Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."

—Mrs. FRANK HENSON, 1316 S. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," headache, dizziness, and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT

DEAD.—In the death of Daniel A. Martin, which occurred on Saturday afternoon, March 2nd, 1918, Montague has lost a respected citizen, and the Methodist Church one of its most highly esteemed members and supporters. The deceased has attained the age of 73 years, and until four years ago when his health began to decline was ever at his post loved. Pastors and laymen who have worked with him will recall how he stood by them eager to assist in all efforts to advance the Master's Kingdom. He was associated with many branches of Christian work and nowhere was he more useful or faithful than in the Sunday School. As Post Master in Montague, a position which he held for many years, he is spoken of as being capable, genial, and obliging. The funeral service held in the Methodist Church on Monday afternoon March 4th was conducted by the Pastor Rev. Walter J. Donville, assisted by Rev. David Wright (Presbyterian) and Rev. P. A. Hubley (Baptist). Despite the severe weather of that day a large congregation gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to one who had been a valued citizen. There are left to mourn two sons, Charles R. in France and Arthur D. in Buxton, England; also six daughters, Mrs. Wm. Cumming, Mrs. Wm. Hilchey and Miss Bortha all of Montague. Mrs. Clara Hiltz of Brocton, Mass. Mrs. J. Cunningham, Roxbury, Mass and Mrs. C. Fred Pratt, of Whitman, Mass. Interment took place in Lower Montague Cemetery. The Masonic Order, of which the deceased was a member was in attendance and took part in the burial service. The pall bearers were Messrs. D. F. McDonald, Leith Poole, H. Nelson, E. Parkman, D. L. McKinnon and W. Mellish. (Patriot please copy.)

INSTITUTE.—On March 4th the Red Point Women's Institute met at the home of Alberta Yates, with an attendance of fifteen members and visitors. An excellent paper was read which was sent out by the Women's Institute Branch on Economy in the Home—Two recitations entitled Guilty or not Guilty was given by different members.—The Institute decided to begin at once to make an Autograph Quilt and a committee was appointed to purchase material. The next meeting is to be held on April 1st in the Red Point Schoolroom, and a most cordial invitation is extended to the gentlemen to be present.

Prevalence of Opinion is That Persistent German Raids Mean An Imminent Onslaught.

OBJECTIVE WELL CONCEALED.

Reinach Suggests That There Are Signs of a German Effort to Capture Rheims.

PARIS, March 14.—"Are the Germans really beginning their offensive?" is the question on the lips of every Frenchman today. The increase of activity on the front since March 1, the very date previously announced as likely to mark the beginning of a hostile effort, would seem to answer the query in the affirmative. For three months French military experts, to say nothing of the Germans themselves, have been shouting "Wolf" so loudly that a mixed state of opinion has developed.

Many persons refused to admit the likelihood of a "great German drive" at all. There is much divergence of view also among the chief military writers of the Paris press.

M. Reinach begins an article in today's Figaro with "The New German Offensive on the Allied Front" which seems to take it for granted that the

Huge Ordnance Base Being Built In France

United States Depot Will Cost $25,000,000 and Employ More than 16,000 Men.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—An ordnance base costing approximately $25,000,000 is being built in France by the Government, and, according to information authorized by the War Department today, good progress is reported in its construction. In the base there will be about twenty large storerooms, twelve shop buildings, a hundred smaller shops, and magazine and machine tool equipment costing $5,000,000.

The project includes a gun repair plant equipped to reline more than 300 guns a month, a carriage repair plant of large capacity, a motor vehicle repair plant capable of overhauling more than 1,200 a month, a small repair plant with a capacity for repair of some 53,000 small arms and machine guns a month, a large shop for the repair of horse and infantry equipment, and a reloading plant capable of reloading about 100,000 artillery cartridge cases a day. There will be, in addition, forges, carpenter shops, and other auxiliary buildings.

Much of the construction material and equipment has arrived in France and actual construction was begun several weeks ago. Practically all of the essential materials have been contracted for and priority orders issued by the War Industries Board have expedited deliveries. It is estimated that for the maintenance of the ordnance base approximately 450 officers and 16,000 men will be required. Some difficulty was experienced in obtaining the initial units trained in manufacturing industries.

offensive has begun. He modifies this subsequently, but, taken as a whole, his article implies a belief that the enemy is beginning a series of operations the immediate objective of which is Rheims, possibly for moral and sentimental reasons, and with a possibility of complementary attacks at other points.

Henry Bidou, in the Journal, inclines to the same theory. He emphasizes the difference between the actions of the last three days and the small local raids of the three months. He goes on:

Plain long-waisted velvet frocks are seen in greater numbers as the season advances.

Touques are made of white satin.
