therefore do not suspect the presence of any eye defect.

The motive power of the entire human organism is Nerve Energy.

Normal eyes, it is computed utilize about 20% of this Nerve Energy, but when Eyestrain is present, a much larger proportion is required. Hence defective eyes, through their consumption of an excessive amount of Nerve Energy, may seriously affect the functioning of other organs of the body, and produce ill health.

DUNSTAFFNAGE.—The regular meeting of the Dunstaffnage Pastime Club was held on Friday evening March 12th at the home of Mr. John A Stewart. Meeting opened with the president Ernest Foster in the chair, minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Discussion followed about repeating Concert at Mt. Herbert, proceeds to go in aid of Protestant Orphanage. The remainder of the evening was spent in Contests and music. Meeting closed with the singing of National Anthem. The usual Sunday night "sing song" was held at the home of Mr. S. C. Stewart a large number were in attendance. Miss Ruby A. Stewart ,York, spent the week end at her home in Dunstaffnage.

POUND PARTY—During the winter accounts of avalanches which have occurred at different places have appeared in the daily papers, but an avalanche which occurred at Winsloe South has not, until now, been described. This avalanche tok place on Monday evening, March 1st, when a "pound party" consisting of about forty members and adherents of the united Church at Winsloe South, swooped down unon the Parsonage bringing with them all kinds of good things, including sugar, butter, eggs, cream and other household necessities "too numerous to mention." In addition, refreshments for the contingencies of the hour were brought in abundance. During the evening, games were indulged in, music was rendered and very much enjoyed, and refreshments were served to which ample justice was done. Short speeches were made by Mr. Oliver Saunders, and Rev. W. H. Palmer, after which a very pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. The occupants of the Parsonage wish to thank very much their many friends for this expresion of their kindness, thoughtfulness and appreciation. One would think, however, that the problems of the people of the Parsonage would be numerous enough without having added to them the problem of knowing what to do with all the good things left behind by the army of invaders.

CELEBRATED 10TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.—A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rose, called last night at their home, Almonte Ave. It was the 10th anniversary of the wedding of this popular couple, and the important date could not be allowed to pass without friends making some suitable commemoration party. It was a very joyous evening. A number of tables of bridge were played, and the winners happened to be J. E. Garrett, Mrs. J. Robert Sutherland and the minor prize was won by Harry Anderson. Before the festivities of the evening had been concluded Mayor Fraser in a brief speech told Mr. and Mrs. Rose how highly they were regarded by their friends and neighbors, and on behalf of the party asked them to accept a handsome chair as a tangible memento of the occasion. Mr. Rose suitably replied. Mr. and Mrs. Rose are among the town's best citizens and many friends will extend felicitations and good wishes for the future.—New Glasgow News. Mrs. Rose was formerly Miss Bertha Garrick of this city.

A Dutch-Ontario Romance

Just before a recent sailing of the Canadian Pacific liner Metagama, the bonny Dutch girl here shown was made Mrs. Brouwer, and set out with her husband for Merlin, Ontario. Shaking her by the hand in congratulation is the genial chief steward and poet of the ship, Duncan Mac[illegible]sh. Mrs. Brouwer is attired in Dutch peasant costume, as she will be seen, looks eminently attractive. Meanwhile the Metagama is living up to her reputation as "The Bride Ship."
