received from Miss Tall's Co. of Rangers. National Child and Family Welfare; through our filiation with this body, we aim to build up and maintain the health of our children and young people; although the expenditure for this branch of our work was not as great this year, the interest remains the same.

Madam Regent and Ladies: I beg leave to present for your approval the thirty-ninth annual report of the Royal Edward Chapter Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. The review of its activities of the year ending Feb. 27th, 1940. There have been 18 meetings during the year—the greatest number in any year since its founding in 1901 and the average attendance at these meetings is the largest in its history.

Work of the Order. Endowment Fund: Royal Edward Chapter is credited by the National Chapter with setting splendid example in giving to the National Fund from which they never received any benefit.

2. Empire Work in India: We may be proud to assert that in the march of progress in India, we also have taken a hand by our interest and help to St. Helena's School at Poona, India, and in our contribution to the Kalcutta Hospital of which Miss N. Kauraji is still Regent.

3. New Year's observance: We include a prayer for peace have been ordered for use at our meetings, and prayer cards are to be distributed to the members of our Chapter.

4. This year marked the 20th Anniversary of the flight of Alcock and Brown who made the first Atlantic crossing by air. The Order had printed a picture of Alcock and Brown, and hoped to put one in every school in Canada in order that children might know that two young Englishmen were the first to fly from Ireland to Canada.

5. Service and Ex-service Men's work—Remembering that our greatest service to the state in this hour is steadiness and sanity as we attend to our ordinary tasks, let us also remember that one of the important tasks is the maintenance of the morale of Ex-service men and their dependents whose social welfare depends upon such activities as ours.

6. Educational: It can be readily understood that post graduate work in Great Britain is being seriously interfered with because of the war; the appointee for this province preferring to remain in Canada, his scholarship is to be held for him.

It is hoped that their use will not simplify it. War Work. In the anxious days preceding Sept. 3, the question in the minds of most of us must have been, "Could it possibly happen again?"—that which took the heart out of so many millions of women and which resulted in misery, suffering, and discouragement to our returned men? Could it happen again in our generation? But it did. Great Britain declared war on Sept. 3 and Britain declared war on Sept. 3 and Canada on Sept. 10. A special meeting of the Chapter was called on Sept. 3. The Regent reminded us that we had part to play in this terrible national emergency and world crisis; we were reminded that we would often have to forego our comforts and forget personal preferences, to be constant and steady objectives to help win the war.

7. Calendars were sold and distributed as usual to schools, libraries, etc. The demand for our Calendars was heavy this year that there was not a calendar to be had in Canada.

8. The Sara Maxwell Memorial Essay Contest gave 3rd prize to Beatrice Pound of this city. Money making activities included the Annual Rose Day Sale, held in April, and the sale of the British picture "The Lady Venetian".
