TORONTO, Apr. 6.—An unprecedented downpour of rain in the district north, west and east of Toronto was responsible for the deaths of two railway engineers, who were killed when C. P. R. and C. N. Two firemen escaped.

FARMERS PLAN DECREASE IN POTATO AVERAGE

BOSTON, April 6.—A decrease of 10.6 percent throughout the nation and a decrease of 5.4 in New England in acreage to be devoted to potatoes is indicated in report of farmers' planting intentions, according to the New England crop reporting service of the Department of Agriculture, Vermont, with a 5 percent increase, is the only New England state in which the farmers have not indicated an intention of decreasing their potato acreage this year.

The crop reporting service points out that weather and other conditions may as the planting season approaches cause the farmers to plant more or less acreage than indicated in planting intentions filed with the department.

The reduction, as indicated, would place New England's potato acreage for the coming crop at 226,000 acres, as compared to 239,000 last year. The nation's acreage would be 3,418,000 as compared with 3,825,000 last year.

Bell Telephone Co. To Increase Capital Stock

(Special to The Guardian)

OTTAWA, Apr. 6.—Without a word of comment, criticism or suggestion, the famous Bell Telephone bill, authorizing that company to increase from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000 its capital stock issue, was put through committee and third reading in the House of Commons tonight. Last session this bill was the most contentious in the whole legislative package, and was fought tooth and nail, blockaded and talked out in private bills hours for weeks.

But the measure which has just passed the House of Commons carries amendment. The amendment, presented by Hon. Charles Dunning, railways minister, in the railways committee, provides that the form, manner and amount of new stock issuance must be passed upon and approved by the dominion railway board.

Provided, of course, that the measure receives Senate approval the commons has thus seen the last of the famous Bell Telephone bill. In last year's fight against the measure in its then objectionable form, two Toronto members, G. Reginald Geary and Thomas L. Church, were leaders.

PREPARING FOR ELECTION

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, April 7.—The charms of spring held less attraction for leaders of the various political parties during the past week than the preparation of oratorical ammunition, for the greatest display of political pyrotechnics that has disturbed the amenities of the season for many years to start next week and will continue until the polling booths open on May 30.

With the inauguration of their great campaign on Monday with 4,000 speakers will carry Lloyd George's unemployment removal scheme throughout the length and breadth of the country the Liberals have rather stolen a march on their opponents. General Mahon served in India and Egypt before he became commander of a cavalry brigade in the South African war. He led the famous flying column detached from one of Field Marshal Roberts' infantry divisions to the relief of Mafeking in May, 1900. Col. (now Lt.-Gen. Sir) Robert Baden-Powell had gallantly held out with a small force against attacking Boers for no less than 217 days. The relief of the town excited the liveliest jubilation in England.

During the war General Mahon was successively commander of the 10th (Irish) Division, 1914; in command of the Salonika army, 1915-16, and commander-in-chief in Ireland, 1916-18.

Looks For Sex War In Schools

LEICESTER, England, April 6.—A sex war in the schools seems likely to result from the annual conference of the National Union of Schoolmasters being held here. After three days of denouncing women teachers the conference culminated in the unanimous passage of a resolution that "it is not in the best interests of education that women teachers should practice in boys' schools or that women students should train in boys' schools."

The mover of the resolution, J. Brooks, of Liverpool, was willing to agree that certain masculine women, like Lady Macbeth, claimed they "dare do all that may become a man." He declared, however, that pupils of both sexes should be vigorously protected from the influence of persons of that type. He also said to-day that more than half a million boys were being taught by women, that many boys never came under the influence of a male teacher and that the situation was becoming worse.

F. Freeborough, of Banstead, accused women teachers of managing boys by a system of bribery and corruption. He said it was more than a coincidence that countries like the United States, where bribery was most rife, had the most women teachers.
