LIBERAL GOVT. IS DEFEATED

Majority of Anti-Liberal Candidates Elected With Returns Still Incomplete—Conservatives Hope For Majority When Remainder of Seats Are Heard From.

(Canadian Press)
REGINA, Sask., June 7.—Neither Conservatives nor Liberals can control the baffling situation in which the Saskatchewan general election has left the province. It is claimed by George Thorn, Secretary of the Saskatchewan Progressive Association. The Independent and Progressive groups, he says, hold the reins of power. With elections definitely conceded in only 45 out of 81 seats and with no party in possession of a clear majority, the Thorn statement holds especial weight.

Liberals, who ruled the province for 24 years, are admittedly defeated. Conservatives are hoping for a majority. Thirty two seats constitute a majority over all in the Saskatchewan assembly, but elected and conceded Conservative victories number only 25. Four seats are doubtful but all are claimed by the Liberals and the two deferred election seats were stoutly Liberal in 1925.

The signatures to the historic document which fixes the payments that Germany must make to the allied creditors for the next 59 years were affixed at 5.50 p. m. (11.50 a. m. E. S. T.) The experts report to the committee unanimously recommended reduction of the reparations annuities during the next 37 years from 2,500,000,000 gold marks (approximately $600,000,000) to an average of 2,050,000,000 gold marks (approximately $492,000,000).

NO PROVISION THIS YEAR FOR C. N. R. HOTEL

Site Will be Selected But No Expenditures This Year For Hotel at Charlottetown, Says Thornton.

There will be no expenditure by the Railway Department for the proposed new C. N. R. hotel at Charlottetown this year, according to word received by The Guardian last evening from Sir Henry Thornton, president and general manager of the Canadian National Railways, in reply to an enquiry as to why the $200,000 proposed in committee as an initial expenditure this year did not appear in the supplementary estimates passed by Parliament a few days ago.

The telegram reads: "Your telegram hotel matter: In view of heavy hotel commitments already in hand it was not practicable to undertake further expenditures on this account during 1929. It is our intention to proceed actively with hotel for Charlottetown next year if Parliament approves and we propose to select and secure site during present year. I informed a committee which waited upon me of our existing obligation and probable difficulty of arranging finances this year.

(Sgd.) W. H. THORNTON."

FINANCE MINISTER'S STATEMENT

Previous to receiving Sir Henry's message, The Guardian communicated with Hon. J. A. MacDonald, M.P., who, upon enquiry of Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance, was assured that the amount for the hotel "will be provided out of the estimate of $33,000,000 loans to Railways." Sir Henry's telegram, however, clearly implies that no expenditure is proposed to be made this year.

(Special to The Guardian)
TORONTO, Ont., June 7.—Arrangements for the opening ceremonies of the Royal York Hotel, just completed by the Canadian Pacific Railway at a cost of $16,000,000, are announced by B. A. Neale, general manager of the hotel, and local C.P.R. officials. E. W. Beatty, K.C., president, several Montreal directors and prominent C.P.R. officials, will arrive from Montreal at North Toronto station, Tuesday morning about 8.30 a.m. and, it is expected, will go straight to the hotel.

At eleven o'clock, Mr. Beatty and his directors will proceed to the city hall, where they will be received by Mayor McBride, the board of control and council in the council chambers, and receive an address of welcome and of thanks, on behalf of the city.

At 1 p. m., after Lord Willingdon, Governor-General, has declared the hotel to be formally open, Mr. Beatty will be tendered a complimentary luncheon by the Board of Trade in the main banquet hall in the Royal York, convention floor, at which 1,300 members of the board of trade, and their friends and C.P.R. officials will be present.

During the afternoon visitors will be taken through the hotel by specially uniformed guides, and shown its many splendors and innovations. At night the opening ball will be held in the main ballroom and other convention halls on the convention floor commencing at nine o'clock. Ben Bernie's famous recording orchestra from New York and the two hotel orchestras, conducted by Fred Culley and Rex Battle, will provide the music.

Rhine Army To Be Evacuated

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, June 7.—Catterick Camp, in Yorkshire, the vast military depot on which $7,500,000 was recently spent, is being cleared for the reception of Britain's Rhine army. All British troops at present in Germany, comprising six battalions of infantry, a brigade of field artillery, a field company of engineers, an armored car company, signallers and artillery services, numbering 5,000 men, will, according to the Daily Express, all be accommodated at Catterick by October. Preparations for evacuation, adds the newspaper, are well advanced and may take place earlier than expected.

King Will Not Be Present

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, June 7.—The Daily News today says that the King will not be present at the formal opening of parliament on July 2. It has been suggested in court circles that the Queen will read His Majesty's speech from the throne. Her Majesty will probably attend the opening ceremonies of the House of Lords with the Prince of Wales as an escort. Should the Queen prefer not to read the speech herself the task would be undertaken by a commissioner.

SCARCITY OF MINISTERS IS PROBLEM

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, June 7.—Regrettable scarcity of ministers to fill vacant charges provided the chief problem discussed by the Presbyterian General Assembly at this morning's session in St. Andrew's Church. Despite the fact that 40 clergymen have been brought into the Dominion in the past two and one half years, said Rev. D. T. L. McKerrill, of Toronto, convener of the committee on vacancy and supply and that many vacancies still exist, Presbyterian standards must be maintained. Rev. Dr. S. Banks Nelson of Hamilton, secretary of the committee, said every effort was made to keep out "cheap" or "poor" ministers and in this, he said he thought the committee had been very successful.

Winston Churchill To Take Trip

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, June 7.—Winston Churchill, former Chancellor of the Exchequer, intends to leave England shortly on an extensive tour of the United States, Canada, Japan and countries of Latin America. He is not likely to return to England until November. With Mr. Churchill in private life, his trip of course will have a different character than if he were still in the cabinet. He will no longer be able to speak for the government, since a Labor administration with views diametrically opposed to his own will be in office. Nevertheless it is expected here that he will talk frankly and freely on Anglo-United States relations and will speak as one whose writings and speeches on the subject have not always been friendly.

ALL MY ENTHUSIASM FOR BACKYARD AGRICULTURE IS OZZING OUT O' ME

INCREASED INDEMNITIES FAVORED

Majority of Members Out of Pocket, It is Claimed, After All Expenses Paid.

(From Our Own Correspondent)
OTTAWA, June 7.—There was great jubilation this morning among the Conservative members over the result of the elections in Saskatchewan. One of them who knows the middle west very intimately, and has kept in close touch with conditions for the last twenty-five or thirty years said: "At last the backbone of Liberalism has been broken in Saskatchewan. It means at least that we shall have fifty-fifty in the representation from there after the next federal elections. But I expect a majority. In the last two years, there has been a heavy switch throughout the entire middle west towards Conservative policies, owing to important changes in economic conditions." Increased indemnities for the members is again looming up, but with what prospects there is no certainty. It is understood that in caucus there is a majority in favor, but leaders are inclined to favor it, and the way it might effect party prospects throughout the country has more influence with them than with the back benches. Both sides, however, claim that owing to changing conditions, the high cost of living and getting elected, and the increasing demands upon pockets in every direction, $4,000 is not more today than $1,200 was a certain year ago.

There are a certain number of members who by excessive economy in living and keeping a tight hold on their pocket books go home with a handsome profit to their credit, but, on the other hand, it is claimed that the majority, after election expenses are paid, at the end of each parliament are out of pocket.
