Mr. Sterling MacKay spent the week-end pleasantly in Charlottetown, the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Waye.

There passed peacefully away at Carleton Mr. Michael McCarville one of the most respected men of the community. Although in his seventieth year, Mr. McCarville had carried on his usual work until the day previous to his death when he was stricken with a severe heart attack. Despite medical skill he sank rapidly and passed peacefully away after having received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which he was an exemplary member. The late Mr. McCarville was a kind and loving husband and father and a generous neighbour who will be truly missed for his many kind deeds. The many Mass Cards Spiritual and floral Bouquets received by the family were expressions of the respect in which the deceased was held in the community. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones: His wife formerly (Annie Cahill) two sons Leonard and Mark at home, four daughters, Mrs. William Trainor Albany, Mary on the staff of the Provincial Sanatorium Charlottetown, Helen at home, and sister Mary Rene, Providence R. I. The funeral which was held to Seven Mile Bay Church was very largely attended. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. W. E. Monaghan, D. D. assisted by Rev. M. D. Smith who also conducted the services at the grave. The pall bearers were: James Campbell, J. C. Gillespie, George Doull, Michael Farmer, Montague Campbell, and James Johnston.—A.

SOURIS

An enjoyable function was held at the home of Mr. Daniel P. McDonald an esteemed resident of Souris, on the evening of November 10th. It being Mr. MacDonald's 70th birthday. Only the members of the family with their husbands and wives were present, there being six daughters, two sons and two grandchildren. Four of the family are married and reside in Souris, two sons are in Western Canada. At 8.30 the family sat down to a sumptuous goose dinner prepared by the Misses McDonald, after which the hours were whiled away with vocal and instrumental music, and step-dancing. Mr. McDonald received many appropriate gifts. At a late hour the family departed for their homes wishing their father Many Happy returns of the day.

The marriage took place on Wednesday morning Nov. 11th at St. Mary's Chapel Souris, of Miss Mary Jennings daughter of John and Mrs. Jennings of Souris to Arthur Burke of Rollo Bay. The Guardian wishes the young couple many years of wedded bliss.

Provincial Police officer J. C. MacDonald, Souris, has taken a room for an office in the house of Mr. Roy Crockett situated next to the Court post office.

The Children's Coughs Worry The Mother

Mrs. C. W. Harper, Silver Water, Ont., writes:—"I was very much worried over the nasty cough my two children had, and I had tried several remedies to no effect. One day my husband was in the drug store and overheard a lady and the druggist discussing remedies, and she seemed very thankful to Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for relieving her children, so he came home with a bottle and in two days both the children were well. Price 35c. a bottle; large family size 65c.; at all drug and general stores; put up only by The T. Wood Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont."
