FOX BISCUIT

The Imperial Cod Oil Fox Biscuit

MANUFACTURED AT CHARLOTTETOWN P. E. I.

GUARANTEED A PERFECT FOOD FOR FOXES, containing the whole wheat flour with a liberal quantity of cod liver oil and meat scrap. These biscuits are nourishing and highly relished by foxes. They are slightly laxative and will keep the bowels and stomach in first class condition. Can be fed at all seasons and are especially adapted for young foxes when fed soaked in milk.

Cod Oil biscuits are highly recommended by experienced ranchers, having been fed in leading P. E. Island ranches for many years. If you wish well developed foxes and pelts of lustrous quality, feed liberally with Imperial Cod Oil Biscuit. The biscuits contain pure medicinal Cod liver oil which has been Government inspected. We do not use crude Cod fish oil which is liable to become rancid.

EXCESSIVE MEAT FEEDING has been the cause of many troubles among foxes. Cereals, containing the most nourishing parts of the wheat germ, with vegetable and animal oils, must always be the safest and best food for foxes. The object of the manufacturers is to make a biscuit, that will prove a well-balanced ration for a fox, having a high percentage of carbohydrates, protein and fat. Analysis, made by the Dominion Analyst, shows that this has been obtained in the Imperial Fox Biscuit but the best proof of a good fox biscuit is the practical results in our P. E. I. ranches.

WE WANT every rancher in the Maritime Provinces to test these biscuits and therefore make this offer. Send us 8.00 and we shall ship to your station 100 lbs. of the Imperial Cod Biscuits, freight prepaid. This offer applies only to those who are not already feeding the biscuit.
