Donald McKinnon an old and respected residence of Strathcona passed away a few days ago. In usual health he partook of the evening repast and in less than two hours he "passed the great divide." He was a good truthful upright man and leaves to mourn several sons and daughters, to whom he has left the honor of a good name.

D. L. McKinnon of the Montague Furnishing Co., Ltd., has returned from a visit to Port Hood.

William Hunter, sent a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church at Dundas for fifty years has passed away to his reward. His character and career as a Christian is an example worthy of imitation, so that the name of Hunter is proverbial for truth and square dealing. By "honourable" he overcame all the obstacles of pioneer life and left a large and interesting family in independent circumstances. The late Peter Hunter, chemist and druggist was one of his sons—also Allan Hunter the inventor, who a few years ago died abroad and William junior member of the British Columbia Legislature and head of the large business firm of "The William Hunter Mercantile Co., Limited; Alex and Stewart of Dundas, Jas. in Georgetown;—also two daughters.—Without any pain or a struggle the aged Christian fell asleep repeating the words of St. Paul—"I know that safe with him remains." and on the close thereof he entered heaven with prayer.

Buy a "Tress" Hat at Browns.

We have just added 5000 more rolls to our 7 ct line of wall papers. This is a good dark pattern in brown and gold and usually retails at 20 cts, so is a decided snap at 7 cts a roll, with 9 inch border to match. At 9 cts a roll we have stocked a pattern in green on cream background, with wide border, which usually retails at twice that price. It is decidedly in the interests of your purse to purchase your wall papers here. Comparison will convince you, beyond a doubt.—M. Trainor & Co. 5-5dtf

Another shipment of "Merry Widow" Sailors by express in black brown, navy, white and burnt. As these are scarce goods you had better secure yours immediately. M. Trainor & Co. 5-5dtf.
