

Doing Without!

Should you pass on to the other world tonight, what would they have to do without? Would there be a radio set, a car, pretty toys, a fur coat—for the widow and your orphans?

Would there be food, shelter and clothing in even pinched amounts? Picture the terror, the bewilderment, the bills that come in and must be paid, the dreadful uncertainty about the future, the uncompleted education, the struggle for employment, in the family where the Great Tragedy takes the family income along with the bread-winner.

You will be proud of yourself when you can say: "My arm and my brain are my family's support, not only now but always—through an Imperial Income Policy." You will know, too, that the income will be ready for you yourself when you are old and can no longer work.

Total Disability Assurance is also provided. Write for particulars today.

Address and Presentation

Father Monaghan Remembered by Ladies of St. Mary's Parish.

On Wednesday, Sept. 26th, the Ladies of St. Mary's Parish, assembled in the Convent Hall to bid farewell to Rev. Martin Monaghan, curate of the above named parish, who has recently been appointed pastor of Our Lady of the Visitation Parish, Amherst, Magdalen Islands. Although the weather was most disagreeable, the spacious hall was crowded.

As Father Monaghan, accompanied by Monsignor McLean, entered the hall, a very pleasant surprise awaited him. On tables arranged round the stage, and decorated with flowers, was a beautiful array of table-linens, silverware, china, kitchen utensils, and other articles of household use, too numerous to mention; the gift of the good ladies to the Reverend Father.

As soon as the clergy were seated, Mrs. Daniel McEachern, of Souris, read the following address: Reverend M. F. Monaghan, P.P.

Our Lady of the Visitation Parish, Amherst, Magdalen Islands.

Reverend Father—Permit us, on behalf of the Ladies of St. Mary's parish, to give at least some slight expression to our mingled feelings under the present circumstances; to tender you our sincere congratulations on your elevation to the dignity of parish priest, and to voice our heartfelt regret that such pre-emptive necessities your removal to a distant field of labor.

Although we knew we could not expect to have you remain permanently with us as assistant to our esteemed pastor, that sooner or later you would be called upon to accept the onerous duties and responsibilities of a pastorate of your own, we little thought that the time for severing your connections with Saint Mary's parish was so near at hand.

Three years ago you came to us in the first fervor of your sacred ministry. In looking back over this time, how much there is to say of your work in our parish, with what admirable devotedness you have filled the places of priestly trust confided to you, with what enthusiasm and zeal you have entered into the different parish activities, sparing neither time nor energy in the furtherance of every good cause.

We appreciate to its fullest extent the interest you have taken in our children and in the young people of the parish, the time you spent, the sacrifices you imposed upon yourself, and the pains you took to promote their interests and their happiness. We shall not attempt to enumerate the many benefits, temporal and spiritual, received through your intermediary; we know them, you know them, and, above all, God knows them; and it is to Him we look to cancel our debt of gratitude. May He bestow a very special blessing on all the souls confided to your care, and on the works you are about to undertake for His glory.

Look not upon the gift it is now our pleasure to give you, as any compensation for your services; they are invaluable, but accept it please, as a token of our earnest desire to contribute to your comfort and happiness.

We shall ever retain a most pleasant souvenir of your sojourn amongst us, and we wish to assure you that a very heartfelt welcome awaits you, whenever you shall find it convenient to revisit the scenes of your first missionary labors in "Souris-by-the-Sea."

And now we say, not farewell, but "Adieu," such the word for us. This more than word, 'tis prayer. They do not part who part thus. For God is everywhere.

The Ladies of Saint Mary's Parish, Souris, Sept. 26, 1928.

An address was next read by Miss Mabel Paquet, and a purse presented by Miss Mildred Fraser, on behalf of the "Tennis Club."

Father Monaghan replied to both addresses, and, in his own pleasing manner, thanked the ladies for their kind thoughtfulness in thus providing so generously for his household needs, and assured them that though he was glad to obey the voice of authority which called him to a new mission field, it was not without sincere regret that he contemplated leaving Souris, and the good people of Saint Mary's parish. He especially thanked the young ladies of the parish, who, he said, always gave him such willing co-operation and with whom he always had the most pleasant association.

Monsignor McLean then addressed the audience, and expressed his appreciation of what had been done for Father Monaghan, whom he said was most worthy of it all. He spoke in terms of highest praise of his Assistant, and of the ready and willing service he was ever ready to render; and added that personally he was losing a genial companion, an indefatigable co-laborer and an exemplary priest.

Two Pairs of Bloomers The little girl's dresses should have two pairs of bloomers to each dress, as children are constantly on the floor, and the bloomers get more soil and wear than the outside garment. Frequently a dress can be worn again, but unless fresh bloomers accompany it, it just could not be done.

BAIL FORFEITED—A drunk who should have appeared before the police court at Summerside, on Saturday, failed to do so and his bail of twenty dollars was forfeited. A previously convicted offender against the Prohibition Act was arrested by a constable and committed to jail.

SUCCESSFUL SALE—A very successful rummage sale was held in the Working Men's Association Hall, Summerside, on Saturday afternoon by the Ladies Aid of the Prince County Hospital. The very handsome sum of $155 was realized, which will be used to help furnish the new Nurses Home. The Ladies Aid are planning on holding another sale in the near future and hope it will prove as big a success.

RETURNED FROM AN EXTENDED TRIP—Mr. J. E. Wyatt, K. C. of Summerside, Mrs. Wyatt and the Misses Wanda and Dorothy Wyatt, have returned from a very interesting and enjoyable six weeks auto trip. Leaving Summerside, they motored through Toronto, via the Metapedia Valley, described by them as the scenic beauty spot of Canada. Thence they journeyed to Niagara Falls, and through the magnificent fruit belt of the Peninsula, returning through the most interesting places in the States of New York and Maine.

GOLF CLUB HOUSE BROKEN INTO—Last Friday night the Club House on the Summerside Golf Links was broken into, the lock of the door broken off, some time between the hours of 7 and 10.30 o'clock whilst the caretaker, Mr. Benjamin Arsenault, was in Summerside on business. Mr. Arsenault lives at the Club House and upon his return there he found the door open and that the place had been burglarized in his absence. Amongst the goods stolen were a quantity of cigarettes and a clock belonging to Mr. Arsenault, for which he recently paid the sum of $10. It is understood that there have been other recent petty larcenies committed in the neighborhood, including the theft of grain from barns, etc.

CAUGHT IN BELTING OF MILL—Mr. Albert Barlow, of Wellington, had the misfortune to meet with a severe and very painful accident in his father's mill there on Friday last. That he was not even seriously injured or instantly killed is almost miraculous. He was working in the potato field near by and was called to temporarily help in the mill and by some accident got caught in the belt and wedged against the shaft, laying the on a twelve horse-power engine to a standstill. His forehead was severely gashed, his shoulder dislocated, and he received an extensive scalp wound. On Saturday he was brought down to the Prince County Hospital, where he is now resting comfortably and making good progress toward recovery from his painful wound.

EDITH CAVEL LODGE HONORED—Edith Cavel Lodge, L. O. B. A., was privileged to receive on Friday night, an official visit from Mrs. Stewart Adrean, of Crak, Saskatchewan, most Worshipful Grand Mistress of the Ladies Grand Benevolent Association of British North America, who is on tour throughout Canada and Newfoundland in the interest of Lodge work. The distinguished visitor was accompanied from Charlottetown by Mrs. Mary MacLean, Provincial Organizer; Mrs. Avlac, Recording Secretary and Mrs. Robison, who all took part in the proceedings; the last named presiding at the piano during the exercises. The members of the Lodge of Lot 16 here present, Mrs. Adrian delivered a splendid and most inspiring address on L. O. B. A. activities throughout Canada and spoke words of encouragement to the Edith Cavel Lodge. A vote of thanks was tendered to the gifted speaker, moved by Mr. A. P. Well's seconded by Mrs. George McPherson and very graciously acknowledged. An enjoyable social hour was then spent during which dainty refreshments were served.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—An event of much interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bowness, Kensington, on Tuesday, Sept. 11th, when about one hundred of the neighbors and friends assembled to tender a shower to their daughter Ruby, previous to her approaching marriage. About 10 o'clock she was blindfolded and led to the dining-room by her niece and nephew, Phyllis

Moore and Ivan Bowness, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Mary Reedy, where the numerous presents consisting of cut glass, silverware and china, also several cheques were opened by Miss Bee Moore, while the accompanying verses were read by Miss Lila Moore, which caused much merriment. Miss Bowness, although taken by surprise, thanked her many friends for their gifts. After singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow," the company dispersed to the kitchen, where dancing was indulged in, the music being furnished on the violin by Messrs. Harry Bowness and Darices Hogg, John Bernard, mandolin, and John McGregor, banjo. A bountiful lunch was served, to which all did ample justice, and after a few pleasant hours the friends departed to their homes wishing Miss Bowness unalloyed happiness.

NOW ONE PEST LESS.—There have been several complaints in Summerside and surrounding country of people missing chickens, rabbits and other domestic animals, attributed to that very despicable animal the skunk. A few evenings ago Mrs. Albert Woodside went to procure something from her back porch when she saw what she instantly recognized as a skunk, making two shots and seeing it tumble over thought they had killed the intruder; but on going out soon after this time landing their quarry. By some is very much obliged to M. Woodside and his son Frank for getting rid of at least one of those very undesirable animals which have become a great nuisance of late. This particular skunk was quite large and beautifully marked, but to badly shot for the skin to be of any use.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bowness, Kensington, on Wednesday, Sept. 26th, when their daughter Ruby Elizabeth became the happy bride of Mr. Thomas Mayne Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart, of Norboro. At the hour of 8 o'clock, the bride, beautifully gowned in white georgette, trimmed with silver, wearing the conventional veil, caught with orange blossoms and carrying a magnificent shower bouquet of roses and chrysanthemums, entered the parlor on the arm of her father, the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, beautifully rendered by Mrs. Dr. J. R. Saint. The bride was attended by her twin sister, Ruth, who looked winsome in a gown of rose taffeta, and carried a bouquet of pink asters and maiden-hair-fern. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Elmer Stewart, the bridal party standing under an arch of Autumn leaves and ferns. Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. R. Saint, the guests repaired to the dining-room where a sumptuous wedding supper was served. The wedding gifts were numerous and costly, testifying to the esteem in which the young couple are held. Later they were serenaded by a band of chivalriers, who, after being treated and giving three cheers for the bride and groom, dispersed to their homes. The evening was wiled away with music and dancing until the wee sma' hours, after which the bride and groom left for their future home in Norboro, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

ASPIRIN Headaches may be swiftly and safely relieved by an Aspirin tablet. A most efficient remedy, and there's no after effect; its use avoids much needless suffering. Try it next time; see how soon its soothing influence is felt. Just as helpful when you have a cold; neuralgia, neuritis, rheumatism, lumbago. Just be certain you get real Aspirin—the genuine has Bayer on the box, and on every tablet. All druggists, with proven directions. Physicians prescribe Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart. Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assure the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark. —By George McManus
