

FOOTBALL DELEGATES WILL ARRIVE TONIGHT IN THE AIR FOR MEETINGS

Teams In Three Leagues In Strenuous Work-outs — Abegweit Practice at Victoria Park This Evening.

Many are feeling the "urge" those days. Football is once more in the air, and both the old timers and the new timers are flocking to the field in Victoria Park with renewed enthusiasm. So optimistic is the Abegweit football executive, that the formation of a second team for the intermediate league is contemplated.

In the Park almost any afternoon from 3.30 to 4.30 both West Kent and Queen Square teams may be seen going through strenuous work-outs under their coaches. About 4.30 the sturdy Prince of Wales athletes take the field and under the direction of Coach W. J. McDonald play the game with traditional P. W. C. vim and vigour. The Abegweits too have their old stalwarts to the fore, Larter, Power, Partridge, Gormley, O'Neill, Dixon, LePage, Fraser, Tiny Mathieson and others. Among the aspirants for Red and Black are Fred Jenkins, ex-P.W.C. star, Harry Richardson, whom Charlottetown has now adopted, Ray Stull and Jack Kane of hockey fame.

Thus far everything augurs well for a successful football season. Intense rivalry born of tradition between the Abbies and S. D. U., between P. W. C. and the Second Kent and Queen Square gives assurance of exciting and hard fought games in senior, intermediate and junior leagues.

Success during the last two seasons has caused the Abegweits to look for new fields to conquer, and to turn their eyes toward Nova Scotia and New Brunswick teams. It is sincerely hoped that an object will be created to spur the team to greater efforts in play and in practice, to strengthen the interest of public and players in the old game, and to place the Abegweits in the position of an active factor in the Maritime football world.

A full quota of footballists are requested to be on hand this evening at 5 o'clock at Victoria Park when a vigorous workout will be held.

DELEGATES WILL ARRIVE TONIGHT IN THE AIR FOR MEETINGS

Executive of Women's Missionary Auxiliary, C. of E. Convenes in Charlottetown This Week — Extensive Program Arranged.

From Wednesday to Saturday of this week, the Executive Committee of the Dominion Board of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, consisting of forty-two delegates, will hold meetings in Charlottetown, Summerside and other parts of the Island. This is the first time the Province has been honored by being chosen as the meeting place of the committee.

The delegates will arrive this evening by two special Pullmans attached to the early train, and will be met by local members of the Diocesan Board. Among the delegates will be the Dominion President, Mrs. Ferrabee, Montreal; Mrs. R. E. Wodehouse, Recording Secretary of the Dominion Board, and Miss Annie Low, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Montreal.

There will be delegates from the Arctic, the Pacific Coast, and all parts of Canada. It is hoped that the weather will be favourable so that the members of such a widely spread organization will carry back with them pleasant memories of their stay in this province.

The sessions of the Committee open with Holy Communion Service in St. Peter's Cathedral, Wednesday morning at ten o'clock. After the service the members will adjourn to St. Paul's Parish Hall, where all the Executive meetings are to be held. Luncheons will be served by the ladies of St. Paul's and St. Peter's churches for the delegates.

The only meeting of the convention open to the public will be held on Wednesday at 8 p. m. in St. Paul's Parish Hall. The meeting will be presided over by Mr. George D. DeBlols, while several of the Dominion Officers will give addresses.

On Thursday the delegation will drive to Summerside, where a meeting will be held in St. Mary's Parish Hall for the Western Branches of the Board. At this meeting the Rev. Archdeacon White will be the Chairman. The ladies of St. Mary's Church will provide luncheon.

Lieutenant Governor Dalton and Mrs. Dalton will give a reception at Old Government House on Friday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock to the delegates, hostesses, Diocesan Board, and Clergy and wives, of the Province.

On Saturday a luncheon will be held in the Canadian National Hotel at 1 o'clock. In the afternoon the committee will drive to Cavendish, holding meetings on the way back at St. Marks Church, Rustico, and St. John's Church, Milton. These meetings will be addressed by officers of the Board.

The delegates will leave on Monday morning for St. John, N.B., for the annual meeting of the Dominion Board.

Livestock Market

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 21.—Cattle receipts were 1,076 on the two Montreal livestock markets today. Cattle trading was practically at a standstill, cows were picked out at $3.50 for good, $4 for tops and from $2 to $3 for medium kinds. A few light weight common steers were sold for $2.50 and $3. One load of plain steers, averaging 1,015 pounds, sold for $4.35 the balance of the cattle were not moving.

A total of 46 loads of cattle were received for export to Great Britain leaving Tuesday on the Melmore Head from Montreal and on the Concordia, from Quebec.

Calf receipts were 1,396, fifth a light run. Calves were moving slowly at prices estimated to be 25 cents lower on veals and 50 cents or more lower on other kinds. Veals ranged from $5. Quality calves sold around $7.50 with about a dozen or so up to $8. Drinkers brought between $4 and $5, and grass calves were slow sellers ranging from $2 to $3.25, with the bulk around $2.50.

Quotations: Good veal, $7.25 to $8; medium, $6.50 to $7; common, $4 to $5.75. Hog receipts were 2,351. Hogs offered included about 800 hogs held over from last week. The bulk of the hogs, butchers and lights were sold for $6. The few heavy hogs offered were sold around $5. Hogs were fairly well cleaned up when sold on grade. Selected brought $4 per hog premium, with a cut of $2 and $3 per hog off heavies and extra heavies.

Westville Takes First Blood In N.S.-N.B. Series

(Canadian Press) WESTVILLE, N. S., Sept. 21.—Westville's "Miners" cut the first of three notches necessary for the Nova Scotia baseball title today, when they hammered a single run home as Halifax Casinos failed to get a man over the plate.

The game was a dramatic pitchers duel between Lou Zwerling of the Casinos, pitching his first game in two years and Billy Richardson, Westville left hander, with Richardson having a slight edge. The home town boy fanned eleven and held the Halifax city champions to four hits. A former first baseman, he was steady and effective. A surprise choice for mound duty, he allowed only five hits.

Westville's lone tally came in the fifth, when with two outs, Dunbar's high fly fell halfway in centre for a double. He stole third on a daring play and came home when one of Zwerling's drops got away from catcher Jim O'Brien. The teams play again tomorrow.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

BY "TEC."

Billy Richardson, iron armed veteran southpaw of the Westville "Miners" emerged triumphant over Lou Zwerling, opposing Halifax Casinos moundsman in the opening N. S.-N. B. baseball championship series played in Westville yesterday. The tilt from start to finish was a hurling duel between two crafty pitchers, the mining town ace getting the edge and his team played in the fifth frame. The teams play in Westville again today.

If the weather man continues on his present good behaviour, it looks as if the N. S.-N. B. series will end this week, with the opening games with Abegweits for the Maritime title early next week.

DEMPEY WINS?

Jack Dempsey, former monarch of all heavyweight boxers has won another hectic fight—or has he lost it? At any rate he has fought his last battle with Estelle Taylor. A divorce was granted him yesterday from his former wife—and one-time "inspiration." The Manassas Mauler no doubt will be in a better position now to attend to his little game of "pushover," to which the public are gladly paying thousands of dollars to see.

THE OLYMPICS

Montreal will be very much in the Canadian Olympic team picture if the showing of Alex. Wilson and Leslie Wade through the year reflects what may be expected of them next season. There will soon be conferring and confining consultation and perhaps consternation as the committees swing into action and clear decks for next year which will be as important as 1928. Fear is expressed that Percy Williams will not be the brilliant speeder who turned the sport world topsy-turvy at the last Olympics. His leg injury is something that has to be figured on and trick knees are capricious. Some days they stand the strain, but more often they don't. Williams has never used his injury as a prop for an alibi, and he will be out there trying to make the grade, but on his form this year high hopes cannot be pinned on his chances.

A GREAT HURLER

Speed ball pitchers last a long time, and Lefty Grove, emperor of the current crop, who has set a modern record, will likely breeze through and eclipse the mark set by Bagby of Cleveland in 1921. Thirty victories is a monumental string, and Grove ascends the seats of the mighty. While there is no yardstick of measurement except recourse to the record book to chart his position in the all time field it is probable he is as good a pitcher as ever walked to the mound. Walter Johnson, a keen judge of twirling talent, considers him one of the greatest in the history of the game. Grove is a stylist with a whizzing fast ball that he just keeps throwing and places no reliance whatever on anything else. No freak deliveries, no mixing them up—just speed and that's a commodity that counts in any sport if it is well controlled.

Quotations: Ewes, $1.50 to $4; lambs, good, $6 to $6.25; common, $4 to $5.75. Hog receipts were 2,351. Hogs offered included about 800 hogs held over from last week. The bulk of the hogs, butchers and lights were sold for $6. The few heavy hogs offered were sold around $5. Hogs were fairly well cleaned up when sold on grade. Selected brought $4 per hog premium, with a cut of $2 and $3 per hog off heavies and extra heavies.

AFTER SMITH

Rumors are starting to pile up in hockey, and the keen desire of Toronto Maple Leafs to get Hooley Smith lends interest to the approaching season. There will be plenty of backing and filling, and blowing of trade winds till the meeting a week from Saturday. This will be held in Montreal, and till then the air will be full of rumors. Maroons are seeking a new goal tend, and prefer one with experience to match up with young Kerr who gained his spurs last winter in a season which was an extraordinarily open one for those who essayed to defend Maroon nets.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES AT LEXINGTON THIS WEEK

Prize money totalling $70,000 will be offered at the eight-day Grand Circuit harness horse meeting, which will open at Lexington, Kentucky, today. Fast times are anticipated, inasmuch as at the recent Indianapolis meet several remarkable performances were recorded, a 2 year old pacer stepping a mile in 2:02 1-2 and several stake trotters winning heats in 2:02. The Lexington course is regarded as faster than that at Indianapolis, and times in this week's events should be exceptional.

Considerable interest is attached to the juvenile events, the two and three year old divisions of the Kentucky Futurity. The former has a value of $7,000 and the latter carries a purse of $14,000 and stellar young horses are entered in each.

Important races are also carded for the older campaigners, the features including the Walnut Hall Cup, $3,000; the Transylvania, $4,000; the Calumet, $3,000; the Castleton, $3,000, all for trotters and the Phoenix, $2,000; Lafayette, $2,000; and Hollywood Stakes, $2,000 for pacers.

POPULAR

limelight by making him the originator of Pa, Ma and Me, a comic strip which at once took public interest. Of course Eddie got rich and gave himself all the credit. The money of the family sap went to clothe her sister Cora Reid (Jeanne Bondie) who married the newly rich cartoonist. It turned out that the Sap loved Eddie Sparks but soon got over it when the money turned Eddie's head and finally caused him to lose his job. Meanwhile Benny Leonard (Lou Roland) Manager of the Times, falls in love with Josie Reid and finds out that she, (the sap of the family) is the real artist and is doing a lot of the work supposed to have been done by Eddie Sparks. He then features in his paper a comic strip of Josie's entitled "The Family Sap" which meets public approval, and Eddie Sparks goes on the rocks.

The mother (Peggy Downes) goes to live with her son-in-law, in a society neighborhood, but when the crash comes they all have to move back. Josie marries Benny and gets Eddie another chance on the Times.

It is a real, good, clean comedy and well worth seeing. There are several specialties between acts. Bondie and Mattison give some songs and dances which are splendid. Peggy and Charley Downes of course concentrate on comedy and they succeeded last night in putting over some big laughs. Charley, really knacker on the drums, does some fine work between the acts. Another specialty is Lou Roland, Tenor DeLuxe, who also won the applause of the audience.

The Mae Edwards Orchestra was an added attraction playing several up-to-date numbers in a big way. The Company will repeat last night's performance at a Matinee at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and tonight will present for approval a comedy drama, "Her First Husband."

WESTERN GUARDIAN

—CAR ACCIDENT— On Friday last a car accident which might have been more serious took place at Bloomfield Corner on the Western Road, when Mr. Russell Ramsay, collided with another car. Mr. Ramsay's car had one wheel taken completely off and the body of the machine badly damaged. The other car was not seriously damaged. Fortunately no one was hurt.—S.

—BIRTHDAY PARTY—A social event of interest last week was a birthday party given by Mrs. Joseph Smallman, of Summerside, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Samuel Waugh, who was 83 years of age on September 15th. Quite a number of relatives and old acquaintances called to extend their felicitations. After tea a pleasant social hour was spent. Mrs. Waugh in spite of her 83 years is remarkably active and enjoys working in her garden, which is a joy to behold.—S.

—SAD BEREAVEMENT— Much sympathy is felt of Mr. and Mrs. Columbine Arsenault in the death of their fifteen year old daughter, Teresa, who passed away last Friday evening after a long illness. Teresa was a bright and lovable child and will be sorely missed in the family circle. There are left to mourn besides her parents, four sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. Octave Gallant and Miss Regina, of Lawrence, Mass.; Mrs. Louis Gallant, of Summerside; Miss Ursula and Antoinette at home, to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Monday morning at 9 o'clock from her home to St. Paul's Church and cemetery.—S.

—SPECIAL SERVICES— The Forty Hours Devotion services were held in Bloomfield Church on September 7th and 8th. Special music was rendered by the choir at each service. The altar was beautifully decorated with flowers, under the direction of Mr. P. A. Arsenault. At the opening service, six little girls led the procession carrying baskets of roses, strewing the flowers in the path before the priests. Besides the parish priest, Rev. J. A. Gaudet, the following priests took part in the ceremonies: Rev. Father Poirier, of St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown; Rev. Father Walsh, of Palmer Road; Rev. J. A. McDonald, of St. Marks and Rev. William McCabe, of Brae.—S.

SNOW KEEPS FARMER COOL

ST. PAUL, Neb., Sept., 21.—Last winter's snows are still keeping Frank Teichmeier's ice box cold. When a blizzard heaped up a high snowbank near his home, he covered it with straw. The snowbank has provided ice throughout the summer. There was but one drawback to the plan. A large apple tree failed to bear fruit or even leaves, because of the cold of the drift which surrounded it.

FOR OILY BOTTLES

An oily bottle will have a shining face again if you put some clean sawdust in it, add some benzine and shake well. Add some hot water, and then rinse in hot water repeatedly.

Perhaps the modern girl is too much wrapped up in herself, but she doesn't overdo it here.

U. S. Year Book Gives Story Of Depression

Series of Charts

In a series of charts and lengthy explanation of them, the book shows the downward trend in business and industry, in foreign trade, in employment and wages, in agriculture, and in price movements. The opening sentence sums up well the trying experience through which this country and the world has passed.

"The recession in business activity which commenced in the latter part of 1929 developed into a world depression of major proportions by the latter part of 1930, accompanied by the accumulation of large stocks of raw materials throughout the world, extensive price declines, curtailment of industrial operations and growing unemployment, unsettled political conditions in many foreign countries, the severe drought in the United States, the decline in the price of silver, and other similar developments," it says in a nutshell.

Proof of Optimism

The book gives proof that the optimism expressed in the early months of 1930 by President Hoover and leading business men that the depression then was about to end was well-founded in developments at that time.

In the case of many downward trends, the book cites figures to show that the trend reached lower depths in the shot 1921 depression. The charts, sprinkled throughout the book almost uniformly, show a continually descending line.

A series of excerpts best shown in thumb-nail form, the outline of the depression.

COVERED COOKING

Liquids which have been thickened with cornstarch should be covered after the mixture needs no more stirring. This prevents the evaporation of the moisture and the forming of a skin on top.

TO PRESERVE DYES

Colored garments are less likely to "run" when washed if two table-spoonfuls of vinegar are added to the water in which they are being washed. This helps to fix the tint.

AVOIDING MILDEW

Mildew will leave clothes if they are soaked for 24 hours in sour milk, or buttermilk, then rinsed in water and washed in soap suds.

NURMI MAY NOT RUN IN 1932 OLYMPIC MEET

HELSINGFORS, Sept., 21 — Paavo Nurmi's entry in the Los Angeles Marathon, which was previously deemed possible, now appears doubtful. He has so far refused to commit himself, and has not intimated whether he is training for the event. But whether he will participate or not, Finland will again be represented by a powerful team.

There is one thing the Finns would perhaps like best; namely to re-establish their supremacy for the Marathon, which was broken at Amsterdam by El Ouafi, the African. The Marathon at the two previous Olympics, at Antwerp and Paris, it will be recalled was won respectively by Hannes Kolehmainen and A. Steenroos of Finland.

The Finns are making every effort to win back this supremacy. To this end they are conducting special training contests.

REFUSED LIFE-SAVING REWARD

MEMPHIS, Sept 21 (U. P.)—Barney Randolph, 19 year old Memphis youth, refused a $1 reward a girl offered him after he had plunged into the Mississippi river to save her from drowning. The girl, who attempted suicide by throwing herself into the river, "was just too young and pretty to die," Randolph said in explaining why he had endangered his life to rescue her.

PLAID BLANKETS

The old-fashioned plaid blanket is out of date. Blankets now are being designed in gay modernistic patterns with a wide range of colors. Others are authentic copies of famous patchwork quilt patterns.

AVOIDING MILDEW

Mildew will leave clothes if they are soaked for 24 hours in sour milk, or buttermilk, then rinsed in water and washed in soap suds.

YOUTHS FIND MASTODON'S BONES

GENESECO, Ill., Sept., 21—Two high school youths, wading in the low waters of the Green river near here, unearthed a large bone, believed to be the thigh bone of a prehistoric Mastodon. Walter Schutler and Scott Lorimer discovered the end of the bone protruding from the water, but thought it was a stump, a smaller bone, discovered nearby, was thought to be from the lower leg of the same animal. It was 18 inches long.
